COMBINED TRANSPORT SEA WAYBILL

Code Name: "COMBICONWAYBILL"

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Applicability.
Notwithstanding the heading "Combined Transport", the provisions set out and referred to in this Sea Waybill shall also apply, if the transport as described in this Sea Waybill is performed by one mode of transport only.

2. Definitions.
"Carrier" means the party on whose behalf this Sea Waybill has been signed.
"Merchant" includes the Shipper, the Receiver, the Consignor, the Consignee and the owner of the goods.

3. Carrier's Tariff.
The terms of the Carrier's applicable Tariff at the date of shipment are incorporated herein. Copies of the relevant provisions of the applicable Tariff are available from the Carrier upon request. In the case of inconsistency between this Sea Waybill and the applicable Tariff, this Sea Waybill shall prevail.

4. Time Bar.
All liability whatsoever of the Carrier shall cease unless suit is brought within 9 months after delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered.

5. Law and Jurisdiction.
Disputes arising under this Sea Waybill shall be determined by the courts and in accordance with the law at the place where the Carrier has his principal place of business.

II. PERFORMANCE OF THE CONTRACT

6. Methods and Routes of Transportation.
(1) The Carrier is entitled to perform the transport and all services related thereto in any reasonable manner and by any reasonable means, methods and routes.
(2) In accordance herewith, for instance, in the event of carriage by sea, vessels may sail with or without pilots, undergo repairs, adjust equipment, drydock and tow vessels in all situations.

7. Optional Stowage.
(1) Goods may be stowed by the Carrier by means of containers, trailers, transportable tanks, flats, pallets, or similar articles of transport used to consolidate goods.
(2) Containers, trailers, transportable tanks and covered flats, whether stowed by the Carrier or received by him in a stowed condition from the Merchant, may be carried on or under deck without notice to the Merchant.

8. Hindrances etc. Affecting Performance.
(1) The Carrier shall use reasonable endeavours to complete the transport and to deliver the goods at the place designated for delivery.
(2) If at any time the performance of the contract as evidenced by this Sea Waybill is or will be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of whatsoever kind, and if by virtue of sub-clause 8 (1) the Carrier has no duty to complete the performance of the contract, the Carrier (whether or not the transport is commenced) may elect to:
(a) treat the performance of this Contract as terminated and place the goods at the Merchant's disposal at any place which the Carrier shall deem safe and convenient; or
(b) deliver the goods at the place designated for delivery.
(3) If the goods are not taken delivery of by the Merchant within a reasonable time after the Carrier has called upon him to take delivery, the Carrier shall be at liberty to put the goods in safe custody on behalf of the Merchant at the latter's risk and expense.
(4) In any event the Carrier shall be entitled to full freight for goods received for transportation and additional compensation for extra costs resulting from the circumstances referred to above.

III. CARRIER'S LIABILITY

9. Basic Liability.
(1) The Carrier shall be liable for loss of or damage to the goods occurring between the time when he receives the goods into his charge and the time of delivery.
(2) The Carrier shall be responsible for the acts and omissions of any person of whose services he makes use for the performance of the contract of carriage evidenced by this Sea Waybill.
(3) The Carrier shall, however, be relieved of liability for any loss or damage if such loss or damage arose or resulted from:
(a) The wrongful act or neglect of the Merchant.
(b) Compliance with the instructions of the person entitled to give them.
(c) The lack of, or defective conditions of packing in the case of goods which, by their nature, are liable to wastage or to be damaged when not packed or when not properly packed.
(d) Handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the goods by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(e) Inherent vice of the goods.
(f) Insufficiency or inadequacy of marks or numbers on the goods, covering, or unit loads.
(g) Strikes or lock-outs or stoppages or restraints of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general.
(h) Any cause or event which the Carrier could not avoid and the consequence whereof he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.
(4) Where under sub-clause 9 (3) the Carrier is not under any liability in respect of some of the factors causing the loss or damage, he shall only be liable to the extent that those factors for which he is liable under this Clause have contributed to the loss or damage.
(5) The burden of proving that the loss or damage was due to one or more of the causes or events, specified in (a), (b) and (h) of sub-clause 9 (3) shall rest upon the Carrier.
(6) When the Carrier establishes that in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the causes or events, specified in (c) to (g) of sub-clause 9 (3), it shall be presumed that it was so caused. The Merchant shall, however, be entitled to prove that the loss or damage was not, in fact, caused either wholly or partly by one or more of the causes or events.

10. Amount of Compensation
(1) When the Carrier is liable for compensation in respect of loss of or damage to the goods, such compensation shall be calculated by reference to the value of such goods at the place and time they are delivered to the Merchant in accordance with the contract or should have been so delivered.
(2) The value of the goods shall be fixed according to the commodity exchange price or, if there be no such price, according to the current market price or, if there be no commodity exchange price or current market price, by reference to the normal value of goods of the same kind and quality.
(3) Compensation shall not, however, exceed two Special Drawing Rights per kilogramme of gross weight of the goods lost or damaged.
(4) Higher compensation may be claimed only when, with the consent of the Carrier, the value for the goods declared by the Shipper which exceeds the limits laid down in this Clause has been stated on the face of this Sea Waybill at the place indicated. In that case the amount of the declared value shall be substituted for that limit.

11. Special Provisions for Liability and Compensation
(1) Notwithstanding anything provided for in Clauses 9 and 10 of this Sea Waybill, if it can be proved where the loss or damage occurred, the Carrier and the Merchant shall, as to the liability of the Carrier, be entitled to require such liability to be determined by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law, which provisions:
(a) cannot be departed from by private contract, to the detriment of the claimant, and
(b) would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of transport where the loss or damage occurred and received as evidence thereof any particular document which must be issued if such international convention or national law shall apply.
(2) Insofar as there is no mandatory law applying to carriage by sea by virtue of the provisions of sub-clause 11 (1), the liability of the Carrier in respect of any carriage by sea shall be determined by the International Brussels Convention 1924 as amended by the Protocol signed at Brussels on February 23rd 1968 – The Hague/Visby Rules. The Hague/Visby Rules shall also determine the liability of the Carrier in respect of carriage by inland waterways as if such carriage were carriage by sea. Furthermore, they shall apply to all goods, whether carried on deck or under deck.

12. Delay, Consequential Loss, etc.
(1) The Carrier shall not be liable in any capacity, whatsoever, for any delay, non-delivery, misdelivery or other loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods occurring at any time contemplated under Clause 9 (1).
(2) If the Carrier is held liable for delay, non-delivery, misdelivery or other loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods as described above in subdivision 1, such liability shall in no case exceed the freight for the transport covered by this document.

13. Notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods
(1) Unless notice of loss of or damage to the goods, specifying the general nature of such loss or damage, is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier when the goods are handed over to the Merchant, such handing over is prima facie evidence of the Delivery by the Carrier of the goods as described in this Sea Waybill.
(2) Where the loss or damage is not apparent, the same prima facie effect shall apply if notice in writing is not given within three (3) consecutive days after the day when the goods were handed over to the Merchant.

14. Defences and Limits for the Carrier, Servants, etc.
(1) The defences and limits of liability provided for in this Sea Waybill shall apply in any action against the Carrier for loss or damage to the goods whether the action can be founded in contract or in tort.
(2) The Carrier shall not be entitled to the benefit of the limitation of liability provided for in sub-clause 10 (3), if it is proved that the loss or damage resulted from a personal act or omission of the Carrier done with intent to cause such loss or damage or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result.
(3) The Merchant undertakes that no claim shall be made against any servant, agent or other persons whose services the Carrier has used in order to perform this Contract and if any claim should nevertheless be made, to indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.
(4) However, the provisions of this Sea Waybill apply whenever claims relating to the performance of this Contract are made against any servant, agent or other person whose services the Carrier has used in order to perform this Contract, whether such claims are founded in contract or in tort. In entering into this Contract, the Carrier, to the extent of such provisions, does so not only on his own behalf but also as agent or trustee for such persons. The aggregate liability of the Carrier and such persons shall not exceed the limits in Clauses 10, 11 and 24, respectively.

IV. DESCRIPTION OF GOODS

15. Carrier's Responsibility.
The information in this Sea Waybill shall be prima facie evidence of the taking in charge by the Carrier of the goods as described by such information unless a contrary indication, such as "shipper's weight, load and count", "Shipper-packed container" or similar expressions, have been made in the printed text or superimposed on the Sea Waybill. As between the Carrier and Consignee the information in the Sea Waybill shall be conclusive evidence of receipt of the goods as so stated and proof to the contrary shall not be permitted provided always that the Consignee has acted in good faith.

16. Shipper's Responsibility.
The Shipper shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy, at the time the goods were taken in charge by the Carrier, of the description of the goods, marks, number, quantity and weight, as furnished by him, and the Shipper shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Carrier against all loss, damage and expenses arising or resulting from inaccuracies in or inadequacy of such particulars. The right of the Carrier to such indemnity shall in no way limit his responsibility and liability under this Sea Waybill to any person other than the Shipper. The Shipper shall remain liable even if the goods have been delivered.

17. Shipper-packed Containers, etc.
(1) If a container has not been filled, packed or stowed by the Carrier, the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to its contents and the Merchant shall cover any loss or expense incurred by the Carrier, if such loss, damage or expense has been caused by:
(a) negligent filling, packing or stowing of the container;
(b) the contents being unsuitable for carriage in container; or
(c) the unsuitability or defective condition of the container unless the container has been supplied by the Carrier and the unsuitability or defective condition would not have been apparent upon reasonable inspection at or prior to the time when the container was filled, packed or stowed.
(2) The provisions of sub-clause (1) of this Clause also apply with respect to trailers, transportable tanks, flats and pallets which have not been filled, packed or stowed by the Carrier.
(3) The Carrier does not accept liability for damage due to the unsuitability or defective condition of reefer equipment or trailers supplied by the Merchant.

18. Dangerous Goods.
(1) The Merchant shall comply with all internationally recognised requirements and all rules which apply according to national law or by reason of international Convention, relating to the carriage of goods of a dangerous nature, and shall in any event inform the Carrier in writing of the exact nature of the danger before goods of a dangerous nature are taken into charge by the Carrier and indicate to him, if need be, the precautions to be taken.
(2) Goods of a dangerous nature which the Carrier did not know were dangerous, may, at any time or place, be unloaded, destroyed, or rendered harmless, without compensation; further, the Merchant shall be liable for all expenses, loss or damage arising out of their handing over for carriage or of their carriage.
(3) If any goods shipped with the knowledge of the Carrier as to their dangerous nature shall become a danger to any person or property, they may in like manner be landed at any place or destroyed or rendered innocuous by the Carrier without liability on the part of the Carrier except to General Average, if any.

19. Return of Containers
(1) For the purpose of this Clause the Consignor shall mean the person who concludes this Contract with the Carrier and the Consignee shall mean the person entitled to receive the goods from the Carrier.
(2) Containers, pallets or similar articles of transport supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier shall be returned to the Carrier in the same order and condition as handed over to the Merchant, normal wear and tear excepted, with interiors clean and within the time prescribed in the Carrier's tariff or elsewhere.
(3) (a) The Consignor shall be liable for any loss of, damage to, or delay, including demurrage, of such articles, incurred during the period between handing over to the Consignor and return to the Carrier for carriage.
(b) The Consignor and the Consignee shall be jointly and severally liable for any loss of, damage to, or delay, including demurrage, of such articles, incurred during the period between handing over to the Consignee and return to the Carrier.

V. FREIGHT AND LIEN

20. Freight.
(1) Freight shall be deemed earned when the goods have been taken in charge by the Carrier and shall be paid in any event.
(2) The Merchant's attention is drawn to the stipulations concerning currency in which the freight and charges are to be paid, rate of exchange, devaluation and other contingencies relative to freight and charges in the relevant tariff conditions. If no such stipulation as to devaluation exists or is applicable the following shall apply:
If the currency in which freight and charges are quoted is devalued between the date of the freight agreement and the date when the freight and charges are paid, then all freight and charges shall be automatically and immediately increased in proportion to the extent of the devaluation of the said currency.
(3) For the purpose of verifying the freight basis, the Carrier reserves the right to have the contents of containers, trailers or similar articles of tranport inspected in order to ascertain the weight, measurement, value, or nature of the goods.

21. Lien
The carrier and his agent (as named on the reverse side of this document) shall have a lien on the goods and any documents relating thereto, for any amount due to them, at any time from the merchant including the costs of recovering same, and may enforce such lien in any reasonable manner including sale or disposal of the goods.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

22. General Average.
(1) General Average shall be adjusted at any port or place at the Carrier's option, and to be settled according to the York-Antwerp Rules 1994, or any modification thereof, this covering all goods, whether carried on or under deck. The New Jason Clause as approved by BIMCO to be considered as incorporated herein.
(2) Such security including a cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be submitted to the Carrier prior to delivery of the goods.

23. Both-to-Blame Collision Clause.
The Both-to-Blame Collision Clause as adopted by BIMCO shall be considered incorporated herein.

24. U.S. Trade
(1) In case the contract evidenced by this Sea Waybill is subject to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States of America, 1936 (U.S. COGSA), then the provisions stated in the said Act shall govern before loading and after discharge and throughout the entire time the goods are in the Carrier's custody.
(2) If the U.S. COGSA applies, and unless the nature and value of the goods have been declared by the shipper before the goods have been handed over to the Carrier and inserted in this Sea Waybill, the Carrier shall in no event be or become liable for any loss of or damage to the goods in an amount exceeding USD 500 per package or customary freight unit.

COMBINED TRANSPORT SEA WAYBILL

Code Name: "COMBICONWAYBILL"

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Applicability.
Notwithstanding the heading "Combined Transport", the provisions set out and referred to in this Sea Waybill shall also apply, if the transport as described in this Sea Waybill is performed by one mode of transport only.

2. Definitions.
"Carrier" means the party on whose behalf this Sea Waybill has been signed.
"Merchant" includes the Shipper, the Receiver, the Consignor, the Consignee and the owner of the goods.

3. Carrier's Tariff.
The terms of the Carrier's applicable Tariff at the date of shipment are incorporated herein. Copies of the relevant provisions of the applicable Tariff are available from the Carrier upon request. In the case of inconsistency between this Sea Waybill and the applicable Tariff, this Sea Waybill shall prevail.

4. Time Bar.
All liability whatsoever of the Carrier shall cease unless suit is brought within 9 months after delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered.

5. Law and Jurisdiction.
Disputes arising under this Sea Waybill shall be determined by the courts and in accordance with the law at the place where the Carrier has his principal place of business.

II. PERFORMANCE OF THE CONTRACT

6. Methods and Routes of Transportation.
(1) The Carrier is entitled to perform the transport and all services related thereto in any reasonable manner and by any reasonable means, methods and routes.
(2) In accordance herewith, for instance, in the event of carriage by sea, vessels may sail with or without pilots, undergo repairs, adjust equipment, drydock and tow vessels in all situations.

7. Optional Stowage.
(1) Goods may be stowed by the Carrier by means of containers, trailers, transportable tanks, flats, pallets, or similar articles of transport used to consolidate goods.
(2) Containers, trailers, transportable tanks and covered flats, whether stowed by the Carrier or received by him in a stowed condition from the Merchant, may be carried on or under deck without notice to the Merchant.

8. Hindrances etc. Affecting Performance.
(1) The Carrier shall use reasonable endeavours to complete the transport and to deliver the goods at the place designated for delivery.
(2) If at any time the performance of the contract as evidenced by this Sea Waybill is or will be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of whatsoever kind, and if by virtue of sub-clause 8 (1) the Carrier has no duty to complete the performance of the contract, the Carrier (whether or not the transport is commenced) may elect to:
(a) treat the performance of this Contract as terminated and place the goods at the Merchant's disposal at any place which the Carrier shall deem safe and convenient; or
(b) deliver the goods at the place designated for delivery.
(3) If the goods are not taken delivery of by the Merchant within a reasonable time after the Carrier has called upon him to take delivery, the Carrier shall be at liberty to put the goods in safe custody on behalf of the Merchant at the latter's risk and expense.
(4) In any event the Carrier shall be entitled to full freight for goods received for transportation and additional compensation for extra costs resulting from the circumstances referred to above.

III. CARRIER'S LIABILITY

9. Basic Liability.
(1) The Carrier shall be liable for loss of or damage to the goods occurring between the time when he receives the goods into his charge and the time of delivery.
(2) The Carrier shall be responsible for the acts and omissions of any person of whose services he makes use for the performance of the contract of carriage evidenced by this Sea Waybill.
(3) The Carrier shall, however, be relieved of liability for any loss or damage if such loss or damage arose or resulted from:
(a) The wrongful act or neglect of the Merchant.
(b) Compliance with the instructions of the person entitled to give them.
(c) The lack of, or defective conditions of packing in the case of goods which, by their nature, are liable to wastage or to be damaged when not packed or when not properly packed.
(d) Handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the goods by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(e) Inherent vice of the goods.
(f) Insufficiency or inadequacy of marks or numbers on the goods, covering, or unit loads.
(g) Strikes or lock-outs or stoppages or restraints of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general.
(h) Any cause or event which the Carrier could not avoid and the consequence whereof he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.
(4) Where under sub-clause 9 (3) the Carrier is not under any liability in respect of some of the factors causing the loss or damage, he shall only be liable to the extent that those factors for which he is liable under this Clause have contributed to the loss or damage.
(5) The burden of proving that the loss or damage was due to one or more of the causes or events, specified in (a), (b) and (h) of sub-clause 9 (3) shall rest upon the Carrier.
(6) When the Carrier establishes that in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the causes or events, specified in (c) to (g) of sub-clause 9 (3), it shall be presumed that it was so caused. The Merchant shall, however, be entitled to prove that the loss or damage was not, in fact, caused either wholly or partly by one or more of the causes or events.

10. Amount of Compensation
(1) When the Carrier is liable for compensation in respect of loss of or damage to the goods, such compensation shall be calculated by reference to the value of such goods at the place and time they are delivered to the Merchant in accordance with the contract or should have been so delivered.
(2) The value of the goods shall be fixed according to the commodity exchange price or, if there be no such price, according to the current market price or, if there be no commodity exchange price or current market price, by reference to the normal value of goods of the same kind and quality.
(3) Compensation shall not, however, exceed two Special Drawing Rights per kilogramme of gross weight of the goods lost or damaged.
(4) Higher compensation may be claimed only when, with the consent of the Carrier, the value for the goods declared by the Shipper which exceeds the limits laid down in this Clause has been stated on the face of this Sea Waybill at the place indicated. In that case the amount of the declared value shall be substituted for that limit.

11. Special Provisions for Liability and Compensation
(1) Notwithstanding anything provided for in Clauses 9 and 10 of this Sea Waybill, if it can be proved where the loss or damage occurred, the Carrier and the Merchant shall, as to the liability of the Carrier, be entitled to require such liability to be determined by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law, which provisions:
(a) cannot be departed from by private contract, to the detriment of the claimant, and
(b) would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of transport where the loss or damage occurred and received as evidence thereof any particular document which must be issued if such international convention or national law shall apply.
(2) Insofar as there is no mandatory law applying to carriage by sea by virtue of the provisions of sub-clause 11 (1), the liability of the Carrier in respect of any carriage by sea shall be determined by the International Brussels Convention 1924 as amended by the Protocol signed at Brussels on February 23rd 1968 – The Hague/Visby Rules. The Hague/Visby Rules shall also determine the liability of the Carrier in respect of carriage by inland waterways as if such carriage were carriage by sea. Furthermore, they shall apply to all goods, whether carried on deck or under deck.

12. Delay, Consequential Loss, etc.
(1) The Carrier shall not be liable in any capacity, whatsoever, for any delay, non-delivery, misdelivery or other loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods occurring at any time contemplated under Clause 9 (1).
(2) If the Carrier is held liable for delay, non-delivery, misdelivery or other loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods as described above in subdivision 1, such liability shall in no case exceed the freight for the transport covered by this document.

13. Notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods
(1) Unless notice of loss of or damage to the goods, specifying the general nature of such loss or damage, is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier when the goods are handed over to the Merchant, such handing over is prima facie evidence of the Delivery by the Carrier of the goods as described in this Sea Waybill.
(2) Where the loss or damage is not apparent, the same prima facie effect shall apply if notice in writing is not given within three (3) consecutive days after the day when the goods were handed over to the Merchant.

14. Defences and Limits for the Carrier, Servants, etc.
(1) The defences and limits of liability provided for in this Sea Waybill shall apply in any action against the Carrier for loss or damage to the goods whether the action can be founded in contract or in tort.
(2) The Carrier shall not be entitled to the benefit of the limitation of liability provided for in sub-clause 10 (3), if it is proved that the loss or damage resulted from a personal act or omission of the Carrier done with intent to cause such loss or damage or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result.
(3) The Merchant undertakes that no claim shall be made against any servant, agent or other persons whose services the Carrier has used in order to perform this Contract and if any claim should nevertheless be made, to indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.
(4) However, the provisions of this Sea Waybill apply whenever claims relating to the performance of this Contract are made against any servant, agent or other person whose services the Carrier has used in order to perform this Contract, whether such claims are founded in contract or in tort. In entering into this Contract, the Carrier, to the extent of such provisions, does so not only on his own behalf but also as agent or trustee for such persons. The aggregate liability of the Carrier and such persons shall not exceed the limits in Clauses 10, 11 and 24, respectively.

IV. DESCRIPTION OF GOODS

15. Carrier's Responsibility.
The information in this Sea Waybill shall be prima facie evidence of the taking in charge by the Carrier of the goods as described by such information unless a contrary indication, such as "shipper's weight, load and count", "Shipper-packed container" or similar expressions, have been made in the printed text or superimposed on the Sea Waybill. As between the Carrier and Consignee the information in the Sea Waybill shall be conclusive evidence of receipt of the goods as so stated and proof to the contrary shall not be permitted provided always that the Consignee has acted in good faith.

16. Shipper's Responsibility.
The Shipper shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy, at the time the goods were taken in charge by the Carrier, of the description of the goods, marks, number, quantity and weight, as furnished by him, and the Shipper shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Carrier against all loss, damage and expenses arising or resulting from inaccuracies in or inadequacy of such particulars. The right of the Carrier to such indemnity shall in no way limit his responsibility and liability under this Sea Waybill to any person other than the Shipper. The Shipper shall remain liable even if the goods have been delivered.

17. Shipper-packed Containers, etc.
(1) If a container has not been filled, packed or stowed by the Carrier, the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to its contents and the Merchant shall cover any loss or expense incurred by the Carrier, if such loss, damage or expense has been caused by:
(a) negligent filling, packing or stowing of the container;
(b) the contents being unsuitable for carriage in container; or
(c) the unsuitability or defective condition of the container unless the container has been supplied by the Carrier and the unsuitability or defective condition would not have been apparent upon reasonable inspection at or prior to the time when the container was filled, packed or stowed.
(2) The provisions of sub-clause (1) of this Clause also apply with respect to trailers, transportable tanks, flats and pallets which have not been filled, packed or stowed by the Carrier.
(3) The Carrier does not accept liability for damage due to the unsuitability or defective condition of reefer equipment or trailers supplied by the Merchant.

18. Dangerous Goods.
(1) The Merchant shall comply with all internationally recognised requirements and all rules which apply according to national law or by reason of international Convention, relating to the carriage of goods of a dangerous nature, and shall in any event inform the Carrier in writing of the exact nature of the danger before goods of a dangerous nature are taken into charge by the Carrier and indicate to him, if need be, the precautions to be taken.
(2) Goods of a dangerous nature which the Carrier did not know were dangerous, may, at any time or place, be unloaded, destroyed, or rendered harmless, without compensation; further, the Merchant shall be liable for all expenses, loss or damage arising out of their handing over for carriage or of their carriage.
(3) If any goods shipped with the knowledge of the Carrier as to their dangerous nature shall become a danger to any person or property, they may in like manner be landed at any place or destroyed or rendered innocuous by the Carrier without liability on the part of the Carrier except to General Average, if any.

19. Return of Containers
(1) For the purpose of this Clause the Consignor shall mean the person who concludes this Contract with the Carrier and the Consignee shall mean the person entitled to receive the goods from the Carrier.
(2) Containers, pallets or similar articles of transport supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier shall be returned to the Carrier in the same order and condition as handed over to the Merchant, normal wear and tear excepted, with interiors clean and within the time prescribed in the Carrier's tariff or elsewhere.
(3) (a) The Consignor shall be liable for any loss of, damage to, or delay, including demurrage, of such articles, incurred during the period between handing over to the Consignor and return to the Carrier for carriage.
(b) The Consignor and the Consignee shall be jointly and severally liable for any loss of, damage to, or delay, including demurrage, of such articles, incurred during the period between handing over to the Consignee and return to the Carrier.

V. FREIGHT AND LIEN

20. Freight.
(1) Freight shall be deemed earned when the goods have been taken in charge by the Carrier and shall be paid in any event.
(2) The Merchant's attention is drawn to the stipulations concerning currency in which the freight and charges are to be paid, rate of exchange, devaluation and other contingencies relative to freight and charges in the relevant tariff conditions. If no such stipulation as to devaluation exists or is applicable the following shall apply:
If the currency in which freight and charges are quoted is devalued between the date of the freight agreement and the date when the freight and charges are paid, then all freight and charges shall be automatically and immediately increased in proportion to the extent of the devaluation of the said currency.
(3) For the purpose of verifying the freight basis, the Carrier reserves the right to have the contents of containers, trailers or similar articles of tranport inspected in order to ascertain the weight, measurement, value, or nature of the goods.

21. Lien
The carrier and his agent (as named on the reverse side of this document) shall have a lien on the goods and any documents relating thereto, for any amount due to them, at any time from the merchant including the costs of recovering same, and may enforce such lien in any reasonable manner including sale or disposal of the goods.

22. General Average.
(1) General Average shall be adjusted at any port or place at the Carrier's option, and to be settled according to the York-Antwerp Rules 1994, or any modification thereof, this covering all goods, whether carried on or under deck. The New Jason Clause as approved by BIMCO to be considered as incorporated herein.
(2) Such security including a cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be submitted to the Carrier prior to delivery of the goods.

23. Both-to-Blame Collision Clause.
The Both-to-Blame Collision Clause as adopted by BIMCO shall be considered incorporated herein.

24. U.S. Trade
(1) In case the contract evidenced by this Sea Waybill is subject to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States of America, 1936 (U.S. COGSA), then the provisions stated in the said Act shall govern before loading and after discharge and throughout the entire time the goods are in the Carrier's custody.
(2) If the U.S. COGSA applies, and unless the nature and value of the goods have been declared by the shipper before the goods have been handed over to the Carrier and inserted in this Sea Waybill, the Carrier shall in no event be or become liable for any loss of or damage to the goods in an amount exceeding USD 500 per package or customary freight unit.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

11. CONTAINER PACKED BY MERCHANT
If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare under this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delivery is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain in the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on the voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per package or unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, the Declared Value shall nevertheless be declared to be the Declared Value, and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.
(B) In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage, resulting from any cause, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequences of which the Carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the Goods and the Merchant shall jointly and severally contribute with the Carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, loss, or expenses of a general average nature that may be or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the Goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully and in the same manner as if such salving ship belonged to strangers.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in any such cargo. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare as required by this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delay is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain at the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on to voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, or if no Declared Value, or no extra freight has been paid, then the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or Goods or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare under this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delivery is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain in the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on the voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per package or unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, the Declared Value shall nevertheless be declared to be the Declared Value, and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in any such cargo. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare as required by this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delay is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain at the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on to voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, or if no Declared Value, or no extra freight has been paid, then the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or Goods or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

Notwithstanding the paragraph 1 hereof, if this Sea Waybill covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Sea Waybill, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Intermodal Transportation.
3. This Sea Waybill is not a document of title and the Carrier is entitled to deliver goods without presentation of this Sea Waybill.
4. Subject to the foregoing paragraphs, all the terms and conditions, including but not limited to exceptions, defences and liberties, of the Carrier's Standard Bill of lading, which will be made available upon request, shall be deemed to be incorporated herein with logical amendments.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in any such cargo. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare as required by this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delay is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain at the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on to voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, or if no Declared Value, or no extra freight has been paid, then the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or Goods or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in such cases. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare under this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delivery is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain in the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on the voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per package or unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, the Declared Value shall nevertheless be declared to be the Declared Value, and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in such cases. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare under this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delivery is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain in the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on the voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per package or unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, the Declared Value shall nevertheless be declared to be the Declared Value, and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in such cases. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare under this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delivery is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain in the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on the voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per package or unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, the Declared Value shall nevertheless be declared to be the Declared Value, and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in any such cargo. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare as required by this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delay is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain at the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on to voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, or if no Declared Value, or no extra freight has been paid, then the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or Goods or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in any such cargo. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare as required by this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delay is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain at the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on to voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, or if no Declared Value, or no extra freight has been paid, then the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or Goods or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in any such cargo. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare as required by this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delay is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain at the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on to voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, or if no Declared Value, or no extra freight has been paid, then the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or Goods or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

THIS BILL OF LADING IS A 3 PAGE DOCUMENT AND CARRIAGE OF GOODS IS SUBJECT TO OOCL'S STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE, WHICH APPEAR AT THE END HEREOF AS PAGE 3

TERMS AND CONDITIONS (Also Available in Pamphlet Form from the Carrier or its Agents)

The printed terms and conditions appearing on the face and reverse side of this Bill of Lading are available at www.oocl.com, in Carrier's published US tariffs, and in pamphlet form.

RECEIVED for shipment in external apparent good order and condition, unless otherwise indicated, the number of containers, packages or other customary freight units identified as "Total Number of Container/Packages received and acknowledged by the Carrier" on the face hereof subject to all the terms and conditions hereof from Place of Receipt or the Port of Loading, whichever is applicable, to Place of Delivery or Port of Discharge, whichever is applicable. Weights, measurements, marks, numbers, quantity, contents and value if mentioned herein are to be considered unknown by the Carrier.

Notwithstanding any customs or privileges to the contrary, the Merchant, in accepting this Bill of Lading, expressly agrees to be bound by all stipulations, exceptions, and conditions attached hereto or stated herein, whether written, printed, stamped or otherwise incorporated herein, as fully as if they were all signed by such Merchant.

1) IDENTITY AND DEFINITION OF CARRIER. "Orient Overseas Container Line" and "OOCL" are trade names for transportation provided separately by: Orient Overseas Container Line Limited ("OOCLL") and OOCL(Europe) Limited ("OEUL") respectively as follows:-

(a) OEUL shall be deemed the Carrier for transportation of Goods where those Goods are either loaded or discharged in any of Russia, Poland and Turkey.

(b) OOCLL shall be deemed to be the Carrier for Goods not carried in 1 (a) above
For the avoidance of doubt, for the purpose of this Clause, transhipment of Goods in either Russia, Poland or Turkey is not to be regarded as 'loading' or 'discharging' Goods.

If it is ultimately adjudged that a second person or entity, including without limitation, the Vessel, her owner, operator, demise, time, slot and space charterer and/or another member of an alliance and/or consortium and/or joint arrangement of which the Carrier may be a member, is also a carrier/bailee then that person or entity shall have the benefit of all the rights and defenses provided for in this Bill of Lading or by law.

Notice is hereby given that Carrier is a member of alliances and/or consortia and/or joint arrangements. The members of such groups, including Carrier, reserve the right to carry cargo for each other, and otherwise cooperate with each other in the carriage of cargo, without notice to the Merchant. In the case of such carriage, however, the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading shall apply, and the Merchant shall be bound by them and Carrier shall be deemed in all instances to be the Carrier of the Goods, subject to the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading.

2) DEFINITIONS Without limitation of any definition in any applicable law herein mentioned: "VESSEL" shall include the vessel(s) named in this Bill of Lading, any substituted vessel(s), any vessel to which transhipment may be made in the performance of this contract and, any vessel, craft, lighter or other means of transportation whatsoever, owned, chartered, operated or controlled and used by the Carrier or Participating Carrier in the performance of this contract; "MERCHANT" includes the Shipper, consignor, endorsee, transferee, Holder of this document, consignee, receiver of the Goods, any person or entity owning or entitled to the possession of the Goods or of this Bill of Lading and anyone acting on behalf of any such persons; "GOODS" means the cargo received from the Shipper and includes any Container not supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier; "HOLDER" means any person for the time being in possession of this Bill of Lading to whom the property interest in the Goods has passed on or by reason of the consignment of the Goods or the endorsement of this Bill of Lading or otherwise; "PARTICIPATING CARRIER" shall include any other sea, water, land or air carrier performing any part of the carriage provided herein; "CONTAINER" includes any container, trailer, transportable tank, flat, pallet, cradle, sled or any similar article of transport used to consolidate or transport Goods; "LADEN ON BOARD", when noted on this Bill of Lading shall mean that the Goods have been placed on board the Vessel or any other mode of transport used by or on behalf of the Carrier or Participating Carrier enroute to the Port of Loading shown on the face of this Bill of Lading; "PORT OF LOADING" shall mean the place where the Goods are received for marine transport by the Carrier, or Participating Carrier or their respective agents, "PORT OF DISCHARGE" shall mean the place where the Goods are to be discharged from the Vessel; "PLACE OF RECEIPT" shall be the place where the Goods are received from the Merchant by the Carrier, Participating Carrier or their respective agents; "PLACE OF DELIVERY" shall be the place where the Goods are delivered by the Carrier or the Participating Carrier to the Merchant; "COGSA" refers to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States approved April 16, 1936 and any subsequent modifications or re-enactment thereto. The "HAGUE RULES" refers to the International Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules Relating to Bills of Lading done at Brussels August 25, 1924; "HAGUE-VISBY" refers to the Hague Rules as Amended by the Protocol done at Brussels on February 23, 1968. References to the internal law of a State shall be deemed to exclude all principles of private international law applied by such State; "STATE" shall mean any nation, country, commonwealth, territory or possession, internationally recognized to be a body politic and to exercise sovereign power; "COMBINED TRANSPORT" arises if the Place of Receipt and/or Place of Delivery are indicated on the face of this Bill of Lading in the relevant boxes; and "PORT TO PORT TRANSPORT" arises if only the Port of Loading and/or Port of Discharge are indicated on the face of this Bill of Lading in the relevant boxes.

3) CARRIER'S TARIFF The terms of the applicable tariff(s) of the Carrier are incorporated herein. Copies of the relevant provisions of the applicable tariff(s) are obtainable from the Carrier upon request. In the case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable tariff(s), this Bill of Lading shall prevail except in the United States of America where the provisions of the tariff shall prevail.

4) CARRIER'S RESPONSIBILITY AND CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Port to Port Transport
If carriage is Port to Port Transport, the responsibility (if any) of the Carrier for loss or damage to the Goods occurring from the time when the Goods are loaded on board the Vessel at the Port of Loading until the time when the Goods are discharged from the Vessel at the Port of Discharge shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4(C).

The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for loss or damage to the Goods or non-delivery or misdelivery howsoever caused if such loss or damage, non-delivery or misdelivery arises prior to loading onto or subsequent to discharge from the Vessel. Notwithstanding the above, in case and to the extent that any applicable law provides for any additional period of responsibility the Carrier shall have the benefit of every right, defence, limitation and liberty of the Hague Rules during such additional compulsory period of responsibility notwithstanding that the loss or damage did not occur at sea.

(B) Combined Transport
If carriage is Combined Transport then the Carrier undertakes to perform and/or in its own name to procure performance of the carriage from the Place of Receipt or the Port of Loading whichever is applicable to the Place of Delivery or the Port of Discharge whichever is applicable and, save as is otherwise provided for in this Bill of Lading, the Carrier's liability for loss or damage to the Goods shall be as follows:-

1. If the stage of carriage where loss or damage occurred is not known
(a) Exclusions
If the stage of the carriage where the loss or damage to the Goods is not known then the Carrier shall be liable for loss and damage to the Goods save that the Carrier shall be relieved from liability for any loss or damage to the extent that such loss or damage was caused by:

(i) An act or omission of the Merchant;
(ii) Insufficiency or defective condition of packing or marking;
(iii) Compliance with the instructions of persons entitled to give them;
(iv) Handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the Goods by the Merchant;
(v) Inherent vice of the Goods;
(vi) Strike, lockout, stoppage or restraint of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general;
(vii) A nuclear incident;
(viii) Any cause or event which the Carrier could no avoid and the consequence of which he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.

(b) Burden of Proof The burden of proving that any loss or damage was caused by one or more of the events mentioned in Clauses 4(B)(1)(a)(i) to (viii) shall rest upon the Carrier save that when the Carrier is able to demonstrate that, in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the events specified in Clauses 4(B)(1)(a)(ii) to (vii) then it shall be presumed that it was so caused and in such circumstances the burden of proof shall be on the Merchant to prove that the loss or damage was not caused wholly or partly by one or more of these events.

(c) Limitation If the Carrier is liable for loss or damage to the Goods then the amount of compensation shall be calculated by reference to the invoice value of the Goods plus freight and insurance (if paid).

The Carrier's maximum liability hereunder shall in no circumstances exceed US$2 per kilo of gross weight of the Goods lost or damaged unless the value of the Goods has been declared by the Merchant with the consent of the Carrier and excess freight has been paid whereupon the declared value (if higher) as shown on the face of the Bill of Lading shall be substituted for the above limit and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

2. If the stage of carriage during which loss or damage occurred is known

Notwithstanding anything provided for in Clause 4(B)(1) if the stage of the carriage where loss or damage to the Goods is known then subject to the operation of Clause 4(C) which shall apply where loss or damage occurs to the Goods from the time when the Goods are loaded on board the Vessel at the Port of Loading until the time when the Goods are discharged from the Vessel at the Port of Discharge the Carriers liability in respect of any such loss or damage occurring shall be determined as follows:-

(a) By the provisions contained in any international convention or national law, which provisions cannot be departed from by private contract to the detriment of the Merchant, and would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of the carriage where the loss or damage occurred and received as evidence thereof any particular document which must be issued in order to make such international Convention or national law applicable; or

(b) If no international convention or national law is applicable then the liability of the Carrier shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Clause 4(B)(1).

(c) Subject to Clause 4(B)(2)(a) if loss or damage to the Goods is known to have occurred during a period when the Goods were in the custody of a Participating Carrier then the Carrier shall have the benefit of any and all rights, defences, exemptions, limitations and immunities contained in or incorporated by or compulsorily applicable to the Participating Carrier's tariff(s) or contract(s) with the Carrier (in addition to all of the rights, defences, exemptions, limitations and immunities contained in this Bill of Lading and the Carrier's tariff) and for this purpose such benefit, rights, defences, exemptions, limitations and immunities shall be deemed to be incorporated herein, and copies are obtainable from the Carrier upon request.

(C) Clause Paramount All carriage under this Bill of Lading (whether electronically produced or not) shall have effect subject to any legislation enacted in any country making the Hague or Hague-Visby Rules compulsorily applicable and in the absence of any such legislation in accordance with the Hague Rules or COGSA in the case of carriage to or from the United States of America.

In circumstances where the Hague Rules are not compulsorily applicable but are contractually applicable then subject to Clause 23 (ad valorem declaration) the Carrier's responsibility shall in no event exceed GBP100 per package or customary freight unit.

If any terms of this Bill of Lading are held repugnant to the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, COGSA or any other compulsorily applicable legislation then such provision shall be null and void to the extent of such invalidity without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof.

References in the Hague, Hague-Visby Rules, or COGSA to carriage by sea shall be deemed to include references to inland waterways or waterborne carriage.

(D) USA Clause Paramount (if applicable)

1. If carriage includes carriage to, from or through a port in the United States of America this Bill of Lading shall be subject to COGSA, the terms of which are incorporated herein and shall be paramount throughout carriage by sea and the entire time that the Goods are in the actual custody of the Carrier or its sub-contractor at the sea-terminal in the United States of America before loading onto the Vessel or after discharge therefrom as the case may be.

2. The Carrier shall not be liable in any capacity whatsoever for loss or delay to the Goods or non-delivery or misdelivery howsoever caused while the Goods are in the United States of America away from the sea-terminal and are not in the actual custody of the Carrier. At these times the Carrier acts as agent only for and on behalf of the Merchant and agrees to procure transportation of the Goods in accordance with the usual terms, conditions and tariff(s) of Participating Carriers. If for any reason the Carrier is denied the right to act as agent only at these times, its liability for loss and damage to the Goods or non-delivery or misdelivery thereof shall be determined in accordance with Clause 4(B) hereof.

3. If COGSA applies then the liability of the Carrier shall not exceed US$500 per package or customary freight unit unless the value of the Goods has been declared on the face hereof with the consent of the Carrier and extra freight has been paid in which case Clause 23 shall apply and the declared value (if higher) shall be substituted for the limit and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro-rata on the basis of such declared value.

4. Except as provided herein in Clauses 4(D)(1)and (2), and where COGSA does not apply by operation of law, Carrier's liability will be governed by COGSA unless its liability under some other body of law applicable to the particular stage of the transport where the loss occurred is more favourable to the Carrier (with regards to defenses and limitations), in which case that other body of law will apply.

5) WARRANTIES. The Merchant represents, warrants and agrees that:
(a) The Goods and any Container loaded by the Merchant are packed and secured in such a manner as to be handled in the ordinary course of the transportation without damage to the Goods, Vessel, Containers or other property or persons;
(b) Any Goods placed by the Merchant in Containers are compatible and suitable for transportation in Containers;
(c) He is or has the authority of the person owning or entitled to the possession of the Goods and this Bill of Lading; and
(d) The Merchant further warrants that the Container if not supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier meets all ISO and/or other applicable national or international safety standards and is fit in all respects for carriage by the Carrier.

6) MERCHANT'S RESPONSIBILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION
1. All of the persons coming within the definition of Merchant shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the due fulfilment of all obligations undertaken by the Merchant in this Bill of Lading and remain so liable throughout the transportation notwithstanding their having transferred this Bill of Lading and/or title to the Goods to another party.
2. The Merchant further warrants to the Carrier that the particulars relating to the Goods as set out on the face of this Bill of Lading have been checked by the Shipper on receipt of this Bill of Lading and that such particulars and any other particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Shipper are adequate, accurate and correct.
3. The Shipper shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage and expenses arising or resulting from inaccuracies in or inadequacy of such particulars. The right of the Carrier to such indemnity shall in no way limit its responsibility and liability under this Bill of Lading to any person other than the Shipper.
4. The Merchant undertakes not to tender for transportation any Goods which require refrigeration without giving written notice of their nature and the required temperature setting of the thermostatic controls before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier.
5. The Merchant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Carrier against all and any claims, loss, damage, fines or expense arising or resulting from any breach of any warranty or other obligation of the Merchant under the terms of this Bill of Lading or applicable law (including but not limited to those Carrier may incur or liability to any person which the Carrier may suffer due to personal injury or loss of or damage to any property). Such indemnity shall include costs, including attorney fees, to defend any action brought by third parties or to prosecute any claim against the Merchant arising from the Merchant's obligation(s) under this Bill of Lading.

7) REGULATIONS RELATING TO GOODS
1. The Merchant shall comply with all rules, laws, regulations or requirements of customs, port and other authorities, and shall bear and indemnify all duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses or losses incurred or suffered by reason thereof or by reason of any illegal, incorrect or insufficient description, marking, numbering or addressing of the Goods, and indemnify the Carrier in respect thereof
2. If the Carrier is obliged to handover the Goods or any part thereof into the custody of any customs, port or other authority, such handover shall constitute due delivery of the Goods or any part thereof to the Merchant under this Bill of Lading.

8) SHIPPER-PACKED CONTAINERS
1. If a Container has not been filled, packed, stuffed or loaded by the Carrier, the Carrier shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the contents and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, liability or expense incurred by the Carrier, if such loss, damage, liability or expense has been caused by:
(a) the manner in which the Container has been filled, packed, stuffed or loaded; or
(b) the unsuitability of the contents for carriage in Containers; or
(c) the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container and/or any without any want of due diligence on the part of the Carrier to make the Container reasonably fit for the purpose for which it is required; or
(d) the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container or the incorrect setting of any temperature controls thereof which would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time when the Container was filled, packed, stuffed or loaded; or
(e) packing of temperature controlled Goods at other than the booked temperature.
2. The Shipper is responsible for the packing and sealing of all Shipper-packed Containers. The Shipper shall inspect Containers before stuffing them and the use of the Containers shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt of the Container by Shipper and that the Container is in good order and condition. If a Shipper-packed Container is delivered by the Carrier with its seal intact, the Carrier shall not be liable for any shortage of Goods. If a claim for shortage is made against the Carrier, the Merchant agrees to indemnify the Carrier against all and any costs (including, but without limitation, legal costs), expenses, liabilities or losses of whatsoever nature suffered and/or incurred in connection with any such claim

9) DANGEROUS GOODS AND CONTRABAND
1. The Merchant undertakes not to tender for transportation any Goods which are of a dangerous, inflammable, radioactive or damaging nature without previously giving written notice of their nature to the Carrier and marking the Goods and their Container or other covering on the outside as required by any laws or regulations which may be applicable during the carriage.
2. Goods which are or at any time become dangerous, inflammable, radioactive or damaging may, at any time or place, be unloaded, destroyed, or rendered harmless without compensation, and if the Merchant has not given notice of their nature to the Carrier under Clause 9(1), the Carrier shall be under no liability to make any general average contribution in respect of such Goods.
3. The Merchant warrants the Goods are lawful Goods and undertakes not to deliver to the Carrier any Containers or Goods containing any contraband.
4. If the requirements of Clauses 9(1) and (3) are not complied with, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expense of whatsoever nature and howsoever arising out of such Goods or Containers being tendered for transportation or delivered to or handled or carried by the Carrier.

10) DECK CARGO AND LIVESTOCK
Goods (not being Goods stowed in Containers other than flats or pallets) which are stated herein to be carried on deck and livestock, whether or not carried on deck, are carried without responsibility on the part of the Carrier for loss or damage of whatsoever nature arising during carriage by sea whether caused by unseaworthiness or negligence or any other cause whatsoever, except that in respect of Goods carried to or from the United States of America Goods are carried on deck at the Merchant's risk as to perils inherent in such carriage but in all other respects subject to COGSA.

11) OPTIONAL STOWAGE
1. The Goods may be stowed by the Carrier in Containers or similar articles of transport used to consolidate Goods.
2. Goods stowed in Containers other than flats or pallets, whether by the Carrier or the Merchant, may be carried on or under deck without notice to the Merchant. Goods (other than livestock) whether carried on deck or under deck shall participate in general average and shall be deemed to be within the definition of Goods for purposes of the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules or COGSA, as the case may be.
3. If Goods not in containers are carried on deck, the Carrier shall so state such carriage on the face hereof. When Goods in containers are stowed on deck, the Carrier shall not be required to specially note, "on deck" carriage on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

12) DESCRIPTION OF GOODS
1. This Bill of Lading shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt by the Carrier in external apparent good order and condition except as otherwise noted of the total number of Containers or other packages or units identified on the face hereof as "Total Number of Containers/Packages received and acknowledged by the Carrier".
2. No representation is made by the Carrier as to the weight, contents, measure, quantity, quality, description, condition, marks, numbers or value of the Goods and the Carrier shall be under no responsibility whatsoever in respect of such description or particulars.
3. Any reference to temperature or the term "apparent good order and condition" when used in the Bill of Lading with reference to Goods which require refrigeration does not mean that the Goods, when received were verified by the Carrier as being at the booked temperature and no reliance should be placed by the Merchant as to the accuracy of such temperature shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.

13) NOTIFICATION AND DELIVERY
1. Except as provided by tariff, any mention herein of notify parties is solely for the Carrier's information, and failure to give notification shall not render the Carrier liable nor relieve the Merchant of any obligation to the Carrier.
2. The Merchant shall take delivery of the Goods within the time provided for in the Carrier's applicable tariff.
3. If the Merchant fails to take delivery of the Goods or part of them upon expiration of the tariff's prescribed free time, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered to the Merchant and the Carrier may with or without notice, but subject to its lien, unpack the Goods if packed in Container and/or store or warehouse the Goods or any part thereof ashore, afloat, in the open or under cover at the risk and expense of the Merchant. Thereupon, the liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods shall cease wholly and the costs of such storage (if paid or payable by the Carrier or any agent or sub-contractor of the Carrier) shall forthwith upon demand be paid by the Merchant to the Carrier.
4. In all circumstances, Carrier shall have no liability whatsoever for the misdelivery of Goods in its actual or constructive possession to persons holding forged or fraudulent documents which reasonably purport to be original Bills of Lading or other original documents entitling them to possession, so long as the Carrier acts innocently and does not intentionally deliver the Goods to persons known by him to have no right to possession under the Bill of Lading.

14. MULTIPLE BILLS OF LADING
1. Goods will only be delivered in a Container to an individual Merchant if all Bills of Lading in respect of the content of the Container have been surrendered authorising delivery to that Merchant at a single Place of Delivery. In the event that this requirement is not fulfilled the Carrier may in its absolute discretion unpack the Container and, in respect of Goods for which Bills of Lading have been surrendered, deliver them to the Merchant. Such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder but will only be effected against payment by the Merchant of the appropriate charges.
2. If multiple Bills of Lading are issued in respect of the contents of a Container, then the particular of the Goods described on the face hereof are said to comprise part of the contents of the Container indicated. If the Carrier is required to deliver the Goods to more than one Merchant and if all or part of the total Goods within the Container consists of bulk Goods or unappropriated Goods, or is or becomes mixed or unmarked or indistinguishable, the Merchants shall take delivery thereof (including any damaged portion) and bear any shortage in such proportions as the Carrier shall in its absolute discretion determine, and such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder. In such event the Carrier shall not be liable for any shortage, loss, or damage of the Goods or other discrepancies of the Goods, which are found upon unpacking of the Container.

15. FREIGHT AND CHARGES
1. Freight and charges (including but not limited to destination charges) shall be deemed fully earned on receipt of the Goods or any part thereof, by the Carrier whether or not such freight and charges are stated on the face of this Bill of Lading or intended to be Prepaid or Collect at destination, and shall be paid in full without offset, counterclaim or deduction and non-returnable in any event. Goods and/or Vessel or other conveyance lost or not lost.
2. The Merchant's attention is drawn to the stipulations concerning currency in which the freight and charges are to be paid, rates of exchange, devaluation and other contingencies relative to freight and charges in the applicable tariffs.
3. The freight has been calculated on the basis of particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Shipper. The Carrier may at any time open any Container or other packages and inspect, reweigh, remeasure or revalue the contents; and if the particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Shipper are incorrect it is agreed that a sum equal to either double the difference between the correct freight and the freight charged or to double the correct freight less the freight charged, whichever sum is the smaller, shall be payable as liquidated damages and not as additional freight or a surcharge to the Carrier, and the Merchant agrees to pay all expenses incurred by the Carrier in ascertaining said particulars.
4. All the persons coming within the definition of Merchant shall be and remain jointly and severally responsible for all freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading, applicable tariffs and/or contracts together with any court costs, expenses and reasonable attorney fees incurred in collecting any sums due to Carrier.

16) LIEN. The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods and any document relating thereto, which shall survive delivery, for all sums earned or due or payable to the Carrier under this and/or any other contract with the Merchant, or on account of the Goods or carriage, storage or handling of the Goods, including but not limited to, general average contributions, freight, delivery, destination, demurrage, detention, port and/or handling charges, to whomever due and/or for the cost of recovering the same and/or any fines or penalties levied against the Carrier by reason of any acts or omissions for which the Merchant is responsible. Carrier may at its sole discretion exercise its lien at any time and at any place, whether the contractual transportation is completed or not. For the purpose of such lien the Carrier shall have the right to sell the Goods by public auction or private treaty without notice to the Merchant at any time and at any place at the sole discretion of the Carrier. The Carrier shall be entitled to claim the difference in the event that the sale proceeds fail to cover the full amount due to the Carrier.

17) MATTERS AFFECTING PERFORMANCE. If at any time the performance of the contract evidenced by this Bill of Lading is or is likely to be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of whatsoever kind which cannot be avoided by the exercise of reasonable endeavours, the Carrier (whether or not the transport is commenced) may without notice to the Merchant treat the performance of this contract as terminated and place the Goods or any part of them at Merchant's disposal at any place or port which the Carrier may deem safe and convenient, whereupon the responsibility of the Carrier in respect of such Goods shall cease. The Carrier shall nevertheless be entitled to full freight and charges on Goods received for transportation, and the Merchant shall pay any additional costs of carriage to and delivery and storage at such place or port.

18) METHODS AND ROUTES OF TRANSPORTATION. The Carrier may at any time and without notice to the Merchant: (a) use any means of transport or storage whatsoever; (b) for any purpose whatsoever tranship the Goods or carry same on a substituted vessel or otherwise transfer the Goods from one conveyance to another even though transhipment or forwarding of the Goods may not have been contemplated or provided for herein; (c) proceed by any route whether or not such route is the nearest or most direct or customary route from the Port of Loading or Place of Receipt to the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery in the Carrier's absolute discretion whether for purposes of taking bunkers or any other purpose; (d) proceed to or stay at any place although in a contrary direction to or out of or beyond the customary or intended or advertised route once or more often in any order for any purpose whatsoever; (e) load and unload the Goods at any port or place (whether or not any such port is named on the face of this Bill of Lading as the Port of Loading or Port of Discharge) and store the Goods at any such place; (f) comply with any orders, directions, or recommendations as to loading, unloading, departure, routes, ports and places of call, stoppages, destination, arrival, discharge, delivery or otherwise given by any government or authority or any person or body acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or authority or having under the terms of the insurance on the conveyance employed by the Carrier the right to give directions; and (g) at the request of the Merchant or otherwise if required to make arrangements for any forwarding conveyance and services, not within the scope of the transport herein contracted for, and in making such arrangements, the Carrier shall be considered solely as agent of the Merchant and without any other responsibility whatsoever. Any action taken or not taken by the Carrier under this Clause 18, or delay resulting therefrom, shall be deemed to be included within the contractual transit and shall not be a deviation.

19) GENERAL
1. The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods shall arrive at the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery at any particular time or to meet any particular market or use. In no circumstances shall the Carrier be liable for loss or damage due to delay.
2. Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier shall in no circumstances be liable for direct or indirect or consequential loss or damage arising from any other cause. If the Carrier should nevertheless be held legally liable for any such direct or indirect or consequential loss or damage, such liability shall in no event exceed the freight paid for the transport covered by this Bill of Lading.
3. The terms of this Bill of Lading shall govern the responsibility of the Carrier in connection with or arising out of the supply of a Container to the Merchant whether before or after the Goods are received by the Carrier for transportation or delivery to the Merchant.
4. All Containers to be the joint and several responsibility of all the persons coming within the definition of the Merchant and must be redelivered clean and undamaged to a place or point of interchange nominated by the Carrier within the time prescribed in the Carrier's applicable tariffs and contracts, failing which each of such persons are jointly and severally liable for such detention, loss or expense incurred as a result thereof including but not limited to demurrage, container detention charges, the costs of replacement, transportation and repair.

20) INSPECTION OF GOODS
1. The Carrier shall be entitled, but under no obligation, to open any Container at any time and to inspect the contents. If it thereupon appears that the contents or any part thereof cannot safely or properly be carried or carried further, either at all, or without incurring any additional expense or taking any measures in relation to the Container or its contents or any part thereof, the Carrier may at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant abandon the transportation thereof and/or take any measures and/or incur any reasonable additional expense to carry or to continue the carriage or to store the same ashore or afloat under cover or in the open, at any place, which storage shall be deemed to constitute due delivery under this Bill of Lading. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any reasonable additional expense so incurred.
2. The Carrier is not responsible for any damage or loss to the Cargo resulting from inspection by customs or other authorities and Merchant shall be responsible for any costs, fines, or penalties incurred as a result of such inspection or otherwise.

21) VARIATION OF CONTRACT. Merchant agrees that this Bill of Lading constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. There are no understandings to the subject matter of this agreement other than as herein set forth, and any such actual or purported prior to or contemporaneous understandings or communications are hereby abrogated. No servant or agent of the Carrier shall have power to waive or vary any of the terms hereof unless such waiver or variation is in writing and is specifically authorized in writing by the Carrier. Subject to Clause 3, all agreements or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

22) GENERAL AVERAGE. General Average shall be adjusted at any port or place at the option of the Carrier in accordance with the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and any subsequent modification or re-enactment thereto and shall be applied to Containers and/or Goods loaded on deck or under deck. In the event of accident, danger, damage or disaster before or after the commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever statute, contract or otherwise, the Merchant shall contribute with the Carrier in General Average to the payment of any sacrifice, losses or expense of a General Average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay any salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the Goods. If a salving vessel is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the salving vessel(s) belonged to strangers. The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods for all General Average contribution (including but not limited to salvage) for which the Merchant is responsible and shall be entitled to a cash deposit or other security therefore in a form acceptable to the Carrier. If the Carrier delivers the Goods without obtaining security for general average contribution or such contributions or expense and to provide such cash deposit or other security for the estimated amount of such contributions or expense as the Carrier shall reasonably require.

23) AD VALOREM DECLARATION OF VALUE. The Merchant agrees that higher compensation than that provided for in this Bill of Lading may not be claimed unless the nature and value of the Goods have been declared by the Merchant prior to the commencement of the carriage and inserted in this Bill of Lading in the space captioned "Declared Cargo Value" and extra freight paid on such declared value if required. In such case, the declared value if embodied in the Bill of Lading shall be the basis for calculating the Carrier's liability, (if any), provided that such declared value shall be prima facie evidence, but shall not be conclusive on the Carrier and further provided that such declared value does not exceed the true value of the Goods at destination. Any partial damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

24) LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. The Carrier, the Vessel, her owner(s), operator(s), demise, time, slot and space charterers shall be entitled to the same rights of limitation as are or would be available to the owner of the Vessel under the Brussels Limitation Convention of 1957, the London Limitation Convention of 1976 or any other applicable convention, statute or law, governing the rights of shipowners to limit their liability in accordance with the tonnage or value of the Vessel in the jurisdiction in which any claim is brought under this Bill of Lading.

25) SUB-CONTRACTING AND INDEMNITY
(a) The Carrier shall be entitled to sub-contract the whole or any part of the duties undertaken by the Carrier in this Bill of Lading in relation to the Goods on any terms whatsoever consistent with any applicable law.

(b) Merchant undertakes that no claim or allegation shall be made against any person performing or undertaking such duties (including all servants, agents and sub-contractors of the Carrier) other than the Carrier, which imposes or attempts to impose upon any such person, or any vessel owned by any such person, any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods or the carriage of the Goods from port of loading to port of discharge whether or not arising out of negligence on the part of such person and, if any such claim or allegation should nevertheless be made, the Merchant will indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.

(c) Without prejudice to the Merchant's indemnity obligations herein, the Vessel and every subcontractor of the Carrier of any nature whatsoever (including but not limited to the Participating Carrier, the Vessel, the owner, charterer, operator, Master, officer and crew of the Vessel, and employees, agents, representatives, and all stevedores, terminal operators, watchmen, carpenters, lasher, ship cleaners, surveyors and other independent contractors) shall have the benefit of every right, defence, limitation and liberty of whatsoever nature herein contained or otherwise available to the Carrier as if such provisions were expressly for its benefit, and in entering into this contract, the Carrier, does so not only on its own behalf but also as agent and trustee for such persons or Vessel. The term "subcontractor" as used herein shall include both direct and indirect subcontractors hired by the Carrier to perform the Carrier's own obligations under the Bill of Lading, or the obligations of any person for whom the Carrier acts as agent. An indirect subcontractor is a person with whom the Carrier is not in contractual privity. For the purpose of this Clause 25, the Vessel and all subcontractors shall be deemed to be parties to the contract evidenced by this Bill of Lading.

(d) The provisions of Clause 25(b) shall extend to claims or allegations of whatsoever nature against other persons chartering space on the carrying Vessel.

(e) The Merchant further undertakes that no claim or allegation in respect of the Goods shall be made against the Carrier by any person other than in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading which imposes or attempts to impose upon the Carrier any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods whether or not arising out of negligence on the part of the Carrier and, if any such claim or allegation should nevertheless be made, to indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.

26) NOTICE OF LOSS: TIME BAR
1. Unless notice of loss or damage to the Goods and the general nature of it be given in writing to the Carrier at the Place of Delivery before or at the time of the removal of the Goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under this Bill of Lading, or if the loss or damage be not apparent, within seven consecutive days thereafter, such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the Carrier of the Goods described in this Bill of Lading.
2. Subject to Clause 26(3), the Carrier shall be discharged of all liability under this Bill of Lading unless suit is brought and written notice thereof given to the Carrier within nine months after delivery of the Goods. In the case of total loss of the Goods the period shall begin to run two months after the Goods have been received for transportation.
3. Notwithstanding Clause 26(2), where COGSA, the Hague Rules or Hague-Visby apply by incorporation or by force of law, the Carrier shall be discharged from all liability whatsoever in respect of the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year of their delivery or of the date when they should have been delivered.

27) BOTH-TO-BLAME COLLISION. If the Vessel comes into collision with another vessel as a result of the negligence of the other vessel and any act, neglect or default of the master, mariner, pilot or of the servants of the Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant undertakes to pay the Carrier or where the Carrier is not the owner and in possession of the carrying Vessel, to pay to the Carrier as trustee for the owner and/or demise charterer of the carrying Vessel, a sum sufficient to indemnify the Carrier and/or the owners and/or demise charterer of the carrying Vessel against all loss or liability to the other or non-carrying vessel or her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of, or damage to, or any claim whatsoever, of the Merchant, paid or payable by the other or non-carrying vessel or her owners to the Merchant and set-off, recouped or recovered by the other or non-carrying vessel or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying Vessel or her owner or demise charterer or carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators or those in charge of any vessel or vessels or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding vessels or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding or other accident.

28) NOTICE TO ENDORSEE AND/OR HOLDER AND/OR TRANSFEREE. By taking up this Bill of Lading, whether by endorsement and/or becoming a holder and/or by transfer hereof and/or by presenting this Bill of Lading to obtain delivery of the Goods herein and/or otherwise, the endorsee/holder/transferee and the Carrier agree that the holder/endorsee/transferee thereupon become a party to a contract of carriage with the carrier on the basis herein.

29) EXCEPTIONS CLAUSE Carrier shall not be liable for any loss, damage, delay or failure in performance hereunder occurring at any time including before loading on or after discharge from the Vessel or during any voyage, arising or resulting from the happening and/or threat and/or after effects of one or more of the following acts of God, act of war, force majeure, quarantine restrictions, embargo, acts of public enemies, thieves, pirates, assailing thieves, hijacking, arrest or restraint of princes, rulers or people, seizure under legal process, act or omission of Shipper, its agent or representative, strikes or lock-outs or stoppage or restraint of labor from whatever cause, partial or general, riots or civil commotions, fire or latent defect.

30) APPLICABLE LAW. This Bill of Lading, the contract contained in and/or evidenced hereby, and the rights and obligations of all parties concerned in connection with the carriage of the Goods hereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and any and all claims, suits, proceedings or disputes howsoever arising in connection with such Bill of Lading, contract, rights and obligations shall be determined in accordance with English law.
If the carriage of Goods hereunder is foreign trade to, from or through a port in the United States or if COGSA shall for any reason whatsoever apply compulsorily to the carriage of the Goods hereunder then this Bill of Lading, the contract contained in and/or evidenced hereby, and the rights and obligations of all parties concerned in connection with the carriage of the Goods hereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with United States law and all claims, suits, proceedings or disputes howsoever arising in connection with such Bill of Lading, contract, rights and obligations shall be determined in accordance with United States law.

31) PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION. The parties agree to fully comply with General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 ("GDPR") and any applicable data protection laws and be bound by the terms available at https://www.oocl.com/eng/resourcecenter/industrylinks/Documents/Framework(A)-Shipper.pdf("Framework") under which the Merchant is the "data controller" and the Carrier is the "data processor" in respect of any personal data provided by the Merchant to the Carrier for the contract of carriage. The Merchant (i) authorises the Carrier to process any personal data provided to the Carrier or which is made available to the Carrier by the Merchant for the purposes of providing service under this contract of carriage and for other purposes including transferring personal data to competent bodies, courts or regulatory authorities, as may be requested; (ii) acknowledges and agrees that the Carrier may transfer the personal data to its affiliates, employees, agents, delegates, sub-processors or competent authorities and to a country outside of the European Economic Area and the United Kingdom in accordance with such latest applicable Standard Contractual Clauses as set out in the Framework and/or other available data transfer solutions.

THIS BILL OF LADING IS A 2 PAGE DOCUMENT AND CARRIAGE OF GOODS IS SUBJECT TO OOCL'S STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE, WHICH APPEAR AT THE END HEREOF AS PAGE 2

TERMS AND CONDITIONS (Also Available in Pamphlet Form from the Carrier or its Agents)

The printed terms and conditions appearing on the face and reverse side of this Bill of Lading are available at www.oocl.com, in Carrier's published US tariffs, and in pamphlet form.

RECEIVED for shipment in external apparent good order and condition, unless otherwise indicated, the number of containers, packages or other customary freight units identified as "Total Number of Container/Packages received and acknowledged by the Carrier" on the face hereof subject to all the terms and conditions hereof from Place of Receipt or the Port of Loading, whichever is applicable, to Place of Delivery or Port of Discharge, whichever is applicable. Weights, measurements, marks, numbers, quantity, contents and value if mentioned herein are to be considered unknown by the Carrier.

Notwithstanding any customs or privileges to the contrary, the Merchant, in accepting this Bill of Lading, expressly agrees to be bound by all stipulations, exceptions, and conditions attached hereto or stated herein, whether written, printed, stamped or otherwise incorporated herein, as fully as if they were all signed by such Merchant.

1) IDENTITY AND DEFINITION OF CARRIER. "Orient Overseas Container Line" and "OOCL" are trade names for transportation provided separately by: Orient Overseas Container Line Limited ("OOCLL") and OOCL(Europe) Limited ("OEUL") respectively as follows:-

(a) OEUL shall be deemed the Carrier for transportation of Goods where those Goods are either loaded or discharged in any of Russia, Poland and Turkey.

(b) OOCLL shall be deemed to be the Carrier for Goods not carried in 1 (a) above
For the avoidance of doubt, for the purpose of this Clause, transhipment of Goods in either Russia, Poland or Turkey is not to be regarded as 'loading' or 'discharging' Goods.

If it is ultimately adjudged that a second person or entity, including without limitation, the Vessel, her owner, operator, demise, time, slot and space charterer and/or another member of an alliance and/or consortium and/or joint arrangement of which the Carrier may be a member, is also a carrier/bailee then that person or entity shall have the benefit of all the rights and defenses provided for in this Bill of Lading or by law.

Notice is hereby given that Carrier is a member of alliances and/or consortia and/or joint arrangements. The members of such groups, including Carrier, reserve the right to carry cargo for each other, and otherwise cooperate with each other in the carriage of cargo, without notice to the Merchant. In the case of such carriage, however, the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading shall apply, and the Merchant shall be bound by them and Carrier shall be deemed in all instances to be the Carrier of the Goods, subject to the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading.

2) DEFINITIONS Without limitation of any definition in any applicable law herein mentioned: "VESSEL" shall include the vessel(s) named in this Bill of Lading, any substituted vessel(s), any vessel to which transhipment may be made in the performance of this contract and, any vessel, craft, lighter or other means of transportation whatsoever, owned, chartered, operated or controlled and used by the Carrier or Participating Carrier in the performance of this contract; "MERCHANT" includes the Shipper, consignor, endorsee, transferee, Holder of this document, consignee, receiver of the Goods, any person or entity owning or entitled to the possession of the Goods or of this Bill of Lading and anyone acting on behalf of any such persons; "GOODS" means the cargo received from the Shipper and includes any Container not supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier; "HOLDER" means any person for the time being in possession of this Bill of Lading to whom the property interest in the Goods has passed on or by reason of the consignment of the Goods or the endorsement of this Bill of Lading or otherwise; "PARTICIPATING CARRIER" shall include any other sea, water, land or air carrier performing any part of the carriage provided herein; "CONTAINER" includes any container, trailer, transportable tank, flat, pallet, cradle, sled or any similar article of transport used to consolidate or transport Goods; "LADEN ON BOARD", when noted on this Bill of Lading shall mean that the Goods have been placed on board the Vessel or any other mode of transport used by or on behalf of the Carrier or Participating Carrier enroute to the Port of Loading shown on the face of this Bill of Lading; "PORT OF LOADING" shall mean the place where the Goods are received for marine transport by the Carrier, or Participating Carrier or their respective agents, "PORT OF DISCHARGE" shall mean the place where the Goods are to be discharged from the Vessel; "PLACE OF RECEIPT" shall be the place where the Goods are received from the Merchant by the Carrier, Participating Carrier or their respective agents; "PLACE OF DELIVERY" shall be the place where the Goods are delivered by the Carrier or the Participating Carrier to the Merchant; "COGSA" refers to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States approved April 16, 1936 and any subsequent modifications or re-enactment thereto. The "HAGUE RULES" refers to the International Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules Relating to Bills of Lading done at Brussels August 25, 1924; "HAGUE-VISBY" refers to the Hague Rules as Amended by the Protocol done at Brussels on February 23, 1968. References to the internal law of a State shall be deemed to exclude all principles of private international law applied by such State; "STATE" shall mean any nation, country, commonwealth, territory or possession, internationally recognized to be a body politic and to exercise sovereign power; "COMBINED TRANSPORT" arises if the Place of Receipt and/or Place of Delivery are indicated on the face of this Bill of Lading in the relevant boxes; and "PORT TO PORT TRANSPORT" arises if only the Port of Loading and/or Port of Discharge are indicated on the face of this Bill of Lading in the relevant boxes.

3) CARRIER'S TARIFF The terms of the applicable tariff(s) of the Carrier are incorporated herein. Copies of the relevant provisions of the applicable tariff(s) are obtainable from the Carrier upon request. In the case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable tariff(s), this Bill of Lading shall prevail except in the United States of America where the provisions of the tariff shall prevail.

4) CARRIER'S RESPONSIBILITY AND CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Port to Port Transport
If carriage is Port to Port Transport, the responsibility (if any) of the Carrier for loss or damage to the Goods occurring from the time when the Goods are loaded on board the Vessel at the Port of Loading until the time when the Goods are discharged from the Vessel at the Port of Discharge shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4(C).

The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for loss or damage to the Goods or non-delivery or misdelivery howsoever caused if such loss or damage, non-delivery or misdelivery arises prior to loading onto or subsequent to discharge from the Vessel. Notwithstanding the above, in case and to the extent that any applicable law provides for any additional period of responsibility the Carrier shall have the benefit of every right, defence, limitation and liberty of the Hague Rules during such additional compulsory period of responsibility notwithstanding that the loss or damage did not occur at sea.

(B) Combined Transport
If carriage is Combined Transport then the Carrier undertakes to perform and/or in its own name to procure performance of the carriage from the Place of Receipt or the Port of Loading whichever is applicable to the Place of Delivery or the Port of Discharge whichever is applicable and, save as is otherwise provided for in this Bill of Lading, the Carrier's liability for loss or damage to the Goods shall be as follows:-

1. If the stage of carriage where loss or damage occurred is not known
(a) Exclusions
If the stage of the carriage where the loss or damage to the Goods is not known then the Carrier shall be liable for loss and damage to the Goods save that the Carrier shall be relieved from liability for any loss or damage to the extent that such loss or damage was caused by:

(i) An act or omission of the Merchant;
(ii) Insufficiency or defective condition of packing or marking;
(iii) Compliance with the instructions of persons entitled to give them;
(iv) Handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the Goods by the Merchant;
(v) Inherent vice of the Goods;
(vi) Strike, lockout, stoppage or restraint of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general;
(vii) A nuclear incident;
(viii) Any cause or event which the Carrier could no avoid and the consequence of which he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.

(b) Burden of Proof The burden of proving that any loss or damage was caused by one or more of the events mentioned in Clauses 4(B)(1)(a)(i) to (viii) shall rest upon the Carrier save that when the Carrier is able to demonstrate that, in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the events specified in Clauses 4(B)(1)(a)(ii) to (vii) then it shall be presumed that it was so caused and in such circumstances the burden of proof shall be on the Merchant to prove that the loss or damage was not caused wholly or partly by one or more of these events.

(c) Limitation If the Carrier is liable for loss or damage to the Goods then the amount of compensation shall be calculated by reference to the invoice value of the Goods plus freight and insurance (if paid).

The Carrier's maximum liability hereunder shall in no circumstances exceed US$2 per kilo of gross weight of the Goods lost or damaged unless the value of the Goods has been declared by the Merchant with the consent of the Carrier and excess freight has been paid whereupon the declared value (if higher) as shown on the face of the Bill of Lading shall be substituted for the above limit and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

2. If the stage of carriage during which loss or damage occurred is known

Notwithstanding anything provided for in Clause 4(B)(1) if the stage of the carriage where loss or damage to the Goods is known then subject to the operation of Clause 4(C) which shall apply where loss or damage occurs to the Goods from the time when the Goods are loaded on board the Vessel at the Port of Loading until the time when the Goods are discharged from the Vessel at the Port of Discharge the Carriers liability in respect of any such loss or damage occurring shall be determined as follows:-

(a) By the provisions contained in any international convention or national law, which provisions cannot be departed from by private contract to the detriment of the Merchant, and would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of the carriage where the loss or damage occurred and received as evidence thereof any particular document which must be issued in order to make such international Convention or national law applicable; or

(b) If no international convention or national law is applicable then the liability of the Carrier shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Clause 4(B)(1).

(c) Subject to Clause 4(B)(2)(a) if loss or damage to the Goods is known to have occurred during a period when the Goods were in the custody of a Participating Carrier then the Carrier shall have the benefit of any and all rights, defences, exemptions, limitations and immunities contained in or incorporated by or compulsorily applicable to the Participating Carrier's tariff(s) or contract(s) with the Carrier (in addition to all of the rights, defences, exemptions, limitations and immunities contained in this Bill of Lading and the Carrier's tariff) and for this purpose such benefit, rights, defences, exemptions, limitations and immunities shall be deemed to be incorporated herein, and copies are obtainable from the Carrier upon request.

(C) Clause Paramount All carriage under this Bill of Lading (whether electronically produced or not) shall have effect subject to any legislation enacted in any country making the Hague or Hague-Visby Rules compulsorily applicable and in the absence of any such legislation in accordance with the Hague Rules or COGSA in the case of carriage to or from the United States of America.

In circumstances where the Hague Rules are not compulsorily applicable but are contractually applicable then subject to Clause 23 (ad valorem declaration) the Carrier's responsibility shall in no event exceed GBP100 per package or customary freight unit.

If any terms of this Bill of Lading are held repugnant to the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, COGSA or any other compulsorily applicable legislation then such provision shall be null and void to the extent of such invalidity without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof.

References in the Hague, Hague-Visby Rules, or COGSA to carriage by sea shall be deemed to include references to inland waterways or waterborne carriage.

(D) USA Clause Paramount (if applicable)

1. If carriage includes carriage to, from or through a port in the United States of America this Bill of Lading shall be subject to COGSA, the terms of which are incorporated herein and shall be paramount throughout carriage by sea and the entire time that the Goods are in the actual custody of the Carrier or its sub-contractor at the sea-terminal in the United States of America before loading onto the Vessel or after discharge therefrom as the case may be.

2. The Carrier shall not be liable in any capacity whatsoever for loss or delay to the Goods or non-delivery or misdelivery howsoever caused while the Goods are in the United States of America away from the sea-terminal and are not in the actual custody of the Carrier. At these times the Carrier acts as agent only for and on behalf of the Merchant and agrees to procure transportation of the Goods in accordance with the usual terms, conditions and tariff(s) of Participating Carriers. If for any reason the Carrier is denied the right to act as agent only at these times, its liability for loss and damage to the Goods or non-delivery or misdelivery thereof shall be determined in accordance with Clause 4(B) hereof.

3. If COGSA applies then the liability of the Carrier shall not exceed US$500 per package or customary freight unit unless the value of the Goods has been declared on the face hereof with the consent of the Carrier and extra freight has been paid in which case Clause 23 shall apply and the declared value (if higher) shall be substituted for the limit and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro-rata on the basis of such declared value.

4. Except as provided herein in Clauses 4(D)(1)and (2), and where COGSA does not apply by operation of law, Carrier's liability will be governed by COGSA unless its liability under some other body of law applicable to the particular stage of the transport where the loss occurred is more favourable to the Carrier (with regards to defenses and limitations), in which case that other body of law will apply.

5) WARRANTIES. The Merchant represents, warrants and agrees that:
(a) The Goods and any Container loaded by the Merchant are packed and secured in such a manner as to be handled in the ordinary course of the transportation without damage to the Goods, Vessel, Containers or other property or persons;
(b) Any Goods placed by the Merchant in Containers are compatible and suitable for transportation in Containers;
(c) He is or has the authority of the person owning or entitled to the possession of the Goods and this Bill of Lading; and
(d) The Merchant further warrants that the Container if not supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier meets all ISO and/or other applicable national or international safety standards and is fit in all respects for carriage by the Carrier.

6) MERCHANT'S RESPONSIBILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION
1. All of the persons coming within the definition of Merchant shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the due fulfilment of all obligations undertaken by the Merchant in this Bill of Lading and remain so liable throughout the transportation notwithstanding their having transferred this Bill of Lading and/or title to the Goods to another party.
2. The Merchant further warrants to the Carrier and hold harmless the Carrier against all and any claims, loss, damage, fines or expense arising or resulting from any breach of any warranty or other obligation of the Merchant under the terms of this Bill of Lading or applicable law (including but not limited to those Carrier may incur or liability to any person which the Carrier may suffer due to personal injury or loss of or damage to any property). Such indemnity shall include costs, including attorney fees, to defend any action brought by third parties or to prosecute any claim against the Merchant arising from the Merchant's obligation(s) under this Bill of Lading.

7) REGULATIONS RELATING TO GOODS
1. The Merchant shall comply with all rules, laws, regulations or requirements of customs, port and other authorities, and shall bear and pay all duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses or losses incurred or suffered by reason thereof or by reason of any illegal, incorrect or insufficient description, marking, numbering or addressing of the Goods, and indemnify the Carrier in respect thereof
2. If the Carrier is obliged to handover the Goods or any part thereof into the custody of any customs, port or other authority, such handover shall constitute due delivery of the Goods or any part thereof to the Merchant under this Bill of Lading.

8) SHIPPER-PACKED CONTAINERS
1. If a Container has not been filled, packed, stuffed or loaded by the Carrier, the Carrier shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the contents and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, liability or expense incurred by the Carrier, if such loss, damage, liability or expense has been caused by:
(a) the manner in which the Container has been filled, packed, stuffed or loaded; or
(b) the unsuitability of the contents for carriage in Containers; or
(c) the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container and/or without any want of due diligence on the part of the Carrier to make the Container reasonably fit for the purpose for which it is required; or
(d) the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container or the incorrect setting of any temperature controls thereof which would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time when the Container was filled, packed, stuffed or loaded; or
(e) packing of temperature controlled Goods at other than the booked temperature.
2. The Shipper is responsible for the packing and sealing of all Shipper-packed Containers. The Shipper shall inspect Containers before stuffing them and the use of the Containers shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt of the Container by Shipper and that the Container is in good order and condition. If a Shipper-packed Container is delivered by the Carrier with its seal intact, the Carrier shall not be liable for any shortage of Goods. If a claim for shortage is made against the Carrier, the Merchant agrees to indemnify the Carrier against all and any costs (including, but without limitation, legal costs), expenses, liabilities or losses of whatsoever nature suffered and/or incurred in connection with any such claim

9) DANGEROUS GOODS AND CONTRABAND
1. The Merchant undertakes not to tender for transportation any Goods which are of a dangerous, inflammable, radioactive or damaging nature without previously giving written notice of their nature to the Carrier and marking the Goods and their Container or other covering on the outside as required by any laws or regulations which may be applicable during the carriage.
2. Goods which are or at any time become dangerous, inflammable, radioactive or damaging may, at any time or place, be unloaded, destroyed, or rendered harmless without compensation, and if the Merchant has not given notice of their nature to the Carrier under Clause 9(1), the Carrier shall be under no liability to make any general average contribution in respect of such Goods.
3. The Merchant warrants the Goods are lawful Goods and undertakes not to deliver to the Carrier any Containers or Goods containing any contraband.
4. If the requirements of Clauses 9(1) and (3) are not complied with, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expense of whatsoever nature and howsoever arising out of such Goods or Containers being tendered for transportation or delivered to or handled or carried by the Carrier.

10) DECK CARGO AND LIVESTOCK
Goods (not being Goods stowed in Containers other than flats or pallets, which are stated herein to be carried on deck and livestock, whether or not carried on deck, are carried without responsibility on the part of the Carrier for loss or damage of whatsoever nature arising during carriage by sea whether caused by unseaworthiness or negligence or any other cause whatsoever, except that in respect of Goods carried to or from the United States of America Goods are carried on deck at the Merchant's risk as to perils inherent in such carriage but in all other respects subject to COGSA.

11) OPTIONAL STOWAGE
1. The Goods may be stowed by the Carrier in Containers or similar articles of transport used to consolidate Goods.
2. Goods stowed in Containers other than flats or pallets, whether by the Carrier or the Merchant, may be carried on or under deck without notice to the Merchant. Goods (other than livestock) whether carried on deck or under deck shall participate in general average and shall be deemed to be within the definition of Goods for purposes of the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules or COGSA, as the case may be.
3. If Goods not in containers are carried on deck, the Carrier shall so state such carriage on the face hereof. When Goods in containers are stowed on deck, the Carrier shall not be required to specially note, "on deck" carriage on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

12) DESCRIPTION OF GOODS
1. This Bill of Lading shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt by the Carrier in external apparent good order and condition except as otherwise noted of the total number of Containers or other packages or units identified on the face hereof as "Total Number of Containers/Packages received and acknowledged by the Carrier".
2. No representation is made by the Carrier as to the weight, contents, measure, quantity, quality, description, condition, marks, numbers or value of the Goods and the Carrier shall be under no responsibility whatsoever in respect of such description or particulars.
3. Any reference to temperature or the term "apparent good order and condition" when used in the Bill of Lading with reference to Goods which require refrigeration does not mean that the Goods, when received were verified by the Carrier as being at the booked temperature and no reliance should be placed by the Merchant as to the accuracy of such temperature shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.

13) NOTIFICATION AND DELIVERY
1. Except as provided by tariff, any mention herein of notify parties is solely for the Carrier's information, and failure to give notification shall not render the Carrier liable nor relieve the Merchant of any obligation to the Carrier.
2. The Merchant shall take delivery of the Goods within the time provided for in the Carrier's applicable tariff.
3. If the Merchant fails to take delivery of the Goods or part of them upon expiration of the tariff's prescribed free time, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered to the Merchant and the Carrier may with or without notice, but subject to its lien, unpack the Goods if packed in Container and/or store or warehouse the Goods or any part thereof ashore, afloat, in the open or under cover at the risk and expense of the Merchant. Thereupon, the liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods shall cease wholly and the costs of such storage (if paid or payable by the Carrier or any agent or sub-contractor of the Carrier) shall forthwith upon demand be paid by the Merchant to the Carrier.
4. In all circumstances, Carrier shall have no liability whatsoever for the misdelivery of Goods in its actual or constructive possession to persons holding forged or fraudulent documents which reasonably purport to be original Bills of Lading or other original documents entitling them to possession, so long as the Carrier acts innocently and does not intentionally deliver the Goods to persons known by him to have no right to possession under the Bill of Lading.

14. MULTIPLE BILLS OF LADING
1. Goods will only be delivered in a Container to an individual Merchant if all Bills of Lading in respect of the content of the Container have been surrendered authorising delivery to that Merchant at a single Place of Delivery. In the event that this requirement is not fulfilled the Carrier may in its absolute discretion unpack the Container and, in respect of Goods for which Bills of Lading have been surrendered, deliver them to the Merchant. Such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder but will only be effected against payment by the Merchant of the appropriate charges.
2. If multiple Bills of Lading are issued in respect of the contents of a Container, then the particular of the Goods described on the face hereof are said to comprise part of the contents of the Container indicated. If the Carrier is required to deliver the Goods to more than one Merchant and if all or part of the total Goods within the Container consists of bulk Goods or unappropriated Goods, or is or becomes mixed or unmarked or indistinguishable, the Merchants shall take delivery thereof (including any damaged portion) and bear any shortage in such proportions as the Carrier shall in its absolute discretion determine, and such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder. In such event the Carrier shall not be liable for any shortage, loss, or damage of the Goods or other discrepancies of the Goods, which are found upon unpacking of the Container.

15. FREIGHT AND CHARGES
1. Freight and charges (including but not limited to destination charges) shall be deemed fully earned on receipt of the Goods or any part thereof, by the Carrier whether or not such freight and charges are stated on the face of this Bill of Lading or intended to be Prepaid or Collect at destination, and shall be paid in full without offset, counterclaim or deduction and non-returnable in any event. Goods and/or Vessel or other conveyance lost or not lost.
2. The Merchant's attention is drawn to the stipulations concerning currency in which the freight and charges are to be paid, rates of exchange, devaluation and other contingencies relative to freight and charges in the applicable tariffs.
3. The freight has been calculated on the basis of particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Shipper. The Carrier may at any time open any Container or other packages and inspect, reweigh, remeasure or revalue the contents; and if the particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Shipper are incorrect it is agreed that a sum equal to either double the difference between the correct freight and the freight charged or to double the correct freight less the freight charged, whichever sum is the smaller, shall be payable as liquidated damages and not as additional freight or a surcharge to the Carrier, and the Merchant agrees to pay all expenses incurred by the Carrier in ascertaining said particulars.
4. All the persons coming within the definition of Merchant shall be and remain jointly and severally responsible for all freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading, applicable tariffs and/or contracts together with any court costs, expenses and reasonable attorney fees incurred in collecting any sums due to Carrier.

16) LIEN. The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods and any document relating thereto, which shall survive delivery, for all sums earned or due or payable to the Carrier under this and/or any other contract with the Merchant, or on account of the Goods or carriage, storage or handling of the Goods, including but not limited to, general average contributions, freight, delivery, destination, demurrage, detention, port and/or handling charges, to whomever due and/or for the cost of recovering the same and/or any fines or penalties levied against the Carrier by reason of any acts or omissions for which the Merchant is responsible. Carrier may at its sole discretion exercise its lien at any time and at any place, whether the contractual transportation is completed or not. For the purpose of such lien the Carrier shall have the right to sell the Goods by public auction or private treaty without notice to the Merchant at any time and at any place at the sole discretion of the Carrier. The Carrier shall be entitled to claim the difference in the event that the sale proceeds fail to cover the full amount due to the Carrier.

17) MATTERS AFFECTING PERFORMANCE. If at any time the performance of the contract evidenced by this Bill of Lading is or is likely to be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of whatsoever kind which cannot be avoided by the exercise of reasonable endeavours, the Carrier (whether or not the transport is commenced) may without notice to the Merchant treat the performance of this contract as terminated and place the Goods or any part of them at Merchant's disposal at any place or port which the Carrier may deem safe and convenient, whereupon the responsibility of the Carrier in respect of such Goods shall cease. The Carrier shall nevertheless be entitled to full freight and charges on Goods received for transportation, and the Merchant shall pay any additional costs of carriage to and delivery and storage at such place or port.

18) METHODS AND ROUTES OF TRANSPORTATION. The Carrier may at any time and without notice to the Merchant: (a) use any means of transport or storage whatsoever; (b) for any purpose whatsoever tranship the Goods or carry same on a substituted vessel or otherwise transfer the Goods from one conveyance to another even though transhipment or forwarding of the Goods may not have been contemplated or provided for herein; (c) proceed by any route whether or not such route is the nearest or most direct or customary route from the Port of Loading or Place of Receipt to the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery in the Carrier's absolute discretion whether for purposes of taking bunkers or any other purpose; (d) proceed to or stay at any place although in a contrary direction to or out of or beyond the customary or intended or advertised route once or more often in any order for any purpose whatsoever; (e) load and unload the Goods at any port or place (whether or not any such port is named on the face of this Bill of Lading as the Port of Loading or Port of Discharge) and store the Goods at any such place; (f) comply with any orders, directions, or recommendations as to loading, unloading, departure, routes, ports and places of call, stoppages, destination, arrival, discharge, delivery or otherwise given by any government or authority or any person or body acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or authority or having under the terms of the insurance on the conveyance employed by the Carrier the right to give directions; and (g) at the request of the Merchant or otherwise if required to make arrangements for any forwarding conveyance and services, not within the scope of the transport herein contracted for, and in making such arrangements, the Carrier shall be considered solely as agent of the Merchant and without any other responsibility whatsoever. Any action taken or not taken by the Carrier under this Clause 18, or delay resulting therefrom, shall be deemed to be included within the contractual transit and shall not be a deviation.

1. The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods shall arrive at the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery at any particular time or to meet any particular market or use. In no circumstances shall the Carrier be liable for loss or damage due to delay.
2. Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier shall in no circumstances be liable for direct or indirect or consequential loss or damage arising from any other cause. If the Carrier should nevertheless be held legally liable for any such direct or indirect or consequential loss or damage, such liability shall in no event exceed the freight paid for the transport covered by this Bill of Lading.
3. The terms of this Bill of Lading shall govern the responsibility of the Carrier in connection with or arising out of the supply of a Container to the Merchant whether before or after the Goods are received by the Carrier for transportation or delivery to the Merchant.
4. All Containers to be the joint and several responsibility of all the persons coming within the definition of the Merchant and must be redelivered clean and undamaged to a place or point of interchange nominated by the Carrier within the time prescribed in the Carrier's applicable tariffs and contracts, failing which each of such persons are jointly and severally liable for such detention, loss or expense incurred as a result thereof including but not limited to demurrage, container detention charges, the costs of replacement, transportation and repair.

20) INSPECTION OF GOODS
1. The Carrier shall be entitled, but under no obligation, to open any Container at any time and to inspect the contents. If it thereupon appears that the contents or any part thereof cannot safely or properly be carried or carried further, either at all, or without incurring any additional expense or taking any measures in relation to the Container or its contents or any part thereof, the Carrier may at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant abandon the transportation thereof and/or take any measures and/or incur any reasonable additional expense to carry or to continue the carriage or to store the same ashore or afloat under cover or in the open, at any place, which storage shall be deemed to constitute due delivery under this Bill of Lading. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any reasonable additional expense so incurred.
2. The Carrier is not responsible for any damage or loss to the Cargo resulting from inspection by customs or other authorities and Merchant shall be responsible for any costs, fines, or penalties incurred as a result of such inspection or otherwise.

21) VARIATION OF CONTRACT. Merchant agrees that this Bill of Lading constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. There are no understandings to the subject matter of this agreement other than as herein set forth, and any such actual or purported prior to or contemporaneous understandings or communications are hereby abrogated. No servant or agent of the Carrier shall have power to waive or vary any of the terms hereof unless such waiver or variation is in writing and is specifically authorized in writing by the Carrier. Subject to Clause 3, all agreements or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

22) GENERAL AVERAGE. General Average shall be adjusted at any port or place at the option of the Carrier in accordance with the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and any subsequent modification or re-enactment thereto and shall be applied to Containers and/or Goods loaded on deck or under deck. In the event of accident, danger, damage or disaster before or after the commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever statute, contract or otherwise, the Merchant shall contribute with the Carrier in General Average to the payment of any sacrifice, losses or expense of a General Average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay any salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the Goods. If a salving vessel is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the salving vessel(s) belonged to strangers. The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods for all General Average contribution (including but not limited to salvage) for which the Merchant is responsible and shall be entitled to a cash deposit or other security therefore in a form acceptable to the Carrier. If the Carrier delivers the Goods without obtaining security for general average contribution or such contributions or expense and to provide such cash deposit or other security for the estimated amount of such contributions or expense as the Carrier shall reasonably require.

23) AD VALOREM DECLARATION OF VALUE. The Merchant agrees that higher compensation than that provided for in this Bill of Lading may not be claimed unless the nature and value of the Goods have been declared by the Merchant prior to the commencement of the carriage and inserted in this Bill of Lading in the space captioned "Declared Cargo Value" and extra freight paid on such declared value if required. In such case, the declared value if embodied in the Bill of Lading shall be the basis for calculating the Carrier's liability, (if any), provided that such declared value shall be prima facie evidence, but shall not be conclusive on the Carrier and further provided that such declared value does not exceed the true value of the Goods at destination. Any partial damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

24) LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. The Carrier, the Vessel, her owner(s), operator(s), demise, time, slot and space charterers shall be entitled to the same rights of limitation as are or would be available to the owner of the Vessel under the Brussels Limitation Convention of 1957, the London Limitation Convention of 1976 or any other applicable convention, statute or law, governing the rights of shipowners to limit their liability in accordance with the tonnage or value of the Vessel in the jurisdiction in which any claim is brought under this Bill of Lading.

25) SUB-CONTRACTING AND INDEMNITY
(a) The Carrier shall be entitled to sub-contract the whole or any part of the duties undertaken by the Carrier in this Bill of Lading in relation to the Goods on any terms whatsoever consistent with any applicable law.

(b) Merchant undertakes that no claim or allegation shall be made against any person performing or undertaking such duties (including all servants, agents and sub-contractors of the Carrier) other than the Carrier, which imposes or attempts to impose upon any such person, or any vessel owned by any such person, any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods or the carriage of the Goods from port of loading to port of discharge whether or not arising out of negligence on the part of such person and, if any such claim or allegation should nevertheless be made, the Merchant will indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.

(c) Without prejudice to the Merchant's indemnity obligations herein, the Vessel and every subcontractor of the Carrier of any nature whatsoever (including but not limited to the Participating Carrier, the Vessel, the owner, charterer, operator, Master, officer and crew of the Vessel, and employees, agents, representatives, and all stevedores, terminal operators, watchmen, carpenters, lasher, ship cleaners, surveyors and other independent contractors) shall have the benefit of every right, defence, limitation and liberty of whatsoever nature herein contained or otherwise available to the Carrier as if such provisions were expressly for its benefit, and in entering into this contract, the Carrier, does so not only on its own behalf but also as agent and trustee for such persons or Vessel. The term "subcontractor" as used herein shall include both direct and indirect subcontractors hired by the Carrier to perform the Carrier's own obligations under the Bill of Lading, or the obligations of any person for whom the Carrier acts as agent. An indirect subcontractor is a person with whom the Carrier is not in contractual privity. For the purpose of this Clause 25, the Vessel and all subcontractors shall be deemed to be parties to the contract evidenced by this Bill of Lading.

(d) The provisions of Clause 25(b) shall extend to claims or allegations of whatsoever nature against other persons chartering space on the carrying Vessel.

(e) The Merchant further undertakes that no claim or allegation in respect of the Goods shall be made against the Carrier by any person other than in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading which imposes or attempts to impose upon the Carrier any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods whether or not arising out of negligence on the part of the Carrier and, if any such claim or allegation should nevertheless be made, to indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.

26) NOTICE OF LOSS: TIME BAR
1. Unless notice of loss or damage to the Goods and the general nature of it be given in writing to the Carrier at the Place of Delivery before or at the time of the removal of the Goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under this Bill of Lading, or if the loss or damage be not apparent, within seven consecutive days thereafter, such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the Carrier of the Goods described in this Bill of Lading.
2. Subject to Clause 26(3), the Carrier shall be discharged of all liability under this Bill of Lading unless suit is brought and written notice thereof given to the Carrier within nine months after delivery of the Goods. In the case of total loss of the Goods the period shall begin to run two months after the Goods have been received for transportation.
3. Notwithstanding Clause 26(2), where COGSA, the Hague Rules or Hague-Visby apply by incorporation or by force of law, the Carrier shall be discharged from all liability whatsoever in respect of the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year of their delivery or of the date when they should have been delivered.

27) BOTH-TO-BLAME COLLISION. If the Vessel comes into collision with another vessel as a result of the negligence of the other vessel and any act, neglect or default of the master, mariner, pilot or of the servants of the Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant undertakes to pay the Carrier or where the Carrier is not the owner and in possession of the carrying Vessel, to pay to the Carrier as trustee for the owner and/or demise charterer of the carrying Vessel, a sum sufficient to indemnify the Carrier and/or the owners and/or demise charterer of the carrying Vessel against all loss or liability to the other or non-carrying vessel or her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of, or damage to, or any claim whatsoever, of the Merchant, paid or payable by the other or non-carrying vessel or her owners to the Merchant and set-off, recouped or recovered by the other or non-carrying vessel or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying Vessel or her owner or demise charterer or carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators or those in charge of any vessel or vessels or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding vessels or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding or other accident.

28) NOTICE TO ENDORSEE AND/OR HOLDER AND/OR TRANSFEREE. By taking up this Bill of Lading, whether by endorsement and/or becoming a holder and/or by transfer hereof and/or by presenting this Bill of Lading to obtain delivery of the Goods herein and/or otherwise, the endorsee/holder/transferee and the Carrier agree that the holder/endorsee/transferee thereupon become a party to a contract of carriage with the carrier on the basis herein.

29) EXCEPTIONS CLAUSE Carrier shall not be liable for any loss, damage, delay or failure in performance hereunder occurring at any time including before loading on or after discharge from the Vessel or during any voyage, arising or resulting from the happening and/or threat and/or after effects of one or more of the following acts of God, act of war, force majeure, quarantine restrictions, embargo, acts of public enemies, thieves, pirates, assailing thieves, hijacking, arrest or restraint of princes, rulers or people, seizure under legal process, act or omission of Shipper, its agent or representative, strikes or lock-outs or stoppage or restraint of labor from whatever cause, partial or general, riots or civil commotions, fire or latent defect.

30) APPLICABLE LAW. This Bill of Lading, the contract contained in and/or evidenced hereby, and the rights and obligations of all parties concerned in connection with the carriage of the Goods hereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and any and all claims, suits, proceedings or disputes howsoever arising in connection with such Bill of Lading, contract, rights and obligations shall be determined in accordance with English law.
If the carriage of Goods hereunder is foreign trade to, from or through a port in the United States or if COGSA shall for any reason whatsoever apply compulsorily to the carriage of the Goods hereunder then this Bill of Lading, the contract contained in and/or evidenced hereby, and the rights and obligations of all parties concerned in connection with the carriage of the Goods hereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with United States law and all claims, suits, proceedings or disputes howsoever arising in connection with such Bill of Lading, contract, rights and obligations shall be determined in accordance with United States law.

31) PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION. The parties agree to fully comply with General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 ("GDPR") and any applicable data protection laws and be bound by the terms available at https://www.oocl.com/eng/resourcecenter/industrylinks/Documents/Framework(A)-Shipper.pdf("Framework") under which the Merchant is the "data controller" and the Carrier is the "data processor" in respect of any personal data provided by the Merchant to the Carrier for the contract of carriage. The Merchant (i) authorises the Carrier to process any personal data provided to the Carrier or which is made available to the Carrier by the Merchant for the purposes of providing service under this contract of carriage and for other purposes including transferring personal data to competent bodies, courts or regulatory authorities, as may be requested; (ii) acknowledges and agrees that the Carrier may transfer the personal data to its affiliates, employees, agents, delegates, sub-processors or competent authorities and to a country outside of the European Economic Area and the United Kingdom in accordance with such latest applicable Standard Contractual Clauses as set out in the Framework and/or other available data transfer solutions.

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in such cases. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare under this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delivery is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain in the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on the voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per package or unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, the Declared Value shall nevertheless be declared to be the Declared Value, and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in any such cargo. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare as required by this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delay is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain at the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on to voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, or if no Declared Value, or no extra freight has been paid, then the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or Goods or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in any such cargo. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare as required by this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delay is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain at the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on to voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, or if no Declared Value, or no extra freight has been paid, then the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.
(B) In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage, resulting from any cause, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequences of which the Carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the Goods and the Merchant shall jointly and severally contribute with the Carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, loss, or expenses of a general average nature that may be or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the Goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully and in the same manner as if such salving ship belonged to strangers.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or Goods or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in any such cargo. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare as required by this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delay is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain at the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on to voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, or if no Declared Value, or no extra freight has been paid, then the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.
(B) In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage, resulting from any cause, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequences of which the Carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the Goods and the Merchant shall jointly and severally contribute with the Carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, loss, or expenses of a general average nature that may be or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the Goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully and in the same manner as if such salving ship belonged to strangers.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or Goods or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in any such cargo. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare as required by this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delay is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain at the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on to voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, or if no Declared Value, or no extra freight has been paid, then the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.
(B) In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage, resulting from any cause, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequences of which the Carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the Goods and the Merchant shall jointly and severally contribute with the Carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, loss, or expenses of a general average nature that may be or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the Goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully and in the same manner as if such salving ship belonged to strangers.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or Goods or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in such cases. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare under this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delivery is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain in the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on the voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per package or unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, the Declared Value shall nevertheless be declared to be the Declared Value, and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.
(B) In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage, resulting from any cause, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequences of which the Carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the Goods and the Merchant shall jointly and severally contribute with the Carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, loss, or expenses of a general average nature that may be or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the Goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully and in the same manner as if such salving ship belonged to strangers.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

HMM CO., LTD. AS CARRIER

By

Received by the Carrier or Subcontractor from the Merchant in apparent good order and condition unless otherwise indicated, the Goods, or the containers or packages said to contain the Goods, to be carried subject to all the terms on the face and back of this Bill of Lading, from the place of receipt or the port of loading to the port of discharge or place of delivery, there to be delivered. If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered in exchange for the Goods or delivery order.

1. DEFINITION
When used in this Bill of Lading:
(A) "Carrier" means this Bill of Lading issuer, the Vessel, and the Vessel's owners, charterers, managers, and operators.
(B) "Goods" means the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading and, if the cargo is in a container or containers supplied or furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, includes the container or containers as well.
(C) "Multimodal Transportation" means carriage of the Goods by sea and land transportation under a single Bill of Lading.
(D) "Laden on Board" or similar words endorsed on this Bill of Lading means that the Goods have been loaded on board the Vessel or are in the custody of the Carrier or Subcontractor at the port of loading; and, in the event of Multimodal Transportation if the originating carrier is a Subcontractor, means that the Goods have been loaded on board rail cars or other means of inland carriage and are in the custody of a Subcontractor.
(E) "Loss of or Damage to the Goods" includes allegations and/or claims for loss of or damage to the Goods or in connection with the Goods, and also includes allegations and/or claims for misdelivery, nondelivery, or economic loss due to delay.
(F) "Merchant" includes the shipper, consignor, consignee, owner, and receiver of the Goods, and the holder of this Bill of Lading, all of whom are jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all freight, demurrage, damages for detention, and for the performance of the obligations of any of them under this Bill of Lading or any charter party described in the face of this Bill of Lading.
(G) "Package" includes containers, vans, trailers, pallets, vehicles, and similar packaged units of any description, but not Goods shipped in bulk.
(H) "Subcontractor" includes stevedores, longshoremen, lighterers, terminal operators, warehousemen, truckers, railroads, agents, and any person, corporation or other legal entity that performs any of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading (whether or not in direct privity of contract with the Carrier), and includes the Subcontractor's own Subcontractor(s).
(I) "Vessel" includes the vessel on the face of this Bill of Lading and any ship, barge, feeder vessel or other means of transport that is substituted, in whole or in part, for that vessel.

2. CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Except as provided in (B) below, the international Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading signed at Brussels on 24 August 1924 ("the Hague Rules") as amended by the Protocol signed at Brüssels on 23 February 1968 ("the Hague-Visby Rules") and as enacted in the country of shipment shall apply to this Bill of Lading. When the Hague-Visby Rules are not enacted in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply. When there is no enactment of the Hague-Visby Rules in the country of shipment and destination, the Hague-Visby Rules shall apply to this Bill of Lading. The Protocol signed at Brussels on 21 December 1979 ("the SDR Protocol 1979") shall apply where the Hague-Visby Rules apply, whether mandatorily or by this Contract.
(B) If this Bill of Lading covers Goods moving to or from ports of the United States in foreign trade, or if United States law is otherwise compulsorily applicable, then carriage of such Goods shall be subject to the provisions of the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, 1936, and any amendments thereto (hereinafter "U.S. COGSA"), the terms of which are incorporated in this Bill of Lading, and the provisions of U.S. COGSA shall govern prior to loading on and subsequent to the discharge from the Vessel and throughout the time when the Goods are in the custody of the Carrier or any Subcontractor including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.

3. EXEMPTIONS; DEFENSES
(A) Nothing in this Bill of Lading shall limit or deprive the Carrier of any rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties or statutory protections authorized by the applicable laws, statutes, or regulations of any country.
(B) The rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections provided in or incorporated in this Bill of Lading, governing law, and any relevant charter party shall apply in any action against the Carrier, whether the action is founded in contract, in tort, or otherwise.

4. SUBCONTRACTING; RIGHTS, AND DEFENSES OF SUBCONTRACTORS
(A) The Carrier shall be entitled to subcontract on any terms the whole or any part of the loading, discharge, handling, storage, stowage, carriage, custody or care of the Goods, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation, and any duty undertaken by the Carrier in relation to the Goods.
(B) If any claim is made by the Merchant against any Subcontractor, the Subcontractor and the agents of each shall have the benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections in this Bill of Lading benefiting the Carrier as if the provisions were expressly for the benefit of the Subcontractor to the fullest extent permitted by the law applicable to Himalaya Clauses.

5. RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS OR DEMAGE
(A) Insofar as this Bill of Lading is used for Port-to-Port transportation of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods caused before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel. Any indication of final destination on the face of this Bill of Lading is solely for the Merchant's reference, and the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods shall cease at the time of discharge at the port of discharge. The Carrier, in making arrangements for transportation, storage, or handling before loading or after discharge, acts only as the Merchant's agent and assumes no responsibility therefor. Pre-carriage and on-carriage of the Goods are at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(B) The provisions (including, but not limited to, all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections) of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, shall govern at all stages of transport including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(C) The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods will arrive at any particular time or in time to meet any particular market or use, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any direct or indirect Loss of or Damage to the Goods that is caused through delay.
(D) The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods directly or indirectly caused by or arising from strikes, lock-outs, labour disturbances, trade disputes and/or any Force Majeure Event which is beyond control of Carrier, or anything done in contemplation or furtherance thereof, whether the Carrier is a party thereto or not.

6. ROUTE OF TRANSPORT; TRANSSHIPMENT; FORWARDING
(A) At the Carrier's discretion and without notice to the Merchant, the Goods may be carried as a single shipment or as several shipments, by the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading or by any other means of transport by land, water, or air, whether or not owned or operated by the Carrier, and by any route, whether or not such route is the direct, advertised, or customary route.
(B) The Carrier or Subcontractor may discharge the Goods or any part of them at any port or place for transshipment, store them afloat or ashore, and forward them by any means of transport.
(C) If the Goods cannot be found at the port of discharge or place of delivery, or if they be miscarried, when found they may be forwarded to their intended port of discharge or place of delivery, but the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising from such forwarding.
(D) At the Carrier's option, and without notice to the Merchant, another ship or ships may be substituted for the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading whether or not the substitute ship or ships be owned or operated by the Carrier or arrives or departs before or after the Vessel named in this Bill of Lading.
(E) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 6 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

7. LIBERTIES
(A) In any situation, whether or not existing or anticipated before commencement of the transport, which in the judgment of the Carrier or Subcontractor (including but not limited to the Master and any person charged with the transport or safekeeping of the Goods) has given or is likely to give rise to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, danger, personal injury or death, or delay to the Vessel or any property, or has made or is likely to make it unsafe, impracticable, unlawful, or against the interest of the Carrier or the Merchant to commence the transport, to continue the transport, to discharge the Goods at the port of discharge, or to deliver the Goods at the place of delivery, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be entitled:
(1) to unpack the containers or otherwise dispose of the Goods in such manner as the Carrier may consider advisable, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(2) before the Goods are loaded on the Vessel or other means of transport, to cancel the contract of carriage without compensation and to require the Merchant to take custody of the Goods and, upon the Merchant's failure to do so, to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(3) if the Goods are at a place awaiting transshipment, to terminate the transport there and to store the Goods at a place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, at the risk and expense of the Merchant, and
(4) if the Goods are on the Vessel or other means of transport, to discharge the Goods or any part of them at a port or place selected by the Carrier or Subcontractor, or to carry them back to the port of loading or place of receipt and there discharge, at the risk and expense of the Merchant. After any action taken according to this Article 7(A), the Carrier shall be free from any responsibility for further custody or carriage of the Goods.
(B) If after any action taken according to Article 7(A) above the Carrier or Subcontractor makes arrangements to store, transship, or forward the Goods, it shall do so only as agent for and at the risk and expense of the Merchant, without any liability in respect of such agency. The Merchant shall reimburse the Carrier forthwith upon demand for all extra freight, charges, and expenses incurred for any actions taken according to Article 7(A), including delay or expense to the Vessel, and the Carrier shall have a lien upon the Goods to that extent.
(C) The situations referred to in Article 7(A) above shall include, but shall not be limited to, those caused by the existence or apprehension of war, hostilities, riots, civil commotions, or other disturbances; closure of, obstacle in, or danger to any port or seaway; blockage, prohibition, or restriction on commerce or trading; quarantine, sanitary, or other similar regulations or restrictions; strikes, lockouts, or other labour troubles whether partial or general and whether or not involving employees of the Carrier or Subcontractor; congestion of port, wharf, sea terminal, or similar place; shortage, absence, or obstacles of labour or facilities for loading, discharge, delivery, or other handling of the Goods; epidemics or diseases; bad weather, shallow water, ice, landslip, or other obstacles to navigation or carriage.
(D) The Vessel shall have liberty to call at any port or place, whether in or out of the direct, advertised, or customary route, once or more often and in any order, and to omit calling at any port or place, whether scheduled or not.
(E) The Vessel shall have liberty, either with or without the Goods on board and either before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, to adjust compasses and other navigational instruments, make trial trips or tests, drydock whether laden or not, go to repair yards, shift berths, take on fuel or stores at any port, embark or disembark any person, carry contraband, explosives, munitions, and hazardous cargo, sail without pilots, tow or be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property.
(F) The Carrier, in addition to all other liberties provided for in this Article 7, shall have liberty to comply with orders, directions, regulations, or suggestions as to navigation or the carriage or handling of the Goods or the Vessel, given by any actual or purported government or public authority, or by any committee or person having under the terms of any insurance on the Vessel the right to give such order, direction, regulation, or suggestion.
(G) Actions the Carrier takes under this Article 7 shall be deemed to be included within the contractual carriage and such actions, or consequences resulting therefrom, shall not be considered a deviation. Should the Carrier be held liable in respect of such action, the Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of all rights, defenses, exemptions, limitations, conditions, immunities, liberties and statutory protections contained in this Bill of Lading.

8. DESCRIPTION OF PARTICULARS OF GOODS
Any description on the face of this Bill of Lading of marks, quality, quantity, weight, measure, nature, value, or any other particulars of the Goods is as furnished by the Merchant. The Carrier shall not be responsible for the accuracy of any such description and is not bound thereby. The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the descriptions of particulars that the Merchant furnishes are correct, and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage, expenses, liability, or penalties resulting from inaccuracy of any description of particulars.

9. USE OF CONTAINER
When the Goods are not already packed into a container at the time of receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the Carrier or Subcontractor shall be at liberty to pack and carry the Goods in any type of container.

10. CARRIER'S CONTAINER
(A) The Merchant assumes full responsibility for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss of or damage to the Carrier's containers and other equipment if the loss or damage is caused or occurs while in the possession or control of the Merchant, the Merchant's agents or the Merchant's subcontractors, or other entities engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from, any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to property caused by the Carrier's container or its contents while in the possession or control of the Merchant, his agents, or other carriers engaged by or on behalf of the Merchant

If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A)This Bill of Lading is evidence only of the receipt of the number of containers shown on the face of this Bill of Lading. The condition and particulars of the contents are unknown to the Carrier, and the Carrier accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the description of the condition or particulars of the contents.
(B) The Merchant warrants:
(1)that the stowage of the contents of the containers and the closing and sealing of the containers, are safe and proper, and
(2) that the containers and their contents are suitable for handling and carriage in accordance with all terms of this Bill of Lading, including Article 14. If the Merchant breaches any of these warranties, the Merchant and not the Carrier shall be responsible for any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods), and the Merchant shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any resulting loss or damage to persons or property (including but not limited to the Vessel and the Goods).
(C) The Merchant shall inspect each container before using it, and the Merchant represents that the container is in sound and suitable condition for the transport contracted for in this Bill of Lading. The Carrier shall have no liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising out of the unsuitability of the container if the unsuitability would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or before the time of packing the container.
(D)If the container is delivered by the Carrier or Subcontractor with seal(s) intact, such delivery shall be deemed to be full and complete performance of the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(E) The Carrier or Subcontractor shall have the right to open any container, whether packed by the Merchant or not, and inspect the contents, without notice to the Merchant, at such time and place as the Carrier or Subcontractor may deem necessary, and at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(F) If any seal on a container is broken by Customs or other authority for inspection of its contents, the Carrier shall not be liable for any resulting Loss of or Damage to the Goods, or any expense.
(G)When a container is stuffed and sealed by the Merchant prior to delivery to and receipt by Carrier or Subcontractor, all statements on this Bill of Lading relating to the contents of the containers, including marks and numbers and kind of packages, description, quantity, quality, weight, measure, nature, kind, value or any other particulars are furnished by the Merchant and have not been checked by the Carrier or Subcontractor. The Carrier and Subcontractor do not have facilities to weigh sealed containers at the load port and has neither inspected the contents of, nor weighed the containers. Any reference in this Bill of Lading to Shipped on Board or Clean on Board relates solely to the containers and not to the contents thereof.

12. SPECIAL CARRIAGE OR CONTAINER
(A) The Carrier does not undertake to carry or store the Goods in refrigerated, heated, insulated, ventilated, or any other special container or container with special equipment packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, and the Carrier will treat such Goods or container only as ordinary Goods or dry container unless:
(1)special arrangements for the carriage or storage of such Goods or container have been agreed to in writing between the Carrier and the Merchant,
(2)such special arrangements are noted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and
(3)special freight as required has been paid
(B) The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods in a special hold, or in a special container supplied by the Carrier, arising from latent defects, breakdown, or stoppage of the refrigerating or heating machinery, insulation, ship's plant, or other such apparatus of the Vessel or container, provided that the Carrier before and at the beginning of the transport has exercised due diligence to maintain the special hold or container.
(C) The Carrier shall not be responsible for the function of a special container supplied by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(D) If the Goods have been packed into a refrigerated container by the Carrier or Subcontractor, and the particular temperature range requested by the Merchant is inserted on this Bill of Lading, the Carrier or Subcontractor will set the thermostatic controls within the requested temperature range but does not guarantee the maintenance of such temperature inside the container.
(E) If the cargo received by the Carrier or Subcontractor is in a refrigerated container packed by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is the obligation of the Merchant to properly stow the contents and set the thermostatic controls and vents. The Carrier shall not be liable for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from the Merchant's failure in such obligation, and the Carrier does not guarantee the maintenance of the intended temperature inside the container.

13. DANGEROUS GOODS, CONTRABAND AND ANTI-DRUG
(A) The Carrier will carry Goods of an explosive, inflammable, radioactive, corrosive, damaging, poisonous, or dangerous nature only upon the Carrier's approval of a written application by the Merchant prior to the carriage of such Goods. Such application must accurately state the name, nature, character and classification of the Goods, as well as how they are dangerous and the method of rendering them innocuous, together with the full names and addresses of the shipper and the consignee.
(B) The Merchant shall distinctly and permanently mark the nature and danger of such Goods on the outside of the package or container containing the Goods.
(C) The Merchant shall submit all documents or certificates in connection with such Goods required by any applicable statute or regulation, or by the Carrier.
(D) Whenever it is discovered that the Goods have been received by the Carrier or Subcontractor without compliance with Articles 13(A), (B) or (C) above, or the Goods are found to be contraband or prohibited by any law or regulation, the Carrier shall be entitled to have such Goods rendered innocuous, thrown overboard, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, at the Carrier's discretion and without compensation to the Merchant, and the Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, or liability including loss of freight, and any other expense directly or indirectly arising out of the custody or carriage of such Goods.
(E) The Carrier may exercise the rights conferred upon it under this Article 13(D) whenever Goods received in compliance with Articles 13(A), (B), and (C) above have become dangerous, even if not dangerous when received by the Carrier or Subcontractor
(F) The Carrier shall not be liable for, and the Merchant shall indemnify, defend and hold the Carrier harmless from any death of or injuries to persons or loss of or damage to the vessel, cargo or other property which may arise from the dangerous nature of the Goods.
(G) In pursuance of the provisions of the U.S. Anti-Drug Abuse Act 1986, or any re-enactment thereof, the Carrier warrants that it will exercise the highest degree of care and diligence in preventing unmanifested narcotic drugs and marijuana being loaded or concealed on board the Vessel. The Merchant shall remain responsible for and indemnify the Carrier against all time lost and all expenses incurred, including fines, in the event that unmanifested narcotic drugs and/or marijuana are found in the possession or effects of cargo or package.

14. STOWAGE UNDER AND ON DECK
(A) Goods in containers or vans, or on trailers or chassis, may be carried under deck or on deck. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(B) Goods stowed in poop, forecastle, deck house, shelter deck, passenger space, or any other covered-in space, or stowed in a container wherever placed, shall be deemed to be stowed under deck for all purposes including general average.
(C) Lumber, earth moving equipment, and all other Goods customarily or reasonably carried on deck may at the Carrier's option be carried on deck without notice to the Merchant and without liability of the Carrier for the risks inherent in on deck carriage in such cases. When such Goods are carried on deck the Carrier shall not be required to mark any statement of "on deck stowage" on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such on deck carriage shall not be considered a deviation.
(D) In respect of Goods (except in containers) carried on deck and stated on this Bill of Lading to be so carried, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to the custody or carriage of such Goods on deck, including but not limited to Loss of or Damage to the Goods, shall be borne by the Merchant. whether or not caused by the Carrier's negligence or the Vessel's unseaworthiness and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

15. LIVE ANIMALS AND PLANTS
With respect to the custody and carriage of live animals and plants, all risks of loss or damage from perils inherent in or incident to such carriage shall be borne by the Merchant, and in all other respects the Carrier shall have the benefit of the provisions of the applicable Hague-Visby Rules or U.S. COGSA, whichever one is applicable as provided for in Articles 2(A) or (B) above, and the terms of this Bill of Lading.

16. VALUABLE GOODS
The Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to or in connection with precious metals or stones, chemicals, jewelry, currency, writings, negotiable instruments, securities, documents, works of art, heirlooms, or any other valuables, unless before receiving such Goods for carriage the Carrier and the Merchant has declared the nature and value of the Goods in writing before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, the nature and value of the Goods have been inserted on the face of this Bill of Lading, and additional freight has been paid as required.

17. HEAVY LIFT
(A)The weight of a single piece or package exceeding 2,240 lbs. (one metric ton) gross must be declared by the Merchant in writing before receipt by the Carrier or Subcontractor and must be marked clearly and durably on the outside of the piece or package.
(B) If the Merchant fails to declare under this Article 17(A): (1) the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods, (2) the Merchant shall be liable for resulting loss of or damage to any person or property, and (3) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any resulting loss, damage, or liability suffered by the Carrier.

18. DELIVERY BY MARKS
(A)The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks clearly and durably show upon the Goods, package, or container when the Goods are received by the Carrier or Subcontractor, together with the names of the port of discharge and place of delivery.
(B) The Merchant warrants that the marks on the Goods, packages, and containers correspond to the marks shown on this Bill of Lading and also in all respects comply with all laws and regulations in force at the port of discharge or place of delivery. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expenses resulting from inaccuracy or incompleteness of the marks.
(C) Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue, and any unclaimed Goods not otherwise accounted for may be allocated for the purpose of completing delivery to the various Merchants of Goods of like character in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight, or damage.

19. DELIVERY
(A) Loading shall take place as fast as the Vessel is able to load, by day and- if required by the Carrier- also by night, Sundays and holidays. If Goods contracted for shipment are not available, when the Vessel is ready to load, the Carrier is relieved of any obligation to load such Goods, and the Vessel may leave the port without further notice and deadfreight is to be paid. The Carrier is entitled to land and receive the Goods or to appoint a person or a corporation for the landing and reception of the Goods. Whether appointed by the Carrier or not, anybody so acting is the Merchant's representative and the Merchant shall pay current charges whether delivery is taken overside or on quay. The Merchant must be ready to take delivery of the Goods as soon as the Vessel is ready to deliver as fast as she is able to discharge, by day and, if required by the Carrier, also by night, Sundays and holidays. If the Goods are not taken by the Merchant at the time when the Vessel is ready to deliver, or if they are not removed alongside the Vessel without delay, the Carrier shall be at liberty at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant to enter the Goods, to move them, to land them on to wharf, quay or into warehouse or to discharge them into craft, bulk, lighters, pack or unpack the container and/or sell them with or without legal authority, and the contract of carriage shall be considered as fulfilled
(B) The Carrier may at its discretion deliver the Goods at any time at the Vessel's side or at a customhouse, warehouse, wharf, or any other place at the port of discharge or place of delivery shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(C) Delivery shall take place upon discharge.
(D) Delivery may be to the Merchant including his own bonded warehouses, to the Customs or other public authority, and the Carrier shall have no further responsibility for the Goods.
(E) If the Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor are in containers packed by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(1)The Carrier shall be responsible only to deliver the total number of containers received. The Carrier shall not be required to unpack the containers and deliver their contents.
(2) At the Carrier's discretion and upon the Merchant's request in writing to the Carrier at least 3 days before the scheduled date of arrival of the Vessel at the port of discharge, the containers may be unpacked and their contents delivered by the Carrier in accordance with the written request. In such a case, if the seals of the containers are intact at the time of unpacking, the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods resulting from such delivery, and the Merchant shall be liable for an appropriate adjustment of the freight and any additional charges incurred.
(F) If the Carrier for its convenience has packed the Goods into a container, the Carrier shall not be required to deliver the Goods in the container. At the Carrier's discretion, and subject to prior arrangement between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Goods may be delivered to the Merchant in the container, in which case if the container is delivered with the seal intact the Carrier's obligations under this Bill of Lading shall be discharged, and the Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods.
(G) The Carrier is not responsible to notify, in writing or otherwise, the Merchant or others of the arrival, discharge, or disposition of the Goods, any custom or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, and notwithstanding any notation on the face of this Bill of Lading that there is a notify party.

20. FIRE
The Carrier shall not be responsible for any Loss of or Damage to the Goods arising or resulting from fire, even if such Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurs before loading or after discharge of the Goods from the Vessel and whether founded in contract or in tort, unless arising or resulting from willful intention or negligence of the Carrier.

21. GOVERNMENT ORDERS AND CONTINGENCIES
The Carrier shall have liberty to comply with any orders, directions or recommendations as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of any government, international organization or any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, or purporting to have, under the terms of the insurance on the Vessel, the right to give such orders, directions or recommendations. If by reason of or in compliance with, any such orders, directions or recommendations the Vessel does not proceed to the port or ports originally designated, the Vessel may proceed to any other port which the Carrier or the Master of the Vessel at its discretion may select and there discharge the Goods. If in the opinion of the Carrier or the Master the performance of the transport is or threatens to be unsafe, unlawful or inadvisable by the imminence or existence of war, warlike operations or hostilities, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier's or Master's discretion. If on account of actual or threatening epidemics, quarantine, ice, strikes, lock-outs, labour troubles, interdict, congestion, difficulties and/or any Force Majeure Event beyond the control of the Carrier in loading or discharge the Carrier or the Master at any time is in doubt as to whether the Vessel can safely and without delay or detention, reach, enter or remain in the port of loading or reach or enter the port of discharge or there discharge in the usual manner, or proceed thence on the voyage safely or without delay or detention, the container may be devanned and/or the Goods may be discharged at the port of loading or at any other port or place at the Carrier or Master's discretion. In the cases referred to above in this Article 21, the Carrier may at any time postpone the carriage of any part of the Goods contracted for herein till some later date or cancel in whole or in part the contract whether before or after this Bill of Lading is issued. The discharge of the Goods and/or their delivery or other disposition pursuant to any provisions of this Article 21 shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. In the event of any diversion, delay or detention of the Vessel under such circumstances as referred to in this Article 21 and/or any services rendered to the Goods hereunder, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation and shall have a lien on the Goods for such charges.

22. LIEN ON GOODS
(A) The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods, any documents relating thereto, or any other cargo or property of the Merchant under the Carrier's custody or control for all freight, deadfreight, demurrage, damages for detention, general average contributions, stevedoring charges, storage, container per diem expenses, and any other sums whatsoever (including costs and attorney fees for recovering the sums) chargeable to the Merchant under this or any other Bill of Lading or any contracts related thereto. The Carrier may foreclose the lien by selling the Goods, without notice to the Merchant, where applicable, privately or by public auction. If proceeds of the sale of the Goods fail to cover the amount due and the costs and fees incurred the Carrier shall be entitled to recover the deficit from the Merchant.
(B) At the Carrier's sole discretion if the Goods are unclaimed for a reasonable time beyond its free time allowance, or whenever in the Carrier's opinion the Goods will deteriorate or depreciate, the Carrier may at its discretion exercise its lien or sell, abandon, or otherwise dispose of such Goods at the risk and expense of the Merchant.

23. FREIGHT AND CHARGE
(A) Freight may be calculated on the basis of the description of particulars furnished by the Merchant, who shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy of the contents, quantity, weight, measure, value, and other particulars as furnished at the time of receipt of the Goods by the Carrier or Subcontractor, but the Carrier, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual particulars, may open the container or package at any time and at the risk and expense of the Merchant. In case of incorrect declaration of any particular, the Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier for:
(1) the balance of freight between the freight charged and that which would have been due had the correct particular been given, plus
(2) expenses incurred in determining the correct particular, plus
(3) as liquidated and ascertained damages, an additional sum equal to the correct freight.
(B) Full freight to the place of delivery shall be completely earned upon loading of the Goods, whether the freight is stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination. The Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and other charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain such freight and charges regardless whether the Vessel or the Goods be lost, or whether the Carrier takes any of the liberties allowed in this Bill of Lading. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound Goods.
(C) The payment of freight and charges shall be made in full and in cash without any offset or deduction.
(D) Goods received by the Carrier or Subcontractor cannot be taken away or disposed of by the Merchant except upon the Carrier's consent and after payment of full freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading.
(E) If the Goods are not available when the Vessel is ready to load, and unless it is caused by the failure of the Carrier to perform its obligations under this Bill of Lading, dead freight shall be paid by the Merchant.
(F) The Merchant shall be liable for and shall indemnify the Carrier against: (1) all duties, taxes, consular fees, and other charges levied on the Goods, and (2) all fines, damages, and losses sustained by the Carrier in connection with the Goods, including the Merchant's failure to comply with laws and regulations of any public authority in connection with the Goods, or failure to procure consular, board of health, or other certificates to accompany the Goods. The Merchant shall be liable for return freight and charges on any Goods refused exportation or importation by any public authority.
(G) If in the Carrier's or Subcontractor's opinion the Goods are in need of sorting, inspecting, mending, repairing, or reconditioning, or otherwise require protecting or caring for, the Carrier or Subcontractor at its discretion may, as agent for the Merchant, carry out such work at the risk and expense of the Merchant.
(H) Any party performing forwarding services with respect to the Goods shall be considered to be the agent of the Merchant exclusively, and any payment of freight or charges to such party shall not be considered to be payment to the Carrier.
(I) The Merchant shall be liable for Carrier's attorney fees, expenses and costs to collect any freight or charges under this Article 23.
(J) The Merchant shall be responsible for any additional war risks premium arising from the vessel's call at the named discharge port herein and such additional premium shall constitute a charge due hereunder against the Goods pursuant to this Article 23.

24. NOTICE OF LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO THE GOODS AND TIME FOR SUIT AGAINST CARRIER
(A) Unless notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier or its agent at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of the Goods or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 3 days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described on the face of this Bill of Lading.
(B) The Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of the Goods, including, but not limited to, liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.

25. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY
(A) All provisions in this Article 25 apply irrespective of the stage of ocean or inland transport where the Loss of or Damage to the Goods occurred, including prior to loading on and subsequent to discharge from the Vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the custody of Carrier or any Subcontractor, including all stages of Multimodal Transportation.
(B) Subject to Articles 25(C), (D) and (E) below, for the purpose of determining the extent of the Carrier's liability for Loss of or Damage to the Goods, the Merchant agrees that the sound value of the Goods is the Merchant's net invoice cost, plus freight and insurance premium, if paid. The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential loss.
(C) Unless the value and nature of the Goods have been declared in writing by the Merchant before shipment and inserted in the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract, the Carrier shall not be liable for Loss of or Damage to the Goods in amount exceeding the following per package or unit limit of liability: (1) For shipments, including Multimodal shipments, involving carriage of the Goods to or from a U.S. port, the limit of liability is US$500 per package, or in case of Goods not shipped in packages, US$500 per customary freight unit; or (2) For all other shipments (and/or in any case where a court should rule that the US$500 limit of liability per package or customary freight unit in this Article 25(C)(1) is not enforceable) the limit of liability is the higher of 2 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per kilogram of gross weight of the Goods or 666.67 SDR (or equivalent in local currency) per package or unit.
(D) If a Declared Value has been inserted on the front of the Bill of Lading and extra freight has been paid as required by tariff or contract but the actual value of the Goods per package or unit exceeds such Declared Value, the Declared Value shall nevertheless be declared to be the Declared Value, and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the Declared Value. Any partial Loss of or Damage to the Goods shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such Declared Value. If the Declared Value or nature has been knowingly misstated, the Carrier shall not be liable to pay any amount.
(E) Where the Goods have been packed into a container or unitized into a similar article of transport by or on behalf of the Merchant, it is expressly agreed that the number of such containers or similar articles of transport shall be considered as the number of packages or units for the purpose of the application of the limitation of liability provided for in this Article 25.

26. GENERAL AVERAGE ; NEW JASON CLAUSE
(A) General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled at the port or place of the Carrier's option and according to the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and, as to matters not provided for by those Rules, according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency selected by the Carrier. The general average statement shall be prepared by the adjusters appointed by the Carrier. Average agreement or bond and such cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the Goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, and any other additional securities as the Carrier may require, shall be furnished by the Merchant to the Carrier before delivery of the Goods.
(B) In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage, resulting from any cause, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequences of which the Carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the Goods and the Merchant shall jointly and severally contribute with the Carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, loss, or expenses of a general average nature that may be or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the Goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully and in the same manner as if such salving ship belonged to strangers.

27. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION
If the Vessel comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect, or default of the Master, crew, pilot, or agent of the Vessel or Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability incurred directly or indirectly to the other ship or her owners or operators insofar as such loss or liability represents the Merchant or Owner's or Carrier's or any claim paid or payable to the Merchant by theother ship or her owners or operators and set-off, recouped, or recovered by the other ship or her owners or operators as part of their claim against the Vessel or the Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators, or those in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding, or other accident.

28. CARRIER'S TARIFF
This Bill of Lading is issued subject to the Carrier's applicable tariff that are incorporated herein. Attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to free storage time and to additional charges including demurrage, damage for detention, per diem, storage expenses and legal fees, etc. Copies of the applicable tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or its agent upon request and the Merchant agrees to know and accept such Tariff. In case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION
(A) Any claims arising from or in connection with or relating to this Bill of Lading shall be exclusively governed by the law of Korea except as otherwise provided herein inclusive of this Article 2 and Article 3(A). Any and all action under or concerning this Bill of Lading (including, but not limited to, Loss of or Damage to the Goods) whether based on breach of contract, tort or otherwise shall be brought before the Seoul Civil District Court in Korea.
(B) Notwithstanding Article 29(A) above, any and all actions by Carrier against Merchant concerning freight and/or charges and/or any other expenses incurred to Carrier for the reason that Merchant is responsible for including but not limited to those charges in Article 26, may be brought in the courts of any place where Merchant is subject to jurisdiction and the applicable laws or regulations of that jurisdiction shall apply to such actions by the Carrier against the Merchant.

30. SUPERSEDING CLAUSE
All agreement or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

31. SEVERABILITY OF TERMS
The terms of this Bill of Lading are severable, and if any part of terms is declared invalid or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of any other part of term shall not be affected.

THIS BILL OF LADING IS A 2 PAGE DOCUMENT AND CARRIAGE OF GOODS IS SUBJECT TO OOCL'S STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE, WHICH APPEAR AT THE END HEREOF AS PAGE 2

TERMS AND CONDITIONS (Also Available in Pamphlet Form from the Carrier or its Agents)

The printed terms and conditions appearing on the face and reverse side of this Bill of Lading are available at www.oocl.com, in Carrier's published US tariffs, and in pamphlet form.

RECEIVED for shipment in external apparent good order and condition, unless otherwise indicated, the number of containers, packages or other customary freight units identified as "Total Number of Container/Packages received and acknowledged by the Carrier" on the face hereof subject to all the terms and conditions hereof from Place of Receipt or the Port of Loading, whichever is applicable, to Place of Delivery or Port of Discharge, whichever is applicable. Weights, measurements, marks, numbers, quantity, contents and value if mentioned herein are to be considered unknown by the Carrier.

Notwithstanding any customs or privileges to the contrary, the Merchant, in accepting this Bill of Lading, expressly agrees to be bound by all stipulations, exceptions, and conditions attached hereto or stated herein, whether written, printed, stamped or otherwise incorporated herein, as fully as if they were all signed by such Merchant.

1) IDENTITY AND DEFINITION OF CARRIER. "Orient Overseas Container Line" and "OOCL" are trade names for transportation provided separately by: Orient Overseas Container Line Limited ("OOCLL") and OOCL(Europe) Limited ("OEUL") respectively as follows:-

(a) OEUL shall be deemed the Carrier for transportation of Goods where those Goods are either loaded or discharged in any of Russia, Poland and Turkey.

(b) OOCLL shall be deemed to be the Carrier for Goods not carried in 1 (a) above
For the avoidance of doubt, for the purpose of this Clause, transhipment of Goods in either Russia, Poland or Turkey is not to be regarded as 'loading' or 'discharging' Goods.

If it is ultimately adjudged that a second person or entity, including without limitation, the Vessel, her owner, operator, demise, time, slot and space charterer and/or another member of an alliance and/or consortium and/or joint arrangement of which the Carrier may be a member, is also a carrier/bailee then that person or entity shall have the benefit of all the rights and defenses provided for in this Bill of Lading or by law.

Notice is hereby given that Carrier is a member of alliances and/or consortia and/or joint arrangements. The members of such groups, including Carrier, reserve the right to carry cargo for each other, and otherwise cooperate with each other in the carriage of cargo, without notice to the Merchant. In the case of such carriage, however, the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading shall apply, and the Merchant shall be bound by them and Carrier shall be deemed in all instances to be the Carrier of the Goods, subject to the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading.

2) DEFINITIONS Without limitation of any definition in any applicable law herein mentioned: "VESSEL" shall include the vessel(s) named in this Bill of Lading, any substituted vessel(s), any vessel to which transhipment may be made in the performance of this contract and, any vessel, craft, lighter or other means of transportation whatsoever, owned, chartered, operated or controlled and used by the Carrier or Participating Carrier in the performance of this contract; "MERCHANT" includes the Shipper, consignor, endorsee, transferee, Holder of this document, consignee, receiver of the Goods, any person or entity owning or entitled to the possession of the Goods or of this Bill of Lading and anyone acting on behalf of any such persons; "GOODS" means the cargo received from the Shipper and includes any Container not supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier; "HOLDER" means any person for the time being in possession of this Bill of Lading to whom the property interest in the Goods has passed on or by reason of the consignment of the Goods or the endorsement of this Bill of Lading or otherwise; "PARTICIPATING CARRIER" shall include any other sea, water, land or air carrier performing any part of the carriage provided herein; "CONTAINER" includes any container, trailer, transportable tank, flat, pallet, cradle, sled or any similar article of transport used to consolidate or transport Goods; "LADEN ON BOARD", when noted on this Bill of Lading shall mean that the Goods have been placed on board the Vessel or any other mode of transport used by or on behalf of the Carrier or Participating Carrier enroute to the Port of Loading shown on the face of this Bill of Lading; "PORT OF LOADING" shall mean the place where the Goods are received for marine transport by the Carrier, or Participating Carrier or their respective agents, "PORT OF DISCHARGE" shall mean the place where the Goods are to be discharged from the Vessel; "PLACE OF RECEIPT" shall be the place where the Goods are received from the Merchant by the Carrier, Participating Carrier or their respective agents; "PLACE OF DELIVERY" shall be the place where the Goods are delivered by the Carrier or the Participating Carrier to the Merchant; "COGSA" refers to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States approved April 16, 1936 and any subsequent modifications or re-enactment thereto. The "HAGUE RULES" refers to the International Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules Relating to Bills of Lading done at Brussels August 25, 1924; "HAGUE-VISBY" refers to the Hague Rules as Amended by the Protocol done at Brussels on February 23, 1968. References to the internal law of a State shall be deemed to exclude all principles of private international law applied by such State; "STATE" shall mean any nation, country, commonwealth, territory or possession, internationally recognized to be a body politic and to exercise sovereign power; "COMBINED TRANSPORT" arises if the Place of Receipt and/or Place of Delivery are indicated on the face of this Bill of Lading in the relevant boxes; and "PORT TO PORT TRANSPORT" arises if only the Port of Loading and/or Port of Discharge are indicated on the face of this Bill of Lading in the relevant boxes.

3) CARRIER'S TARIFF The terms of the applicable tariff(s) of the Carrier are incorporated herein. Copies of the relevant provisions of the applicable tariff(s) are obtainable from the Carrier upon request. In the case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable tariff(s), this Bill of Lading shall prevail except in the United States of America where the provisions of the tariff shall prevail.

4) CARRIER'S RESPONSIBILITY AND CLAUSE PARAMOUNT
(A) Port to Port Transport
If carriage is Port to Port Transport, the responsibility (if any) of the Carrier for loss or damage to the Goods occurring from the time when the Goods are loaded on board the Vessel at the Port of Loading until the time when the Goods are discharged from the Vessel at the Port of Discharge shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Clause 4(C).

The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for loss or damage to the Goods or non-delivery or misdelivery howsoever caused if such loss or damage, non-delivery or misdelivery arises prior to loading onto or subsequent to discharge from the Vessel. Notwithstanding the above, in case and to the extent that any applicable law provides for any additional period of responsibility the Carrier shall have the benefit of every right, defence, limitation and liberty of the Hague Rules during such additional compulsory period of responsibility notwithstanding that the loss or damage did not occur at sea.

(B) Combined Transport
If carriage is Combined Transport then the Carrier undertakes to perform and/or in its own name to procure performance of the carriage from the Place of Receipt or the Port of Loading whichever is applicable to the Place of Delivery or the Port of Discharge whichever is applicable and, save as is otherwise provided for in this Bill of Lading, the Carrier's liability for loss or damage to the Goods shall be as follows:-

1. If the stage of carriage where loss or damage occurred is not known
(a) Exclusions
If the stage of the carriage where the loss or damage to the Goods is not known then the Carrier shall be liable for loss and damage to the Goods save that the Carrier shall be relieved from liability for any loss or damage to the extent that such loss or damage was caused by:

(i) An act or omission of the Merchant;
(ii) Insufficiency or defective condition of packing or marking;
(iii) Compliance with the instructions of persons entitled to give them;
(iv) Handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the Goods by the Merchant;
(v) Inherent vice of the Goods;
(vi) Strike, lockout, stoppage or restraint of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general;
(vii) A nuclear incident;
(viii) Any cause or event which the Carrier could no avoid and the consequence of which he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.

(b) Burden of Proof The burden of proving that any loss or damage was caused by one or more of the events mentioned in Clauses 4(B)(1)(a)(i) to (viii) shall rest upon the Carrier save that when the Carrier is able to demonstrate that, in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the events specified in Clauses 4(B)(1)(a)(ii) to (vii) then it shall be presumed that it was so caused and in such circumstances the burden of proof shall be on the Merchant to prove that the loss or damage was not caused wholly or partly by one or more of these events.

(c) Limitation If the Carrier is liable for loss or damage to the Goods then the amount of compensation shall be calculated by reference to the invoice value of the Goods plus freight and insurance (if paid).

The Carrier's maximum liability hereunder shall in no circumstances exceed US$2 per kilo of gross weight of the Goods lost or damaged unless the value of the Goods has been declared by the Merchant with the consent of the Carrier and excess freight has been paid whereupon the declared value (if higher) as shown on the face of the Bill of Lading shall be substituted for the above limit and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

2. If the stage of carriage during which loss or damage occurred is known

Notwithstanding anything provided for in Clause 4(B)(1) if the stage of the carriage where loss or damage to the Goods is known then subject to the operation of Clause 4(C) which shall apply where loss or damage occurs to the Goods from the time when the Goods are loaded on board the Vessel at the Port of Loading until the time when the Goods are discharged from the Vessel at the Port of Discharge the Carriers liability in respect of any such loss or damage occurring shall be determined as follows:-

(a) By the provisions contained in any international convention or national law, which provisions cannot be departed from by private contract to the detriment of the Merchant, and would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of the carriage where the loss or damage occurred and received as evidence thereof any particular document which must be issued in order to make such international Convention or national law applicable; or

(b) If no international convention or national law is applicable then the liability of the Carrier shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Clause 4(B)(1).

(c) Subject to Clause 4(B)(2)(a) if loss or damage to the Goods is known to have occurred during a period when the Goods were in the custody of a Participating Carrier then the Carrier shall have the benefit of any and all rights, defences, exemptions, limitations and immunities contained in or incorporated by or compulsorily applicable to the Participating Carrier's tariff(s) or contract(s) with the Carrier (in addition to all of the rights, defences, exemptions, limitations and immunities contained in this Bill of Lading and the Carrier's tariff) and for this purpose such benefit, rights, defences, exemptions, limitations and immunities shall be deemed to be incorporated herein, and copies are obtainable from the Carrier upon request.

(C) Clause Paramount All carriage under this Bill of Lading (whether electronically produced or not) shall have effect subject to any legislation enacted in any country making the Hague or Hague-Visby Rules compulsorily applicable and in the absence of any such legislation in accordance with the Hague Rules or COGSA in the case of carriage to or from the United States of America.

In circumstances where the Hague Rules are not compulsorily applicable but are contractually applicable then subject to Clause 23 (ad valorem declaration) the Carrier's responsibility shall in no event exceed GBP100 per package or customary freight unit.

If any terms of this Bill of Lading are held repugnant to the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, COGSA or any other compulsorily applicable legislation then such provision shall be null and void to the extent of such invalidity without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof.

References in the Hague, Hague-Visby Rules, or COGSA to carriage by sea shall be deemed to include references to inland waterways or waterborne carriage.

(D) USA Clause Paramount (if applicable)

1. If carriage includes carriage to, from or through a port in the United States of America this Bill of Lading shall be subject to COGSA, the terms of which are incorporated herein and shall be paramount throughout carriage by sea and the entire time that the Goods are in the actual custody of the Carrier or its sub-contractor at the sea-terminal in the United States of America before loading onto the Vessel or after discharge therefrom as the case may be.

2. The Carrier shall not be liable in any capacity whatsoever for loss or delay to the Goods or non-delivery or misdelivery howsoever caused while the Goods are in the United States of America away from the sea-terminal and are not in the actual custody of the Carrier. At these times the Carrier acts as agent only for and on behalf of the Merchant and agrees to procure transportation of the Goods in accordance with the usual terms, conditions and tariff(s) of Participating Carriers. If for any reason the Carrier is denied the right to act as agent only at these times, its liability for loss and damage to the Goods or non-delivery or misdelivery thereof shall be determined in accordance with Clause 4(B) hereof.

3. If COGSA applies then the liability of the Carrier shall not exceed US$500 per package or customary freight unit unless the value of the Goods has been declared on the face hereof with the consent of the Carrier and extra freight has been paid in which case Clause 23 shall apply and the declared value (if higher) shall be substituted for the limit and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro-rata on the basis of such declared value.

4. Except as provided herein in Clauses 4(D)(1)and (2), and where COGSA does not apply by operation of law, Carrier's liability will be governed by COGSA unless its liability under some other body of law applicable to the particular stage of the transport where the loss occurred is more favourable to the Carrier (with regards to defenses and limitations), in which case that other body of law will apply.

5) WARRANTIES. The Merchant represents, warrants and agrees that:
(a) The Goods and any Container loaded by the Merchant are packed and secured in such a manner as to be handled in the ordinary course of the transportation without damage to the Goods, Vessel, Containers or other property or persons;
(b) Any Goods placed by the Merchant in Containers are compatible and suitable for transportation in Containers;
(c) He is or has the authority of the person owning or entitled to the possession of the Goods and this Bill of Lading; and
(d) The Merchant further warrants that the Container if not supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier meets all ISO and/or other applicable national or international safety standards and is fit in all respects for carriage by the Carrier.

6) MERCHANT'S RESPONSIBILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION
1. All of the persons coming within the definition of Merchant shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the due fulfilment of all obligations undertaken by the Merchant in this Bill of Lading and remain so liable throughout the transportation notwithstanding their having transferred this Bill of Lading and/or title to the Goods to another party.
2. The Merchant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Carrier against all and any claims, loss, damage, fines or expense arising or resulting from any breach of any warranty or other obligation of the Merchant under the terms of this Bill of Lading or applicable law (including but not limited to those Carrier may incur or liability to any person which the Carrier may suffer due to personal injury or loss of or damage to any property). Such indemnity shall include costs, including attorney fees, to defend any action brought by third parties or to prosecute any claim against the Merchant arising from the Merchant's obligation(s) under this Bill of Lading.

7) REGULATIONS RELATING TO GOODS
1. The Merchant shall comply with all rules, laws, regulations or requirements of customs, port and other authorities, and shall bear and pay all duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses or losses incurred or suffered by reason thereof or by reason of any illegal, incorrect or insufficient description, marking, numbering or addressing of the Goods, and indemnify the Carrier in respect thereof
2. If the Carrier is obliged to handover the Goods or any part thereof into the custody of any customs, port or other authority, such handover shall constitute due delivery of the Goods or any part thereof to the Merchant under this Bill of Lading.

8) SHIPPER-PACKED CONTAINERS
1. If a Container has not been filled, packed, stuffed or loaded by the Carrier, the Carrier shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the contents and the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, liability or expense incurred by the Carrier, if such loss, damage, liability or expense has been caused by:
(a) the manner in which the Container has been filled, packed, stuffed or loaded; or
(b) the unsuitability of the contents for carriage in Containers; or
(c) the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container and/or the Container without any want of due diligence on the part of the Carrier to make the Container reasonably fit for the purpose for which it is required; or
(d) the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container or the incorrect setting of any temperature controls thereof which would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time when the Container was filled, packed, stuffed or loaded; or
(e) packing of temperature controlled Goods at other than the booked temperature.
2. The Shipper is responsible for the packing and sealing of all Shipper-packed Containers. The Shipper shall inspect Containers before stuffing them and the use of the Containers shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt of the Container by Shipper and that the Container is in good order and condition. If a Shipper-packed Container is delivered by the Carrier with its seal intact, the Carrier shall not be liable for any shortage of Goods. If a claim for shortage is made against the Carrier, the Merchant agrees to indemnify the Carrier against all and any costs (including, but without limitation, legal costs), expenses, liabilities or losses of whatsoever nature suffered and/or incurred in connection with any such claim

9) DANGEROUS GOODS AND CONTRABAND
1. The Merchant undertakes not to tender for transportation any Goods which are of a dangerous, inflammable, radioactive or damaging nature without previously giving written notice of their nature to the Carrier and marking the Goods and their Container or other covering on the outside as required by any laws or regulations which may be applicable during the carriage.
2. Goods which are or at any time become dangerous, inflammable, radioactive or damaging may, at any time or place, be unloaded, destroyed, or rendered harmless without compensation, and if the Merchant has not given notice of their nature to the Carrier under Clause 9(1), the Carrier shall be under no liability to make any general average contribution in respect of such Goods.
3. The Merchant warrants the Goods are lawful Goods and undertakes not to deliver to the Carrier any Containers or Goods containing any contraband.
4. If the requirements of Clauses 9(1) and (3) are not complied with, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all loss, damage or expense of whatsoever nature and howsoever arising out of such Goods or Containers being tendered for transportation or delivered to or handled or carried by the Carrier.

10) DECK CARGO AND LIVESTOCK
Goods (not being Goods stowed in Containers other than flats or pallets) which are stated herein to be carried on deck and livestock, whether or not carried on deck, are carried without responsibility on the part of the Carrier for loss or damage of whatsoever nature arising during carriage by sea whether caused by unseaworthiness or negligence or any other cause whatsoever, except that in respect of Goods carried to or from the United States of America Goods are carried on deck at the Merchant's risk as to perils inherent in such carriage but in all other respects subject to COGSA.

11) OPTIONAL STOWAGE
1. The Goods may be stowed by the Carrier in Containers or similar articles of transport used to consolidate Goods.
2. Goods stowed in Containers other than flats or pallets, whether by the Carrier or the Merchant, may be carried on or under deck without notice to the Merchant. Goods (other than livestock) whether carried on deck or under deck shall participate in general average and shall be deemed to be within the definition of Goods for purposes of the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules or COGSA, as the case may be.
3. If Goods not in containers are carried on deck, the Carrier shall so state such carriage on the face hereof. When Goods in containers are stowed on deck, the Carrier shall not be required to specially note, "on deck" carriage on the face of this Bill of Lading, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

12) DESCRIPTION OF GOODS
1. This Bill of Lading shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt by the Carrier in external apparent good order and condition except as otherwise noted of the total number of Containers or other packages or units identified on the face hereof as "Total Number of Containers/Packages received and acknowledged by the Carrier".
2. No representation is made by the Carrier as to the weight, contents, measure, quantity, quality, description, condition, marks, numbers or value of the Goods and the Carrier shall be under no responsibility whatsoever in respect of such description or particulars.
3. Any reference to temperature or the term "apparent good order and condition" when used in the Bill of Lading with reference to Goods which require refrigeration does not mean that the Goods, when received were verified by the Carrier as being at the booked temperature and no reliance should be placed by the Merchant as to the accuracy of such temperature shown on the face of this Bill of Lading.

13) NOTIFICATION AND DELIVERY
1. Except as provided by tariff, any mention herein of notify parties is solely for the Carrier's information, and failure to give notification shall not render the Carrier liable nor relieve the Merchant of any obligation to the Carrier.
2. The Merchant shall take delivery of the Goods within the time provided for in the Carrier's applicable tariff.
3. If the Merchant fails to take delivery of the Goods or part of them upon expiration of the tariff's prescribed free time, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered to the Merchant and the Carrier may with or without notice, but subject to its lien, unpack the Goods if packed in Container and/or store or warehouse the Goods or any part thereof ashore, afloat, in the open or under cover at the risk and expense of the Merchant. Thereupon, the liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods shall cease wholly and the costs of such storage (if paid or payable by the Carrier or any agent or sub-contractor of the Carrier) shall forthwith upon demand be paid by the Merchant to the Carrier.
4. In all circumstances, Carrier shall have no liability whatsoever for the misdelivery of Goods in its actual or constructive possession to persons holding forged or fraudulent documents which reasonably purport to be original Bills of Lading or other original documents entitling them to possession, so long as the Carrier acts innocently and does not intentionally deliver the Goods to persons known by him to have no right to possession under the Bill of Lading.

14. MULTIPLE BILLS OF LADING
1. Goods will only be delivered in a Container to an individual Merchant if all Bills of Lading in respect of the content of the Container have been surrendered authorising delivery to that Merchant at a single Place of Delivery. In the event that this requirement is not fulfilled the Carrier may in its absolute discretion unpack the Container and, in respect of Goods for which Bills of Lading have been surrendered, deliver them to the Merchant. Such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder but will only be effected against payment by the Merchant of the appropriate charges.
2. If multiple Bills of Lading are issued in respect of the contents of a Container, then the particular of the Goods described on the face hereof are said to comprise part of the contents of the Container indicated. If the Carrier is required to deliver the Goods to more than one Merchant and if all or part of the total Goods within the Container consists of bulk Goods or unappropriated Goods, or is or becomes mixed or unmarked or indistinguishable, the Merchants shall take delivery thereof (including any damaged portion) and bear any shortage in such proportions as the Carrier shall in its absolute discretion determine, and such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder. In such event the Carrier shall not be liable for any shortage, loss, or damage of the Goods or other discrepancies of the Goods, which are found upon unpacking of the Container.

15. FREIGHT AND CHARGES
1. Freight and charges (including but not limited to destination charges) shall be deemed fully earned on receipt of the Goods or any part thereof, by the Carrier whether or not such freight and charges are stated on the face of this Bill of Lading or intended to be Prepaid or Collect at destination, and shall be paid in full without offset, counterclaim or deduction and non-returnable in any event. Goods and/or Vessel or other conveyance lost or not lost.
2. The Merchant's attention is drawn to the stipulations concerning currency in which the freight and charges are to be paid, rates of exchange, devaluation and other contingencies relative to freight and charges in the applicable tariffs.
3. The freight has been calculated on the basis of particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Shipper. The Carrier may at any time open any Container or other packages and inspect, reweigh, remeasure or revalue the contents; and if the particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Shipper are incorrect it is agreed that a sum equal to either double the difference between the correct freight and the freight charged or to double the correct freight less the freight charged, whichever sum is the smaller, shall be payable as liquidated damages and not as additional freight or a surcharge to the Carrier, and the Merchant agrees to pay all expenses incurred by the Carrier in ascertaining said particulars.
4. All the persons coming within the definition of Merchant shall be and remain jointly and severally responsible for all freight and charges due under this Bill of Lading, applicable tariffs and/or contracts together with any court costs, expenses and reasonable attorney fees incurred in collecting any sums due to Carrier.

16) LIEN. The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods and any document relating thereto, which shall survive delivery, for all sums earned or due or payable to the Carrier under this and/or any other contract with the Merchant, or on account of the Goods or carriage, storage or handling of the Goods, including but not limited to, general average contributions, freight, delivery, destination, demurrage, detention, port and/or handling charges, to whatever due and/or for the cost of recovering the same and/or any fines or penalties levied against the Carrier by reason of any acts or omissions for which the Merchant is responsible. Carrier may at its sole discretion exercise its lien at any time and at any place, whether the contractual transportation is completed or not. For the purpose of such lien the Carrier shall have the right to sell the Goods by public auction or private treaty without notice to the Merchant at any time and at any place at the sole discretion of the Carrier. The Carrier shall be entitled to claim the difference in the event that the sale proceeds fail to cover the full amount due to the Carrier.

17) MATTERS AFFECTING PERFORMANCE. If at any time the performance of the contract evidenced by this Bill of Lading is or is likely to be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of whatsoever kind which cannot be avoided by the exercise of reasonable endeavours, the Carrier (whether or not the transport is commenced) may without notice to the Merchant treat the performance of this contract as terminated and place the Goods or any part of them at Merchant's disposal at any place or port which the Carrier may deem safe and convenient, whereupon the responsibility of the Carrier in respect of such Goods shall cease. The Carrier shall nevertheless be entitled to full freight and charges on Goods received for transportation, and the Merchant shall pay any additional costs of carriage to and delivery and storage at such place or port.

18) METHODS AND ROUTES OF TRANSPORTATION. The Carrier may at any time and without notice to the Merchant: (a) use any means of transport or storage whatsoever; (b) for any purpose whatsoever tranship the Goods or carry same on a substituted vessel or otherwise transfer the Goods from one conveyance to another even though transhipment or forwarding of the Goods may not have been contemplated or provided for herein; (c) proceed by any route whether or not such route is the nearest or most direct or customary route from the Port of Loading or Place of Receipt to the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery in the Carrier's absolute discretion whether for purposes of taking bunkers or any other purpose; (d) proceed to or stay at any place although in a contrary direction to or out of or beyond the customary or intended or advertised route once or more often in any order for any purpose whatsoever; (e) load and unload the Goods at any port or place (whether or not any such port is named on the face of this Bill of Lading as the Port of Loading or Port of Discharge) and store the Goods at any such place; (f) comply with any orders, directions, or recommendations as to loading, unloading, departure, routes, ports and places of call, stoppages, destination, arrival, discharge, delivery or otherwise given by any government or authority or any person or body acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or authority or having under the terms of the insurance on the conveyance employed by the Carrier the right to give directions; and (g) at the request of the Merchant or otherwise if required to make arrangements for any forwarding conveyance and services, not within the scope of the transport herein contracted for, and in making such arrangements, the Carrier shall be considered solely as agent of the Merchant and without any other responsibility whatsoever. Any action taken or not taken by the Carrier under this Clause 18, or delay resulting therefrom, shall be deemed to be included within the contractual transit and shall not be a deviation.

1. The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods shall arrive at the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery at any particular time or to meet any particular market or use. In no circumstances shall the Carrier be liable for loss or damage due to delay.
2. Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier shall in no circumstances be liable for direct or indirect or consequential loss or damage arising from any other cause. If the Carrier should nevertheless be held legally liable for any such direct or indirect or consequential loss or damage, such liability shall in no event exceed the freight paid for the transport covered by this Bill of Lading.
3. The terms of this Bill of Lading shall govern the responsibility of the Carrier in connection with or arising out of the supply of a Container to the Merchant whether before or after the Goods are received by the Carrier for transportation or delivery to the Merchant.
4. All Containers to be the joint and several responsibility of all the persons coming within the definition of the Merchant and must be redelivered clean and undamaged to a place or point of interchange nominated by the Carrier within the time prescribed in the Carrier's applicable tariffs and contracts, failing which each of such persons are jointly and severally liable for such detention, loss or expense incurred as a result thereof including but not limited to demurrage, container detention charges, the costs of replacement, transportation and repair.

20) INSPECTION OF GOODS
1. The Carrier shall be entitled, but under no obligation, to open any Container at any time and to inspect the contents. If it thereupon appears that the contents or any part thereof cannot safely or properly be carried or carried further, either at all, or without incurring any additional expense or taking any measures in relation to the Container or its contents or any part thereof, the Carrier may at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant abandon the transportation thereof and/or take any measures and/or incur any reasonable additional expense to carry or to continue the carriage or to store the same ashore or afloat under cover or in the open, at any place, which storage shall be deemed to constitute due delivery under this Bill of Lading. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any reasonable additional expense so incurred.
2. The Carrier is not responsible for any damage or loss to the Cargo resulting from inspection by customs or other authorities and Merchant shall be responsible for any costs, fines, or penalties incurred as a result of such inspection or otherwise.

21) VARIATION OF CONTRACT. Merchant agrees that this Bill of Lading constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. There are no understandings to the subject matter of this agreement other than as herein set forth, and any such actual or purported prior to or contemporaneous understandings or communications are hereby abrogated. No servant or agent of the Carrier shall have power to waive or vary any of the terms hereof unless such waiver or variation is in writing and is specifically authorized in writing by the Carrier. Subject to Clause 3, all agreements or freight engagements for the shipment of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

22) GENERAL AVERAGE. General Average shall be adjusted at any port or place at the option of the Carrier in accordance with the York-Antwerp Rules, 1994 and any subsequent modification or re-enactment thereto and shall be applied to Containers and/or Goods loaded on deck or under deck. In the event of accident, danger, damage or disaster before or after the commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever statute, contract or otherwise, the Merchant shall contribute with the Carrier in General Average to the payment of any sacrifice, losses or expense of a General Average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay any salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the Goods. If a salving vessel is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the salving vessel(s) belonged to strangers. The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods for all General Average contribution (including but not limited to salvage) for which the Merchant is responsible and shall be entitled to a cash deposit or other security therefore in a form acceptable to the Carrier. If the Carrier delivers the Goods without obtaining security for general average contribution or such contributions or expense and to provide such cash deposit or other security for the estimated amount of such contributions or expense as the Carrier shall reasonably require.

23) AD VALOREM DECLARATION OF VALUE. The Merchant agrees that higher compensation than that provided for in this Bill of Lading may not be claimed unless the nature and value of the Goods have been declared by the Merchant prior to the commencement of the carriage and inserted in this Bill of Lading in the space captioned "Declared Cargo Value" and extra freight paid on such declared value if required. In such case, the declared value if embodied in the Bill of Lading shall be the basis for calculating the Carrier's liability, (if any), provided that such declared value shall be prima facie evidence, but shall not be conclusive on the Carrier and further provided that such declared value does not exceed the true value of the Goods at destination. Any partial damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

24) LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. The Carrier, the Vessel, her owner(s), operator(s), demise, time, slot and space charterers shall be entitled to the same rights of limitation as are or would be available to the owner of the Vessel under the Brussels Limitation Convention of 1957, the London Limitation Convention of 1976 or any other applicable convention, statute or law, governing the rights of shipowners to limit their liability in accordance with the tonnage or value of the Vessel in the jurisdiction in which any claim is brought under this Bill of Lading.

25) SUB-CONTRACTING AND INDEMNITY
(a) The Carrier shall be entitled to sub-contract the whole or any part of the duties undertaken by the Carrier in this Bill of Lading in relation to the Goods on any terms whatsoever consistent with any applicable law.

(b) Merchant undertakes that no claim or allegation shall be made against any person performing or undertaking such duties (including all servants, agents and sub-contractors of the Carrier) other than the Carrier, which imposes or attempts to impose upon any such person, or any vessel owned by any such person, any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods or the carriage of the Goods from port of loading to port of discharge whether or not arising out of negligence on the part of such person and, if any such claim or allegation should nevertheless be made, the Merchant will indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.

(c) Without prejudice to the Merchant's indemnity obligations herein, the Vessel and every subcontractor of the Carrier of any nature whatsoever (including but not limited to the Participating Carrier, the Vessel, the owner, charterer, operator, Master, officer and crew of the Vessel, and employees, agents, representatives, and all stevedores, terminal operators, watchmen, carpenters, lasher, ship cleaners, surveyors and other independent contractors) shall have the benefit of every right, defence, limitation and liberty of whatsoever nature herein contained or otherwise available to the Carrier as if such provisions were expressly for its benefit, and in entering into this contract, the Carrier, does so not only on its own behalf but also as agent and trustee for such persons or Vessel. The term "subcontractor" as used herein shall include both direct and indirect subcontractors hired by the Carrier to perform the Carrier's own obligations under the Bill of Lading, or the obligations of any person for whom the Carrier acts as agent. An indirect subcontractor is a person with whom the Carrier is not in contractual privity. For the purpose of this Clause 25, the Vessel and all subcontractors shall be deemed to be parties to the contract evidenced by this Bill of Lading.

(d) The provisions of Clause 25(b) shall extend to claims or allegations of whatsoever nature against other persons chartering space on the carrying Vessel.

(e) The Merchant further undertakes that no claim or allegation in respect of the Goods shall be made against the Carrier by any person other than in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading which imposes or attempts to impose upon the Carrier any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods whether or not arising out of negligence on the part of the Carrier and, if any such claim or allegation should nevertheless be made, to indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.

26) NOTICE OF LOSS: TIME BAR
1. Unless notice of loss or damage to the Goods and the general nature of it be given in writing to the Carrier at the Place of Delivery before or at the time of the removal of the Goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under this Bill of Lading, or if the loss or damage be not apparent, within seven consecutive days thereafter, such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the Carrier of the Goods described in this Bill of Lading.
2. Subject to Clause 26(3), the Carrier shall be discharged of all liability under this Bill of Lading unless suit is brought and written notice thereof given to the Carrier within nine months after delivery of the Goods. In the case of total loss of the Goods the period shall begin to run two months after the Goods have been received for transportation.
3. Notwithstanding Clause 26(2), where COGSA, the Hague Rules or Hague-Visby apply by incorporation or by force of law, the Carrier shall be discharged from all liability whatsoever in respect of the Goods, unless suit is brought within one year of their delivery or of the date when they should have been delivered.

27) BOTH-TO-BLAME COLLISION. If the Vessel comes into collision with another vessel as a result of the negligence of the other vessel and any act, neglect or default of the master, mariner, pilot or of the servants of the Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the Vessel, the Merchant undertakes to pay the Carrier or where the Carrier is not the owner and in possession of the carrying Vessel, to pay to the Carrier as trustee for the owner and/or demise charterer of the carrying Vessel, a sum sufficient to indemnify the Carrier and/or the owners and/or demise charterer of the carrying Vessel against all loss or liability to the other or non-carrying vessel or her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of, or damage to, or any claim whatsoever, of the Merchant, paid or payable by the other or non-carrying vessel or her owners to the Merchant and set-off, recouped or recovered by the other or non-carrying vessel or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying Vessel or her owner or demise charterer or carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators or those in charge of any vessel or vessels or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding vessels or objects are at fault in respect of a collision, contact, stranding or other accident.

28) NOTICE TO ENDORSEE AND/OR HOLDER AND/OR TRANSFEREE. By taking up this Bill of Lading, whether by endorsement and/or becoming a holder and/or by transfer hereof and/or by presenting this Bill of Lading to obtain delivery of the Goods herein and/or otherwise, the endorsee/holder/transferee and the Carrier agree that the holder/endorsee/transferee thereupon become a party to a contract of carriage with the carrier on the basis herein.

29) EXCEPTIONS CLAUSE Carrier shall not be liable for any loss, damage, delay or failure in performance hereunder occurring at any time including before loading on or after discharge from the Vessel or during any voyage, arising or resulting from the happening and/or threat and/or after effects of one or more of the following acts of God, act of war, force majeure, quarantine restrictions, embargo, acts of public enemies, thieves, pirates, assailing thieves, hijacking, arrest or restraint of princes, rulers or people, seizure under legal process, act or omission of Shipper, its agent or representative, strikes or lock-outs or stoppage or restraint of labor from whatever cause, partial or general, riots or civil commotions, fire or latent defect.

30) APPLICABLE LAW. This Bill of Lading, the contract contained in and/or evidenced hereby, and the rights and obligations of all parties concerned in connection with the carriage of the Goods hereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and any and all claims, suits, proceedings or disputes howsoever arising in connection with such Bill of Lading, contract, rights and obligations shall be determined in accordance with English law.
If the carriage of Goods hereunder is foreign trade to, from or through a port in the United States or if COGSA shall for any reason whatsoever apply compulsorily to the carriage of the Goods hereunder then this Bill of Lading, the contract contained in and/or evidenced hereby, and the rights and obligations of all parties concerned in connection with the carriage of the Goods hereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with United States law and all claims, suits, proceedings or disputes howsoever arising in connection with such Bill of Lading, contract, rights and obligations shall be determined in accordance with United States law.

31) PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION. The parties agree to fully comply with General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 ("GDPR") and any applicable data protection laws and be bound by the terms available at https://www.oocl.com/eng/resourcecenter/industrylinks/Documents/Framework(A)-Shipper.pdf("Framework") under which the Merchant is the "data controller" and the Carrier is the "data processor" in respect of any personal data provided by the Merchant to the Carrier for the contract of carriage. The Merchant (i) authorises the Carrier to process any personal data provided to the Carrier or which is made available to the Carrier by the Merchant for the purposes of providing service under this contract of carriage and for other purposes including transferring personal data to competent bodies, courts or regulatory authorities, as may be requested; (ii) acknowledges and agrees that the Carrier may transfer the personal data to its affiliates, employees, agents, delegates, sub-processors or competent authorities and to a country outside of the European Economic Area and the United Kingdom in accordance with such latest applicable Standard Contractual Clauses as set out in the Framework and/or other available data transfer solutions.

NOTICE CONCERNING CARRIERS' LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

If the carriage involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, the Montreal Convention or the Warsaw Convention may be applicable and, in most cases, limit the liability of the Carrier in respect of loss of, damage or delay to cargo. Depending on the applicable regime, and unless a higher value is declared, liability of the Carrier may be limited to 22 Special Drawing Rights unless a greater amount is specified in the Carrier's conditions of carriage.

CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT

1. In this contract and the Notices appearing hereon:

   CARRIER includes the air carrier issuing this air waybill and all carriers that carry or undertake to carry the cargo or perform any other services related to such carriage. SPECIAL DRAWING RIGHT (SDR) is a Special Drawing Right as defined by the International Monetary Fund.

   WARSAW CONVENTION means whichever of the following instruments is applicable to the contract of carriage:

   The Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules Relating to International Carriage by Air, signed at Warsaw, 12 October 1929;

   That Convention as amended at The Hague on 28 September 1955;

   That Convention as amended at The Hague 1955 and by Montreal Protocol No. 1，2, or 4 (1975) as the case may be.

   MONTREAL CONVENTION means the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules for International Carriage by Air, done at Montreal on 28 May 1999.

2. 2.1 Carriage is subject to the rules relating to liability established by the Warsaw Convention or the Montreal Convention unless such carriage is not "international carriage，" as defined by the applicable Conventions.

   2.2 To the extent not in conflict with the foregoing, carriage and other related Services performed by each Carrier are subject to:

   2.2.1 Applicable laws and government regulations;

   2.2.2 provisions contained in the air waybill,Carrier's conditions of carriage and related rules,regulations, and timetables (but not the times of departure and arrival stated therein) and applicable tariffs of such Carrier, which are made part hereof, and which may be inspected at any airports or other cargo sales offices from which it operates regular Services. When carriage is to/from the USA, the shipper and the consignee are entitled, upon request, to receive a free copy of the Carrier's conditions of carriage. The Carrier's conditions of carriage include, but are not limited to:

   2.2.2.1 Limits on the Carrier's liability for loss, damage or delay of goods, including fragile or perishable goods;

   2.2.2.2 claims restrictions, including time periods within which shippers or consignees must file a claim or bring an action against the Carrier for its acts or omissions, or those of its agents;

   2.2.2.3 Rights, if any, of the Carrier to change the terms of the contract;

   2.2.2.4 Rules about Carrier's right to refuse to carry;

   2.2.2.5 rights of the Carrier and limitations concerning delay or failure to perform service, including schedule changes, substitution of alternate Carrier or aircraft and rerouting.

3. The agreed stopping places (which may be altered by Carrier in case of necessity) are those places, except the place of departure and place of destination, set forth on the face hereof or shown in Carrier's timetables as scheduled stopping places for the route. Carriage to be performed hereunder by several successive Carriers is regarded as a single operation.

4. For carriage to which the Montreal Convention does not apply, Carrier's liability limitation for cargo lost, damaged or delayed shall be 22 SDRs per kilogram unless a greater per kilogram monetary limit is provided in any applicable Convention or in Carrier's tariffs or general conditions of carriage.

5. 5.1 Except when the Carrier has extended credit to the consignee without the written consent of the shipper, the shipper guarantees payment of all charges for the carriage due in accordance with Carrier's tariff, conditions of carriage and related regulations, applicable laws (including national laws implementing the Warsaw Convention and the Montreal Convention), government regulations, orders and requirements.

   5.2 When no part of the consignment is delivered, a claim with respect to such consignment will be considered even though transportation charges thereon are unpaid.

6. 6.1 For cargo accepted for carriage, the Warsaw Convention and the Montreal Convention permit shipper to increase the limitation of liability by declaring a higher value for carriage and paying a supplemental charge if required.

   6.2 In carriage to which neither the Warsaw Convention nor the Montreal Convention applies Carrier shall, in accordance with the procedures set forth in its general conditions of carriage and applicable tariffs,permit shipper to increase the limitation of liability by declaring a higher value for carriage and paying a supplemental charge if so required.

7. 7.1 In cases of loss of, damage or delay to part of the cargo, the weight to be taken into account in determining Carrier's limit of liability shall be only the weight of the package or packages concerned.

   7.2 Notwithstanding any other provisions, for "foreign air transportation" as defined by the U.S. Transportation Code:

   7.2.1 in the case of loss of, damage or delay to a shipment, the weight to be used in determining Carrier's limit of liability shall be the weight which is used to determine the charge for carriage of such shipment; and

   7.2.2 in the case of loss of, damage or delay to a part of a shipment, the shipment weight in 7.2.1 shall be prorated to the packages covered by the same air waybill whose value is affected by the loss, damage or delay. The weight applicable in the case of loss or damage to one or more articles in a package shall be the weight of the entire package.

8 Any exclusion or limitation of liability applicable to Carrier shall apply to Carrier's agents, employees, and representatives and to any person whose aircraft or equipment is used by Carrier for carriage and such person's agents, employees and representatives.

9. Carrier undertakes to complete the carriage with reasonable dispatch. Where permitted by applicable laws, tariffs and government regulations, Carrier may use alternative carriers, aircraft or modes of transport without notice but with due regard to the interests of the shipper. Carrier is authorised by the shipper to select the routing and all intermediate stopping places that it deems appropriate or to change or deviate from the routing shown on the face hereof.

10. Receipt by the person entitled to delivery of the cargo without complaint shall be prima facie evidence that the cargo has been delivered in good condition and in accordance with the contract of carriage.

    10.1 In the case of loss of, damage or delay to cargo a written complaint must be made to Carrier by the person entitled to delivery. Such complaint must be made:

    10.1.1 in the case of damage to the cargo, immediately after discovery of the damage and at the latest within 14 days from the date of receipt of the cargo;

    10.1.2 in the case of delay, within 21 days from the date on which the cargo was placed at the disposal of the person entitled to delivery.

    10.1.3 in the case of non-delivery of the cargo, within 120 days from the date of issue of the air waybill, or if an air waybill has not been issued, within 120 days from the date of receipt of the cargo for transportation by the Carrier.

    10.2 Such complaint may be made to the Carrier whose air waybill was used, or to the first Carrier or to the last Carrier or to the Carrier, which performed the carriage during which the loss, damage or delay took place.

    10.3 Unless a written complaint is made within the time limits specified in 10.1 no action may be brought against Carrier.

    10.4 Any rights to damages against Carrier shall be extinguished unless an action is brought within two years from the date of arrival at the destination, or from the date on which the aircraft ought to have arrived, or from the date on which the carriage stopped.

11. Shipper shall comply with all applicable laws and government regulations of any country to or from which the cargo may be carried, including those relating to the packing, carriage or delivery of the cargo, and shall furnish such information and attach such documents to the air waybill as may be necessary to comply with such laws and regulations. Carrier is not liable to shipper and shipper shall indemnify Carrier for loss or expense due to shipper's failure to comply with this provision.

12. No agent, employee or representative of Carrier has authority to alter, modify or waive any provisions of this contract.

13. Shipper, consignee, and bill-to party are jointly and severally liable for all charges related to this shipment. Charges may be reversed to the responsible parties if shipment is refused, or payment is not made by the original bill-to party. Carrier maintains its right to lien cargo for all advances, claims, costs, freight charges, duties, taxes, demurrage, money due and payable to the Carrier in accordance with applicable national law or convention.

14. If any clause or a part thereof is held to be invalid, the validity of this air waybill and the remaining clauses or a part thereof shall not be affected.

"Package" where a Container is loaded with more than one package or unit, the packages or other shipping units enumerated on the face of this bill of lading as packed in such Container and entered in the box on the face hereof entitled "Total number of Containers or Packages received by the Carrier" are each deemed a Package.
"Person" includes an individual, corporation or other legal entity.
"Port to Port Shipment" arises if the Carriage is not Combined Transport.
"SOLAS" means the International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea of the International Maritime Organization as supplemented by the Guidelines regarding the verified gross mass of a container carrying cargo (MSC.1/Circ.1475) published by the International Maritime Organization, as amended from time to time.
"Sub-Contractor" includes, but is not limited to, owners, charterers and operators of Vessels (other than the Carrier), stevedores, terminal and/or groupage operators, road, rail and air transport operators, warehousemen, longshoremen, customs inspection stations, port authorities, pilots and any independent contractor employed by the Carrier in performance of the Carriage and any direct or indirect sub-contractors, servants or agents thereof, whether in direct contractual privity with the Carrier or not.
"Terminal Operators" means any persons who provide port storage or handling services.
"Terms and Conditions" means all terms, rights, defences, provisions, conditions, exceptions, limitations and liberties herein
"Vessel" means any waterborne craft used in the Carriage under this bill of lading including but not limited to a feeder vessel or ocean vessel.

2 CARRIER'S TARIFF

The provisions of the Carrier's applicable tariff, if any, are incorporated herein. Particular attention is drawn to the provisions therein, if any, relating to free storage time and to container and vehicle demurrage. Copies of such provisions are obtainable from the Carrier or his agents upon request or, where applicable, from a government body with whom the tariff has been filed. In the case of inconsistency between this bill of lading and the applicable tariff, this bill of lading shall prevail.

3 WARRANTY

The Merchant warrants that:
(A) in agreeing to the Terms and Conditions hereof he is or is the agent of and has the authority of the Person owning or entitled to the possession of the Goods and this bill of lading or any Person who has a present or future interest in the Goods and this bill of lading; and
(B) the description and particulars of the Goods and the marks, numbers, quantity and weight as set out on the face of this bill of lading (including those required to be provided by or on behalf of the Merchant under clause 7(5) below) have been verified by the Merchant on receipt of this bill of lading as reflecting the information provided by it or on its behalf to the Carrier and are complete and accurate.

4 NEGOTIABILITY AND TITLE TO THE GOODS

(1) This bill of lading shall be non-negotiable unless made out "to order" in which event it shall be negotiable and shall constitute title to the Goods and the Holder shall be entitled to receive or to transfer the Goods herein described.
(2) This bill of lading shall be prima facie evidence of the taking in charge by the Carrier of the Goods as herein described. However proof to the contrary shall not be admissible when this bill of lading has been negotiated or transferred for valuable consideration to a third party acting in good faith.

5 CERTAIN RIGHTS AND IMMUNITIES FOR THE CARRIER AND OTHER PERSONS

(1) The Carrier shall be entitled to sub-contract on any terms whatsoever the whole or any part of the Carriage.
(2) The Merchant undertakes that no claim or allegation shall be made against any Person or Vessel whatsoever, other than the Carrier, including, but not limited to, the Carrier's servants or agents any independent contractor and his servants or agents, and all others by whom the whole or any part of the Carriage, whether directly or indirectly, is procured, performed or undertaken, which imposes or attempts to impose upon any such Person or Vessel any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods or the Carriage of the Goods, whether or not arising in contract, bailment, tort, negligence, breach of express or implied warranty or otherwise; and if any claim or allegation should nevertheless be made to Indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof. Without prejudice to the foregoing every such Person and Vessel shall have the benefit of all provisions herein benefiting the Carrier including clause 20 hereof, the jurisdiction and law clause, as if such Terms and Conditions (including Clause 20 hereof) were expressly for his benefit and in entering into this contract the Carrier, to the extent of these provisions, does so not only on his own behalf but also as agent or trustee for such Persons and Vessels and such Persons and Vessels shall to this extent be or be deemed to be parties to this contract. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, if the Carriage is Port to Port, Terminal Operators shall have the benefit of all provisions herein benefiting the Carrier, including the exceptions and limitations set out in clause 6(1) and 6(3) hereof, in relation to any port storage or handling services provided whether before loading or after discharge and regardless of whether the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods has yet to commence or has ceased.
(3) The Merchant shall Indemnify the Carrier against:
(A) any claim or liability (and any expense arising therefrom) arising from the Carriage of the Goods insofar as such claim or liability exceeds the Carrier's liability under this bill of lading; and
(B) the consequences of (i) any delay in the provision of gross mass information which is to be provided by or on behalf of the Merchant under clause 7(5) below and/or (ii) any such information being inaccurate or incomplete.
(4) The defences and limits of liability provided for in this bill of lading shall apply in any action against the Carrier whether the action be found in contract, bailment, tort, breach of express or implied warranty or otherwise.

6 CARRIER'S RESPONSIBILITY

(1) PORT TO PORT SHIPMENT
(A) Where the Carriage is Port to Port, then the liability (if any) of the Carrier for loss or damage to the Goods occurring between the time of loading at the Port of Loading and the time of discharge at the Port of Delivery shall be determined in accordance with any national law making the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, COGSA or any other rules compulsorily applicable to this bill of lading or in any other case in accordance with the Hague Rules Article 1-8 inclusive (excluding Article 3 rule 8) only.
(B) The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for loss or damage to the Goods while in its actual or constructive possession before loading or after discharge, howsoever caused. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in case and to the extent that any applicable compulsory law provides to the contrary, the Carrier shall have the benefit of every right, defence, limitation and liberty in the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, COGSA or any other rules as applied by Clause 6(1)(A) during such additional compulsory period of responsibility, notwithstanding that the loss or damage did not occur at sea.
(C) If COGSA applies then the provisions stated in COGSA shall govern the Carrier's liability throughout the Carriage by sea and the entire time that the Goods are in the actual custody of the Carrier or his Sub-Contractor at the container yard, freight station or area immediately adjacent to the sea terminal before loading onto the vessel or after discharge there from as the case may be. Where the Merchant requests the Carrier to procure Carriage by an inland Carrier in the United States of America, such carriage shall be procured by the Carrier as agent only to the Merchant and such carriage shall be subject to the inland Carrier's contract tariff. If, for any reason, the Carrier is denied the right to act as agent only at these times, his liability for loss, damage or delay to the Goods shall be determined in accordance with Clause 6(2) hereof.
(D) If the Goods are discharged at a Port other than the Port of Discharge or (save in the United States of America) at a Place of Delivery instead of the Port of Discharge, and the Carrier in its absolute discretion agrees to a request to such effect, such further Carriage will be undertaken on the basis that the Terms and Conditions are to apply to such Carriage as if the ultimate destination agreed with the Merchant had been entered on the reverse side of this bill of lading as the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery.
(2) COMBINED TRANSPORT
Save as is otherwise provided in this bill of lading, the Carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to the Goods occurring from the time when he receives the Goods into his charge until the time of delivery to the extent set out below:
(A) Where the stage of Carriage where the loss or damage occurred cannot be proved by the Merchant:
(1) The Carrier shall be relieved from liability where such loss or damage was caused by:
(a) an act or omission of the Merchant or Person acting on behalf of the Merchant other than the Carrier, his servant, agent or Sub-Contractor;
(b) compliance with the instructions of a Person entitled to give them;
(c) the lack or insufficiency of or defective condition of packing in the case of Goods which, by their nature are liable to wastage or to be damaged when not packed or when not properly packed;
(d) handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the Goods by or on behalf of the Merchant;
(e) inherent vice of the Goods;
(f) strikes or lock outs or stoppages or restraints of labour from whatsoever causes whether partial or general;
(g) fire, unless caused by the actual fault or privity of the Carrier; for which the Merchant shall have the burden of proof,
(h) a nuclear incident;
(j) any cause or event which the Carrier could not avoid as a consequence whereof he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.
(2) The burden of proof that the loss or damage was due to one or more of the causes or events specified in this Clause 6(2)(A) will rest upon the Carrier. Save that if the Carrier establishes that, in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the causes or events specified in Clause 6(2)(A)(1)(c), (d) or (e), it shall be presumed that it was so caused. The Merchant shall, however, be entitled to prove that the loss or damage was not, in fact, caused either wholly or partly by one or more of these causes or events.
(B) Where the stage of Carriage where the loss or damage occurred can be proved by the Merchant:
(1) The liability of the Carrier shall be determined by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law of the country, which provisions:
(a) Cannot be departed from by private contract to the detriment of the Merchant, and
(b) Would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of Carriage where the loss or damage occurred and had received as evidence thereof any particular document which must be issued in order to make such international convention or national law applicable.
(2) Where 6(2)(b)(1) above does not apply, any liability of the Carrier shall be determined by 6(1) if the loss or damage occurred during a sea leg or by 6(2)(A) in all other cases.
(3) GENERAL PROVISIONS
(A) Compensation.
Subject to the Carrier's right to limit liability as provided for within this bill of lading, the Carrier's liability shall be calculated by reference to the FOB/FCA invoice value plus freight and insurance if paid. If there is no such invoice value, the value of the Goods shall be determined according to the value of the Goods at the place and time of delivery to the Merchant or at the place and time when they should have been so delivered.
(B) Package or Shipping Unit Limitation
(i) Where the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby rules, COGSA or any other rules apply under this Bill of Lading by national law or pursuant to Clause 6(2)(B)(1) the Carrier's liability shall in no event exceed the amounts provided in the applicable national law or in the law thereby made applicable.
(ii) If only the Hague Rules Articles 1-8 (excluding Article 3, Rule 8) apply pursuant to Clause 6(1)(A), Clause 6(1)(B) or Clause 6(2)(B)(2) then the Carrier's maximum liability shall in no event exceed US$500 per package or unit.
(iii) Where Carriage includes Carriage to, from or through a port in the United States of America and COGSA applies pursuant to Clause 6(1)(A) or 6(2)(B)(1) neither the Carrier nor the Vessel shall in any event be liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the Carriage of the Goods in an amount exceeding US$500 per Package or customary freight unit.
(iv) In all other cases compensation shall not exceed the limitation of liability of US$2.00 per kilo of gross weight of the Goods lost, damaged or in respect of which the claim arises.
(C) Ad Valorem: Declared Value of Package or Shipping Unit
The Carrier's liability may be increased to a higher value by a declaration in writing of the value of the Goods by the shipper upon delivery to the Carrier of the Goods for shipment, such higher value being inserted on the front of this bill of lading in the space provided and, if required by the Carrier, extra freight paid. In such case, if the actual value of the Goods shall exceed such declared value, the value shall nevertheless be deemed to be the declared value and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the declared value and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.
(D) Delay, Consequential Loss
Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier shall in no circumstances be liable for direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage caused by delay or any other cause whatsoever and howsoever caused. Without prejudice to the foregoing, if the Carrier is found liable for delay, liability shall be limited to the freight applicable to the relevant stage of the transport.
(E) Notice of Loss or Damage
The Carrier shall be deemed prima facie to have delivered the Goods as described in this bill of lading unless notice of loss of, or damage to, the Goods, indicating the general nature of such lost or damage, shall have been given in writing to the Carrier or to his representative at the place of delivery before or at the time of removal of the Goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under this bill of lading or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within three consecutive days thereafter.
(F) Time-bar
The Carrier shall be discharged of all liability whatsoever in respect of the Goods unless suit it brought in the proper forum and written notice thereof received by the Carrier: (i) within nine months in respect of Combined Transport or (ii) within 12 months in respect of Port-to-Port Shipment after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered. In the event that such time period shall be found contrary to any convention or law compulsorily applicable, the period prescribed by such convention or law shall then apply but in that circumstance only.

7 MERCHANTS RESPONSIBILITY

(1) The description and particulars of the Goods set out on the face hereof are furnished by the Merchant and the Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the description and particulars including, but not limited to, weight, content, measure, quantity, quality, condition, marks, numbers and value are correct.
(2) The Merchant shall comply with all applicable laws, regulations and requirements (including but not limited to any imposed at any time before or during the Carriage relating to anti-terrorism measures) of customs, port and other authorities and shall bear and pay all duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses and losses (including without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, freight for any additional Carriage undertaken) incurred or suffered by reason thereof or by reason of any illegal, incorrect or insufficient marking, numbering or addressing of the Goods.
(3) The Merchant undertakes that the Goods are packed in a manner adequate to withstand the ordinary risks of Carriage having regard to their nature and in compliance with all laws, regulations and requirements which may be applicable.
(4) No Goods which are or may become dangerous (whether or not so listed in codes), inflammable, damaging, injurious (including radioactive materials), noxious or which are or may become liable to damage any property or Person whatsoever shall be tendered to the Carrier for Carriage without:
(a) the Carrier's express consent in writing; and
(b) the Container and/or other covering in which the Goods are to be transported and/or the Goods themselves being distinctly marked on the outside so as to indicate the nature and character of any such Goods and so as to comply with all applicable laws, regulations and/or requirements. If any such Goods are delivered to the Carrier without such written consent and/or marking or if in the opinion of the Carrier the Goods are or are liable to become of a dangerous, inflammable and/or damaging nature, the same may at any time be unloaded, destroyed, disposed of, abandoned, or rendered harmless without compensation to the Merchant and without prejudice to the Carrier's right to Charges.
(5) The Merchant shall provide the Carrier with the total gross mass (established using calibrated and certified equipment) of each packed Container (FCL) or each package of Goods (LCL) carried pursuant to this bill of lading in accordance with SOLAS and within the deadlines established by the Carrier. The Merchant acknowledges and agrees that the Carrier will rely on the accuracy and timeliness of such gross mass information and use such information to comply with its obligations to Sub-contractors in accordance with SOLAS.
(6) In the event of any non-compliance by the Merchant with clause 7(5) or where the Carrier reasonably believes the verified gross mass information provided by or on behalf of the Merchant to be inaccurate or incomplete, the Carrier may, at its discretion, (a) establish the total gross mass at the Merchant's cost using calibrated and certified equipment of each packed Container (FCL) or each package of Goods (LCL) carried pursuant to this bill of lading in accordance with SOLAS and the deadlines established by the Carrier shall continue to apply; and (b) without notice and without liability to the Merchant (i) refuse to load the Goods, or, (ii) if loaded, arrange at the Merchant's risk and expense for the Goods to be landed and stored, and such landing and storage shall be deemed to constitute due delivery of the Goods under this bill of lading, the Carrier in such circumstances being released from all obligations and liabilities in respect of the carriage of the Goods. In the event that the Goods are carried to destination, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any and all expense, cost, loss, damage, claim or liability which may arise as a consequence of any non-compliance by the Merchant of clause 7(5) or of the gross mass information provided being inaccurate or incomplete.
(7) The Merchant shall be liable for the loss, damage, contamination, soiling, detention or demurrage before, during and after the Carriage of property (including, but not limited to, Containers) of the Carrier or any person or Vessel (other than the Merchant) referred to in Clause 5(2) above caused by the Merchant or any person acting on his behalf or for which the Merchant is otherwise responsible.
(8) The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, claim, liability or expense whatsoever arising from any breach of the provisions of this clause 7 or from any cause in connection with the Goods for which the Carrier is not responsible.

8 CONTAINERS

(1) Goods may be consolidated by the Carrier in or on Containers and Goods may be consolidated with other Goods.
(2) The terms of this bill of lading shall govern the responsibility of the Carrier in connection with or arising out of the supply of a Container to the Merchant, whether supplied before or after the Goods are received by the Carrier or delivered to the Merchant.
(3) If a container has been consolidated by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A) the Carrier shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the Goods:
(i) caused by the manner in which the Container has been stuffed;
(ii) caused by the unsuitability of the Goods for carriage in Container actually used;
(iii) caused by the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container actually used provided that where the Container has been supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier, this paragraph (iii) shall only apply if the unsuitability or defective condition would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time when the Container was stuffed;
(iv) if the Container is not sealed at the commencement of the Carriage except where the Carrier has agreed to seal the Container.
(B) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, claim, liability or expense whatsoever arising from one or more of the matters covered by Clause 8(3)(A) above.
(4) Where the Carrier is instructed to provide a Container, in the absence of a written request to the contrary accepted by the Carrier, the Carrier is not under an obligation to provide a Container of any particular type or quality.

9 TEMPERATURE CONTROLLED CARGO

(1) The Merchant undertakes not to tender for Carriage any Goods which require temperature control without previously giving written notice (and filling in the box on the front of this bill of lading if this bill of lading has been prepared by the Merchant or a person acting on his behalf) of their nature and particular temperature range to be maintained and in the case of a temperature controlled Container Consolidated by or on behalf of the Merchant further undertakes that the Container has been properly pre-cooled, that the Goods have been properly Consolidated in the Container and that its thermostatic controls have been properly set by the Merchant before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier.
(2) If the above requirements are not complied with the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to the Goods caused by such non-compliance.
(3) The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to the Goods arising from defects, derangement, breakdown, stoppage of the temperature controlling machinery, plant, insulation or any apparatus of the Container, provided that the Carrier shall before or at the beginning of the Carriage exercise due diligence to maintain the refrigerated Container in an efficient state.

10 INSPECTION OF GOODS

The Carrier or any Person authorised by the Carrier shall be entitled, but under no obligation, to open and/or scan any Container or package at any time and to inspect the contents. If it appears at any time that the Goods cannot safely or properly be carried, or carried further, either at all or without incurring any additional expense or taking measures in relation to the Container or Goods, the Carrier may without notice to the Merchant (but as his agent only) take any measures and/or incur any reasonable additional expense to carry or continue the Carriage thereof, and/or to sell or dispose of the Goods and/or to abandon the Carriage and/or to store the Goods ashore or afloat, under cover or in the open, at any place, whichever the Carrier in his absolute discretion considers most appropriate, which sale, disposal, abandonment or storage shall be deemed to constitute due delivery under this bill of lading. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any reasonable additional expense so incurred. The Carrier in exercising the liberties contained in this clause shall not be under any obligation to take any particular measures and shall not be liable for any loss, delay or damage howsoever arising from any action or lack of action under this clause.

11 METHODS AND ROUTE OF TRANSPORTATION

(1) The Carrier may at any time and without notice to the Merchant:
(a) use any means of transport or storage whatsoever;
(b) load or carry the Goods on any Vessel whether named on the front hereof or not;
(c) transfer the Goods from one conveyance to another including transshipping or carrying the same on a Vessel other than the Vessel named on the front hereof or by any other means of transport whatsoever and even though transhipment of forwarding of the Goods may not have been contemplated or provided for herein;
(d) at any place unpack and remove Goods which have been stuffed in or on a Container and forward the same in any manner whatsoever;
(e) proceed at any speed and by any route in his discretion (whether or not the nearest or most direct or customary or advertised route) and proceed to or stay at any place whatsoever once or more often and in any order;
(f) load or unload the Goods from any conveyance at any place (whether or not the place is a port named on the front hereof as the intended Port of Loading or intended Port of Discharge);
(g) comply with any orders or recommendations given by any government or authority or any Person or body acting or purporting to act as or on behalf of such government or authority or having under the terms of the insurance on the conveyance employed by the Carrier the right to give orders or directions;
(h) permit the Vessel to proceed with or without pilots, to tow or be towed or to be dry-docked;
(j) permit the Vessel to carry livestock, Goods of all kinds, dangerous or otherwise, contraband, explosives, munitions or warlike stores and sail armed or unarmed.
(2) The liberties set out in Clause 11(1) above may be invoked by the Carrier for any purposes whatsoever whether or not connected with the Carriage of the Goods, including but not limited to loading or unloading the goods, bunkering, undergoing repairs, adjusting instruments, picking up or landing any Persons, including but not limited to Persons involved with the operation or maintenance of the Vessel and assisting Vessels in all situations. Anything done in accordance with Clause 11(1) above or any delay arising therefrom shall be deemed to be within the contractual Carriage and shall not be a deviation of whatsoever nature or degree.

12 DECK CARGO AND LIVESTOCK

(1) Goods of any description whether containerised or not may be stowed on or under deck without notice to the Merchant unless on the front of this bill of lading it is specifically stipulated the Containers or Goods will be carried under deck and such stowage shall not be a deviation of whatsoever nature or degree. If carried on deck, the Carrier shall not be required to note, mark or stamp the bill of lading carried on deck, the Carrier shall not be required to note, mark or stamp on the bill of lading any statement of such on deck carriage Subject to Clause 12(2) below, such Goods whether carried on deck or under deck shall participate in General Average and such Goods (other than livestock) shall be deemed to be within the definition of Goods for the purposes of the Hague Rules or any legislation making such rules COGSA or the Hague-Visby Rules compulsorily applicable to this bill of lading.
(2) Notwithstanding Clause 12(1) above, Goods which are carried on deck (and livestock, whether or not carried on deck) are carried at the Merchant's risk and without responsibility on the part of the Carrier for expenses, delays, loss or damage of whatsoever nature arising during carriage by sea or inland waterway whether caused by unseaworthiness or negligence or any other cause whatsoever and howsoever arising. The Merchant shall Indemnify the Carrier against all and any extra cost incurred for any reason whatsoever in connection with (a) carriage of livestock and/or (b) carriage of Goods which are stated on the front of this bill of lading to be carried on deck and are so carried.

13 DELIVERY OF THE GOODS

(1) If at any time the Carriage is or is likely to be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of any kind (including the condition of the Goods), whensoever and howsoever arising (whether or not the Carriage has commenced) the Carrier may:
(A) without notice to the Merchant abandon the Carriage of the Goods and where reasonably possible place the Goods or any part of them at the Merchant's disposal at any place which the Carrier may deem safe and convenient, whereupon delivery shall be deemed to have been made and the responsibility of the Carrier in respect of such Goods shall cease;
(B) without prejudice to the Carrier's right subsequently to abandon the Carriage under Clause 13(1)(A) above, continue the Carriage. In any event the Carrier shall be entitled to full Charges on Goods received for Carriage and the Merchant shall pay any additional costs resulting from the above mentioned circumstances.
(2) The liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods shall cease on the delivery or other disposition of the Goods in accordance with the orders or recommendations given by any government or authority or any Person acting or purporting to act as or on behalf of such government or authority. This shall amount to due delivery to the Merchant.
(3) Any mention herein of parties to be notified of the arrival of the Goods is solely for information of the Carrier, and failure to give such notification shall not involve the Carrier in any liability nor relieve the Merchant of any obligation thereunder.
(4) If delivery of the Goods or any part thereof is not taken by the Merchant at the time and place when and where the Carrier is entitled to call upon the Merchant to take delivery thereof, the Carrier shall be entitled and without prejudice to any other rights that he may have against the Merchant without notice to remove from a Container the Goods or that part thereof if Consolidated in or on a Container and to store the Goods or that part thereof ashore, afloat, in the open or under cover at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant and the costs of such storage (if paid or payable by the Carrier or any agent or Sub-Contractor of the Carrier) shall forthwith upon demand be paid by the Merchant to the Carrier. Such storage shall constitute due delivery hereunder, and thereupon the liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods or that part thereof shall cease.

14 BOTH-TO-BLAME COLLISION

If the Vessel on which the Goods are carried (the carrying Vessel) comes into collision with any other Vessel or object (the non-carrying Vessel or object) as a result of the negligence of the noncarrying Vessel or object or the owner of, charterer of or Person responsible for the non-carrying Vessel or object, the Merchant undertakes to Indemnify the Carrier against all claims by or liability to (and any expense arising therefrom) any Vessel or Person in respect of any loss of, or damage to, or any claim whatsoever of the Merchant paid or payable to the Merchant by the non-carrying Vessel or object or the owner of, charterer of or Person responsible for the non-carrying vessel or object and set-off, recouped or recovered by such Vessel, object or Person(s) against the Carrier, the carrying Vessel or her owners or charterers.

15 GENERAL AVERAGE

(1) The Carrier may declare General Average which shall be adjustable according to the
(2) York/Antwerp Rules of 1974 at any place at the option of the Carrier and the Amended Jason Clause as approved by BIMCO is to be considered as incorporated herein and the Merchant shall provide such security as may be required by the Carrier in this connection.
(3) Notwithstanding (1) above, the Merchant shall Indemnify the Carrier in respect of any claim (and any expense arising therefrom) of a General Average nature which may be made on the Carrier and shall provide such security as may be required by the Carrier in this connection.
(4) The Carrier shall be under no obligation to take any steps whatsoever to collect security for General Average contributions due to the Merchant.

16 CHARGES

(1) Charges shall be deemed fully earned on receipt of the Goods by the Carrier and shall be paid and non-returnable in any event.
(2) The Charges have been calculated on the basis of particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant. The Carrier shall be entitled to production of the commercial invoice for the Goods or true copy thereof and to inspect, reweigh, remeasure and revalue the Goods and if the particulars are found by the Carrier to be incorrect the Merchant shall pay the Carrier the correct Charges (credit being given for the Charges charged) and the costs incurred by the Carrier in establishing the correct particulars.
(3) All Charges shall be paid without any set-off, counter-claim, deduction or stay of execution.
(4) Despite the acceptance by the Carrier of instructions to collect freight, charges or other expenses from any other person in respect of the transport under this bill of lading, the Merchant shall remain responsible for such monies on receipt of evidence of demand and the absence of payment for whatever reason.

17 LIEN

The Carrier shall have a lien on Goods and any documents relating thereto for all sums whatsoever due at any time to the Carrier under this contract and for General Average contributions to whomsoever due. The Carrier shall also have a lien against the Merchant on the Goods and any documents relating thereto for all sums due from the Merchant to the Carrier under any other contract. The Carrier may exercise his lien at any time and at any place in his sole discretion, whether the contractual Carriage is completed or not. In any event any lien shall (a) survive the delivery of the Goods and (b) extend to cover the cost of recovering any sums due and for that purpose the Carrier shall have the right to sell the Goods and documents by public auction or private treaty, without notice to the Merchant and at the Merchant's expense and without any liability towards the Merchant.

18 VARIATION OF THE CONTRACT

No servant or agent of the Carrier shall have power to waive or vary any of the terms hereof unless such waiver or variation is in writing and is specifically authorised or ratified in writing by a director or officer of the Carrier who has the actual authority of the Carrier to waive or vary.

19 PARTIAL INVALIDITY

If any provision in this bill of lading is held to be invalid or unenforceable by any Court or regulatory or self regulatory agency or body, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision. The validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected thereby and this bill of lading contract shall be carried out as if such invalid or unenforceable provision were not contained herein.

20 JURISDICTION AND LAW

The contract evidenced by or contained in this Bill of Lading is governed by the law of Hong Kong and any claim or dispute arising hereunder or in connection herewith shall be determined by the Courts in Hong Kong and no other Court.

NOTICE CONCERNING CARRIERS' LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

If the carriage involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, the Montreal Convention or the Warsaw Convention may be applicable to the liability of the Carrier in respect of loss of, damage or delay to cargo. Carrier's limitation of liability in accordance with those Conventions shall be as set forth in subparagraph 4 unless a higher value is declared.

CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT

1. In this contract and the Notices appearing hereon:

CARRIER includes the air carrier issuing this air waybill and all carriers that carry or undertake to carry the cargo or perform any other services related to such carriage.

SPECIAL DRAWING RIGHT (SDR) is a Special Drawing Right as defined by the International Monetary Fund.

WARSAW CONVENTION means whichever of the following instruments is applicable to the contract of carriage:

the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules Relating to International Carriage by Air, signed at Warsaw, 12 October 1929;

that Convention as amended at The Hague on 28 September 1955;

that Convention as amended at The Hague 1955 and by Montreal Protocol No. 1, 2, or 4 (1975) as the case may be.

MONTREAL CONVENTION means the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules for International Carriage by Air, done at Montreal on 28 May 1999.

2./2.1 Carriage is subject to the rules relating to liability established by the Warsaw Convention or the Montreal Convention unless such carriage is not “international carriage” as defined by the applicable Conventions.

2.2 To the extent not in conflict with the foregoing, carriage and other related services performed by each Carrier are subject to:

2.2.1 applicable laws and government regulations;

2.2.2 provisions contained in the air waybill, Carrier’s conditions of carriage and related rules, regulations, and timetables (but not the times of departure and arrival stated therein) and applicable tariffs of such Carrier, which are made part hereof, and which may be inspected at any airports or other cargo sales offices from which it operates regular services. When carriage is to/from the USA, the shipper and the consignee are entitled, upon request, to receive a free copy of the Carrier’s conditions of carriage. The Carrier’s conditions of carriage include, but are not limited to:

2.2.2.1 limits on the Carrier’s liability for loss, damage or delay of goods, including fragile or perishable goods;

2.2.2.2 claims restrictions, including time periods within which shippers or consignees must file a claim or bring an action against the Carrier for its acts or omissions, or those of its agents;

2.2.2.3 rights, if any, of the Carrier to change the terms of the contract;

2.2.2.4 rules about Carrier’s right to refuse to carry;

2.2.2.5 rights of the Carrier and limitations concerning delay or failure to perform service, including schedule changes, substitution of alternate Carrier or aircraft and rerouting.

3. The agreed stopping places (which may be altered by Carrier in case of necessity) are those places, except the place of departure and place of destination, set forth on the face hereof or shown in Carrier’s timetables as scheduled stopping places for the route. Carriage to be performed hereunder by several successive Carriers is regarded as a single operation.

4. For carriage to which the Montreal Convention does not apply, Carrier’s liability limitation for cargo lost, damaged or delayed shall be 26 SDRs per kilogram unless a greater per kilogram monetary limit is provided in any applicable Convention or in Carrier’s tariffs or general conditions of carriage.

5./5.1 Except when the Carrier has extended credit to the consignee without the written consent of the shipper, the shipper guarantees payment of all charges for the carriage due in accordance with Carrier’s tariff, conditions of carriage and related regulations, applicable laws (including national laws implementing the Warsaw Convention and the Montreal Convention), government regulations, orders and requirements.

5.2 When no part of the consignment is delivered, a claim with respect to such consignment will be considered even though transportation charges thereon are unpaid.

6./6.1 For cargo accepted for carriage, the Warsaw Convention and the Montreal Convention permit shipper to increase the limitation of liability by declaring a higher value for carriage and paying a supplemental charge if required.

6.2 In carriage to which neither the Warsaw Convention nor the Montreal Convention applies Carrier shall, in accordance with the procedures set forth in its general conditions of carriage and applicable tariffs, permit shipper to increase the limitation of liability by declaring a higher value for carriage and paying a supplemental charge if so required.

7./7.1 In cases of loss of, damage or delay to part of the cargo, the weight to be taken into account in determining Carrier’s limit of liability shall be only the weight of the package or packages concerned.

7.2 Notwithstanding any other provisions, for “foreign air transportation” as defined by the U.S. Transportation Code:

7.2.1 in the case of loss of, damage or delay to a shipment, the weight to be used in determining Carrier’s limit of liability shall be the weight which is used to determine the charge for carriage of such shipment; and

7.2.2 in the case of loss of, damage or delay to a part of a shipment, the shipment weight in 7.2.1 shall be prorated to the packages covered by the same air waybill whose value is affected by the loss, damage or delay. The weight applicable in the case of loss or damage to one or more articles in a package shall be the weight of the entire package.

8. Any exclusion or limitation of liability applicable to Carrier shall apply to Carrier’s agents, employees, and representatives and to any person whose aircraft or equipment is used by Carrier for carriage and such person’s agents, employees and representatives.

9. Carrier undertakes to complete the carriage with reasonable dispatch. Where permitted by applicable laws, tariffs and government regulations, Carrier may use alternative carriers, aircraft or modes of transport without notice but with due regard to the interests of the shipper. Carrier is authorised by the shipper to select the routing and all intermediate stopping places that it deems appropriate or to change or deviate from the routing shown on the face hereof.

10. Receipt by the person entitled to delivery of the cargo without complaint shall be prima facie evidence that the cargo has been delivered in good condition and in accordance with the contract of carriage.

10.1 In the case of loss of, damage or delay to cargo a written complaint must be made to Carrier by the person entitled to delivery. Such complaint must be made:

10.1.1 in the case of damage to the cargo, immediately after discovery of the damage and at the latest within 14 days from the date of receipt of the cargo;

10.1.2 in the case of delay, within 21 days from the date on which the cargo was placed at the disposal of the person entitled to delivery.

10.1.3 in the case of non-delivery of the cargo, within 120 days from the date of issue of the air waybill, or if an air waybill has not been issued, within 120 days from the date of receipt of the cargo for transportation by the Carrier.

10.2 Such complaint may be made to the Carrier whose air waybill was used, or to the first Carrier or to the last Carrier or to the Carrier, which performed the carriage during which the loss, damage or delay took place.

10.3 Unless a written complaint is made within the time limits specified in 10.1 no action may be brought against Carrier.

10.4 Any rights to damages against Carrier shall be extinguished unless an action is brought within two years from the date of arrival at the destination, or from the date on which the aircraft ought to have arrived, or from the date on which the carriage stopped.

11. Shipper shall comply with all applicable laws and government regulations of any country to or from which the cargo may be carried, including those relating to the packing, carriage or delivery of the cargo, and shall furnish such information and attach such documents to the air waybill as may be necessary to comply with such laws and regulations. Carrier is not liable to shipper and shipper shall indemnify Carrier for loss or expense due to shipper’s failure to comply with this provision.

12. No agent, employee or representative of Carrier has authority to alter, modify or waive any provisions of this contract.

"Package" where a Container is loaded with more than one package or unit, the packages or other shipping units enumerated on the face of this bill of lading as packed in such Container and entered in the box on the face hereof entitled "Total number of Containers or Packages received by the Carrier" are each deemed a Package.
"Person" includes an individual, corporation or other legal entity.
"Port to Port Shipment" arises if the Carriage is not Combined Transport.
"SOLAS" means the International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea of the International Maritime Organization as supplemented by the Guidelines regarding the verified gross mass of a container carrying cargo (MSC.1/Circ.1475) published by the International Maritime Organization, as amended from time to time.
"Sub-Contractor" includes, but is not limited to, owners, charterers and operators of Vessels (other than the Carrier), stevedores, terminal and/or groupage operators, road, rail and air transport operators, warehousemen, longshoremen, customs inspection stations, port authorities, pilots and any independent contractor employed by the Carrier in performance of the Carriage and any direct or indirect sub-contractors, servants or agents thereof, whether in direct contractual privity with the Carrier or not.
"Terminal Operators" means any persons who provide port storage or handling services.
"Terms and Conditions" means all terms, rights, defences, provisions, conditions, exceptions, limitations and liberties herein
"Vessel" means any waterborne craft used in the Carriage under this bill of lading including but not limited to a feeder vessel or ocean vessel.

2 CARRIER'S TARIFF

The provisions of the Carrier's applicable tariff, if any, are incorporated herein. Particular attention is drawn to the provisions therein, if any, relating to free storage time and to container and vehicle demurrage. Copies of such provisions are obtainable from the Carrier or his agents upon request or, where applicable, from a government body with whom the tariff has been filed. In the case of inconsistency between this bill of lading and the applicable tariff, this bill of lading shall prevail.

3 WARRANTY

The Merchant warrants that:
(A) in agreeing to the Terms and Conditions hereof he is or is the agent of and has the authority of the Person owning or entitled to the possession of the Goods and this bill of lading or any Person who has a present or future interest in the Goods and this bill of lading; and
(B) the description and particulars of the Goods and the marks, numbers, quantity and weight as set out on the face of this bill of lading (including those required to be provided by or on behalf of the Merchant under clause 7(5) below) have been verified by the Merchant on receipt of this bill of lading as reflecting the information provided by it or on its behalf to the Carrier and are complete and accurate.

4 NEGOTIABILITY AND TITLE TO THE GOODS

(1) This bill of lading shall be non-negotiable unless made out "to order" in which event it shall be negotiable and shall constitute title to the Goods and the Holder shall be entitled to receive or to transfer the Goods herein described.
(2) This bill of lading shall be prima facie evidence of the taking in charge by the Carrier of the Goods as herein described. However proof to the contrary shall not be admissible when this bill of lading has been negotiated or transferred for valuable consideration to a third party acting in good faith.

5 CERTAIN RIGHTS AND IMMUNITIES FOR THE CARRIER AND OTHER PERSONS

(1) The Carrier shall be entitled to sub-contract on any terms whatsoever the whole or any part of the Carriage.
(2) The Merchant undertakes that no claim or allegation shall be made against any Person or Vessel whatsoever, other than the Carrier, including, but not limited to, the Carrier's servants or agents any independent contractor and his servants or agents, and all others by whom the whole or any part of the Carriage, whether directly or indirectly, is procured, performed or undertaken, which imposes or attempts to impose upon any such Person or Vessel any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods or the Carriage of the Goods, whether or not arising in contract, bailment, tort, negligence, breach of express or implied warranty or otherwise; and if any claim or allegation should nevertheless be made to Indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof. Without prejudice to the foregoing every such Person and Vessel shall have the benefit of all provisions herein benefiting the Carrier including clause 20 hereof, the jurisdiction and law clause, as if such Terms and Conditions (including Clause 20 hereof) were expressly for his benefit and in entering into this contract the Carrier, to the extent of these provisions, does so not only on his own behalf but also as agent or trustee for such Persons and Vessels and such Persons and Vessels shall to this extent be or be deemed to be parties to this contract. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, if the Carriage is Port to Port, Terminal Operators shall have the benefit of all provisions herein benefiting the Carrier, including the exceptions and limitations set out in clause 6(1) and 6(3) hereof, in relation to any port storage or handling services provided whether before loading or after discharge and regardless of whether the Carrier's responsibility for the Goods has yet to commence or has ceased.
(3) The Merchant shall Indemnify the Carrier against:
(A) any claim or liability (and any expense arising therefrom) arising from the Carriage of the Goods insofar as such claim or liability exceeds the Carrier's liability under this bill of lading; and
(B) the consequences of (i) any delay in the provision of gross mass information which is to be provided by or on behalf of the Merchant under clause 7(5) below and/or (ii) any such information being inaccurate or incomplete.
(4) The defences and limits of liability provided for in this bill of lading shall apply in any action against the Carrier whether the action be found in contract, bailment, tort, breach of express or implied warranty or otherwise.

6 CARRIER'S RESPONSIBILITY

(1) PORT TO PORT SHIPMENT
(A) Where the Carriage is Port to Port, then the liability (if any) of the Carrier for loss or damage to the Goods occurring between the time of loading at the Port of Loading and the time of discharge at the Port of Delivery shall be determined in accordance with any national law making the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, COGSA or any other rules compulsorily applicable to this bill of lading or in any other case in accordance with the Hague Rules Article 1-8 inclusive (excluding Article 3 rule 8) only.
(B) The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for loss or damage to the Goods while in its actual or constructive possession before loading or after discharge, howsoever caused. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in case and to the extent that any applicable compulsory law provides to the contrary, the Carrier shall have the benefit of every right, defence, limitation and liberty in the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby Rules, COGSA or any other rules as applied by Clause 6(1)(A) during such additional compulsory period of responsibility, notwithstanding that the loss or damage did not occur at sea.
(C) If COGSA applies then the provisions stated in COGSA shall govern the Carrier's liability throughout the Carriage by sea and the entire time that the Goods are in the actual custody of the Carrier or his Sub-Contractor at the container yard, freight station or area immediately adjacent to the sea terminal before loading onto the vessel or after discharge there from as the case may be. Where the Merchant requests the Carrier to procure Carriage by an inland Carrier in the United States of America, such carriage shall be procured by the Carrier as agent only to the Merchant and such carriage shall be subject to the inland Carrier's contract tariff. If, for any reason, the Carrier is denied the right to act as agent only at these times, his liability for loss, damage or delay to the Goods shall be determined in accordance with Clause 6(2) hereof.
(D) If the Goods are discharged at a Port other than the Port of Discharge or (save in the United States of America) at a Place of Delivery instead of the Port of Discharge, and the Carrier in its absolute discretion agrees to a request to such effect, such further Carriage will be undertaken on the basis that the Terms and Conditions are to apply to such Carriage as if the ultimate destination agreed with the Merchant had been entered on the reverse side of this bill of lading as the Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery.
(2) COMBINED TRANSPORT
Save as is otherwise provided in this bill of lading, the Carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to the Goods occurring from the time when he receives the Goods into his charge until the time of delivery to the extent set out below:
(A) Where the stage of Carriage where the loss or damage occurred cannot be proved by the Merchant:
(1) The Carrier shall be relieved from liability where such loss or damage was caused by:
(a) an act or omission of the Merchant or Person acting on behalf of the Merchant other than the Carrier, his servant, agent or Sub-Contractor;
(b) compliance with the instructions of a Person entitled to give them;
(c) the lack or insufficiency of or defective condition of packing in the case of Goods which, by their nature are liable to wastage or to be damaged when not packed or when not properly packed;
(d) handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the Goods by or on behalf of the Merchant;
(e) inherent vice of the Goods;
(f) strikes or lock outs or stoppages or restraints of labour from whatsoever causes whether partial or general;
(g) fire, unless caused by the actual fault or privity of the Carrier; for which the Merchant shall have the burden of proof,
(h) a nuclear incident;
(j) any cause or event which the Carrier could not avoid as a consequence whereof he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.
(2) The burden of proof that the loss or damage was due to one or more of the causes or events specified in this Clause 6(2)(A) will rest upon the Carrier. Save that if the Carrier establishes that, in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the causes or events specified in Clause 6(2)(A)(1)(c), (d) or (e), it shall be presumed that it was so caused. The Merchant shall, however, be entitled to prove that the loss or damage was not, in fact, caused either wholly or partly by one or more of these causes or events.
(B) Where the stage of Carriage where the loss or damage occurred can be proved by the Merchant:
(1) The liability of the Carrier shall be determined by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law of the country, which provisions:
(a) Cannot be departed from by private contract to the detriment of the Merchant, and
(b) Would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of Carriage where the loss or damage occurred and had received as evidence thereof any particular document which must be issued in order to make such international convention or national law applicable.
(2) Where 6(2)(b)(1) above does not apply, any liability of the Carrier shall be determined by 6(1) if the loss or damage occurred during a sea leg or by 6(2)(A) in all other cases.
(3) GENERAL PROVISIONS
(A) Compensation.
Subject to the Carrier's right to limit liability as provided for within this bill of lading, the Carrier's liability shall be calculated by reference to the FOB/FCA invoice value plus freight and insurance if paid. If there is no such invoice value, the value of the Goods shall be determined according to the value of the Goods at the place and time of delivery to the Merchant or at the place and time when they should have been so delivered.
(B) Package or Shipping Unit Limitation
(i) Where the Hague Rules, Hague-Visby rules, COGSA or any other rules apply under this Bill of Lading by national law or pursuant to Clause 6(2)(B)(1) the Carrier's liability shall in no event exceed the amounts provided in the applicable national law or in the law thereby made applicable.
(ii) If only the Hague Rules Articles 1-8 (excluding Article 3, Rule 8) apply pursuant to Clause 6(1)(A), Clause 6(1)(B) or Clause 6(2)(B)(2) then the Carrier's maximum liability shall in no event exceed US$500 per package or unit.
(iii) Where Carriage includes Carriage to, from or through a port in the United States of America and COGSA applies pursuant to Clause 6(1)(A) or 6(2)(B)(1) neither the Carrier nor the Vessel shall in any event be liable for any loss or damage to or in connection with the Carriage of the Goods in an amount exceeding US$500 per Package or customary freight unit.
(iv) In all other cases compensation shall not exceed the limitation of liability of US$2.00 per kilo of gross weight of the Goods lost, damaged or in respect of which the claim arises.
(C) Ad Valorem: Declared Value of Package or Shipping Unit
The Carrier's liability may be increased to a higher value by a declaration in writing of the value of the Goods by the shipper upon delivery to the Carrier of the Goods for shipment, such higher value being inserted on the front of this bill of lading in the space provided and, if required by the Carrier, extra freight paid. In such case, if the actual value of the Goods shall exceed such declared value, the value shall nevertheless be deemed to be the declared value and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the declared value and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.
(D) Delay, Consequential Loss
Save as otherwise provided herein, the Carrier shall in no circumstances be liable for direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage caused by delay or any other cause whatsoever and howsoever caused. Without prejudice to the foregoing, if the Carrier is found liable for delay, liability shall be limited to the freight applicable to the relevant stage of the transport.
(E) Notice of Loss or Damage
The Carrier shall be deemed prima facie to have delivered the Goods as described in this bill of lading unless notice of loss of, or damage to, the Goods, indicating the general nature of such lost or damage, shall have been given in writing to the Carrier or to his representative at the place of delivery before or at the time of removal of the Goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under this bill of lading or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within three consecutive days thereafter.
(F) Time-bar
The Carrier shall be discharged of all liability whatsoever in respect of the Goods unless suit it brought in the proper forum and written notice thereof received by the Carrier: (i) within nine months in respect of Combined Transport or (ii) within 12 months in respect of Port-to-Port Shipment after delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered. In the event that such time period shall be found contrary to any convention or law compulsorily applicable, the period prescribed by such convention or law shall then apply but in that circumstance only.

7 MERCHANTS RESPONSIBILITY

(1) The description and particulars of the Goods set out on the face hereof are furnished by the Merchant and the Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the description and particulars including, but not limited to, weight, content, measure, quantity, quality, condition, marks, numbers and value are correct.
(2) The Merchant shall comply with all applicable laws, regulations and requirements (including but not limited to any imposed at any time before or during the Carriage relating to anti-terrorism measures) of customs, port and other authorities and shall bear and pay all duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses and losses (including without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, freight for any additional Carriage undertaken) incurred or suffered by reason thereof or by reason of any illegal, incorrect or insufficient marking, numbering or addressing of the Goods.
(3) The Merchant undertakes that the Goods are packed in a manner adequate to withstand the ordinary risks of Carriage having regard to their nature and in compliance with all laws, regulations and requirements which may be applicable.
(4) No Goods which are or may become dangerous (whether or not so listed in codes), inflammable, damaging, injurious (including radioactive materials), noxious or which are or may become liable to damage any property or Person whatsoever shall be tendered to the Carrier for Carriage without:
(a) the Carrier's express consent in writing; and
(b) the Container and/or other covering in which the Goods are to be transported and/or the Goods themselves being distinctly marked on the outside so as to indicate the nature and character of any such Goods and so as to comply with all applicable laws, regulations and/or requirements. If any such Goods are delivered to the Carrier without such written consent and/or marking or if in the opinion of the Carrier the Goods are or are liable to become of a dangerous, inflammable and/or damaging nature, the same may at any time be unloaded, destroyed, disposed of, abandoned, or rendered harmless without compensation to the Merchant and without prejudice to the Carrier's right to Charges.
(5) The Merchant shall provide the Carrier with the total gross mass (established using calibrated and certified equipment) of each packed Container (FCL) or each package of Goods (LCL) carried pursuant to this bill of lading in accordance with SOLAS and within the deadlines established by the Carrier. The Merchant acknowledges and agrees that the Carrier will rely on the accuracy and timeliness of such gross mass information and use such information to comply with its obligations to Sub-contractors in accordance with SOLAS.
(6) In the event of any non-compliance by the Merchant with clause 7(5) or where the Carrier reasonably believes the verified gross mass information provided by or on behalf of the Merchant to be inaccurate or incomplete, the Carrier may, at its discretion, (a) establish the total gross mass at the Merchant's cost using calibrated and certified equipment of each packed Container (FCL) or each package of Goods (LCL) carried pursuant to this bill of lading in accordance with SOLAS and the deadlines established by the Carrier shall continue to apply; and (b) without notice and without liability to the Merchant (i) refuse to load the Goods, or, (ii) if loaded, arrange at the Merchant's risk and expense for the Goods to be landed and stored, and such landing and storage shall be deemed to constitute due delivery of the Goods under this bill of lading, the Carrier in such circumstances being released from all obligations and liabilities in respect of the carriage of the Goods. In the event that the Goods are carried to destination, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any and all expense, cost, loss, damage, claim or liability which may arise as a consequence of any non-compliance by the Merchant of clause 7(5) or of the gross mass information provided being inaccurate or incomplete.
(7) The Merchant shall be liable for the loss, damage, contamination, soiling, detention or demurrage before, during and after the Carriage of property (including, but not limited to, Containers) of the Carrier or any person or Vessel (other than the Merchant) referred to in Clause 5(2) above caused by the Merchant or any person acting on his behalf or for which the Merchant is otherwise responsible.
(8) The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, claim, liability or expense whatsoever arising from any breach of the provisions of this clause 7 or from any cause in connection with the Goods for which the Carrier is not responsible.

8 CONTAINERS

(1) Goods may be consolidated by the Carrier in or on Containers and Goods may be consolidated with other Goods.
(2) The terms of this bill of lading shall govern the responsibility of the Carrier in connection with or arising out of the supply of a Container to the Merchant, whether supplied before or after the Goods are received by the Carrier or delivered to the Merchant.
(3) If a container has been consolidated by or on behalf of the Merchant:
(A) the Carrier shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the Goods:
(i) caused by the manner in which the Container has been stuffed;
(ii) caused by the unsuitability of the Goods for carriage in Container actually used;
(iii) caused by the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container actually used provided that where the Container has been supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier, this paragraph (iii) shall only apply if the unsuitability or defective condition would have been apparent upon reasonable inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time when the Container was stuffed;
(iv) if the Container is not sealed at the commencement of the Carriage except where the Carrier has agreed to seal the Container.
(B) the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, claim, liability or expense whatsoever arising from one or more of the matters covered by Clause 8(3)(A) above.
(4) Where the Carrier is instructed to provide a Container, in the absence of a written request to the contrary accepted by the Carrier, the Carrier is not under an obligation to provide a Container of any particular type or quality.

9 TEMPERATURE CONTROLLED CARGO

(1) The Merchant undertakes not to tender for Carriage any Goods which require temperature control without previously giving written notice (and filling in the box on the front of this bill of lading if this bill of lading has been prepared by the Merchant or a person acting on his behalf) of their nature and particular temperature range to be maintained and in the case of a temperature controlled Container Consolidated by or on behalf of the Merchant further undertakes that the Container has been properly pre-cooled, that the Goods have been properly Consolidated in the Container and that its thermostatic controls have been properly set by the Merchant before receipt of the Goods by the Carrier.
(2) If the above requirements are not complied with the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to the Goods caused by such non-compliance.
(3) The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to the Goods arising from defects, derangement, breakdown, stoppage of the temperature controlling machinery, plant, insulation or any apparatus of the Container, provided that the Carrier shall before or at the beginning of the Carriage exercise due diligence to maintain the refrigerated Container in an efficient state.

10 INSPECTION OF GOODS

The Carrier or any Person authorised by the Carrier shall be entitled, but under no obligation, to open and/or scan any Container or package at any time and to inspect the contents. If it appears at any time that the Goods cannot safely or properly be carried, or carried further, either at all or without incurring any additional expense or taking measures in relation to the Container or Goods, the Carrier may without notice to the Merchant (but as his agent only) take any measures and/or incur any reasonable additional expense to carry or continue the Carriage thereof, and/or to sell or dispose of the Goods and/or to abandon the Carriage and/or to store the Goods ashore or afloat, under cover or in the open, at any place, whichever the Carrier in his absolute discretion considers most appropriate, which sale, disposal, abandonment or storage shall be deemed to constitute due delivery under this bill of lading. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any reasonable additional expense so incurred. The Carrier in exercising the liberties contained in this clause shall not be under any obligation to take any particular measures and shall not be liable for any loss, delay or damage howsoever arising from any action or lack of action under this clause.

11 METHODS AND ROUTE OF TRANSPORTATION

(1) The Carrier may at any time and without notice to the Merchant:
(a) use any means of transport or storage whatsoever;
(b) load or carry the Goods on any Vessel whether named on the front hereof or not;
(c) transfer the Goods from one conveyance to another including transshipping or carrying the same on a Vessel other than the Vessel named on the front hereof or by any other means of transport whatsoever and even though transhipment of forwarding of the Goods may not have been contemplated or provided for herein;
(d) at any place unpack and remove Goods which have been stuffed in or on a Container and forward the same in any manner whatsoever;
(e) proceed at any speed and by any route in his discretion (whether or not the nearest or most direct or customary or advertised route) and proceed to or stay at any place whatsoever once or more often and in any order;
(f) load or unload the Goods from any conveyance at any place (whether or not the place is a port named on the front hereof as the intended Port of Loading or intended Port of Discharge);
(g) comply with any orders or recommendations given by any government or authority or any Person or body acting or purporting to act as or on behalf of such government or authority or having under the terms of the insurance on the conveyance employed by the Carrier the right to give orders or directions;
(h) permit the Vessel to proceed with or without pilots, to tow or be towed or to be dry-docked;
(j) permit the Vessel to carry livestock, Goods of all kinds, dangerous or otherwise, contraband, explosives, munitions or warlike stores and sail armed or unarmed.
(2) The liberties set out in Clause 11(1) above may be invoked by the Carrier for any purposes whatsoever whether or not connected with the Carriage of the Goods, including but not limited to loading or unloading the goods, bunkering, undergoing repairs, adjusting instruments, picking up or landing any Persons, including but not limited to Persons involved with the operation or maintenance of the Vessel and assisting Vessels in all situations. Anything done in accordance with Clause 11(1) above or any delay arising therefrom shall be deemed to be within the contractual Carriage and shall not be a deviation of whatsoever nature or degree.

12 DECK CARGO AND LIVESTOCK

(1) Goods of any description whether containerised or not may be stowed on or under deck without notice to the Merchant unless on the front of this bill of lading it is specifically stipulated the Containers or Goods will be carried under deck and such stowage shall not be a deviation of whatsoever nature or degree. If carried on deck, the Carrier shall not be required to note, mark or stamp the bill of lading carried on deck, the Carrier shall not be required to note, mark or stamp on the bill of lading any statement of such on deck carriage Subject to Clause 12(2) below, such Goods whether carried on deck or under deck shall participate in General Average and such Goods (other than livestock) shall be deemed to be within the definition of Goods for the purposes of the Hague Rules or any legislation making such rules COGSA or the Hague-Visby Rules compulsorily applicable to this bill of lading.
(2) Notwithstanding Clause 12(1) above, Goods which are carried on deck (and livestock, whether or not carried on deck) are carried at the Merchant's risk and without responsibility on the part of the Carrier for expenses, delays, loss or damage of whatsoever nature arising during carriage by sea or inland waterway whether caused by unseaworthiness or negligence or any other cause whatsoever and howsoever arising. The Merchant shall Indemnify the Carrier against all and any extra cost incurred for any reason whatsoever in connection with (a) carriage of livestock and/or (b) carriage of Goods which are stated on the front of this bill of lading to be carried on deck and are so carried.

13 DELIVERY OF THE GOODS

(1) If at any time the Carriage is or is likely to be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of any kind (including the condition of the Goods), whensoever and howsoever arising (whether or not the Carriage has commenced) the Carrier may:
(A) without notice to the Merchant abandon the Carriage of the Goods and where reasonably possible place the Goods or any part of them at the Merchant's disposal at any place which the Carrier may deem safe and convenient, whereupon delivery shall be deemed to have been made and the responsibility of the Carrier in respect of such Goods shall cease;
(B) without prejudice to the Carrier's right subsequently to abandon the Carriage under Clause 13(1)(A) above, continue the Carriage. In any event the Carrier shall be entitled to full Charges on Goods received for Carriage and the Merchant shall pay any additional costs resulting from the above mentioned circumstances.
(2) The liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods shall cease on the delivery or other disposition of the Goods in accordance with the orders or recommendations given by any government or authority or any Person acting or purporting to act as or on behalf of such government or authority. This shall amount to due delivery to the Merchant.
(3) Any mention herein of parties to be notified of the arrival of the Goods is solely for information of the Carrier, and failure to give such notification shall not involve the Carrier in any liability nor relieve the Merchant of any obligation thereunder.
(4) If delivery of the Goods or any part thereof is not taken by the Merchant at the time and place when and where the Carrier is entitled to call upon the Merchant to take delivery thereof, the Carrier shall be entitled and without prejudice to any other rights that he may have against the Merchant without notice to remove from a Container the Goods or that part thereof if Consolidated in or on a Container and to store the Goods or that part thereof ashore, afloat, in the open or under cover at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant and the costs of such storage (if paid or payable by the Carrier or any agent or Sub-Contractor of the Carrier) shall forthwith upon demand be paid by the Merchant to the Carrier. Such storage shall constitute due delivery hereunder, and thereupon the liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods or that part thereof shall cease.

14 BOTH-TO-BLAME COLLISION

If the Vessel on which the Goods are carried (the carrying Vessel) comes into collision with any other Vessel or object (the non-carrying Vessel or object) as a result of the negligence of the noncarrying Vessel or object or the owner of, charterer of or Person responsible for the non-carrying Vessel or object, the Merchant undertakes to Indemnify the Carrier against all claims by or liability to (and any expense arising therefrom) any Vessel or Person in respect of any loss of, or damage to, or any claim whatsoever of the Merchant paid or payable to the Merchant by the non-carrying Vessel or object or the owner of, charterer of or Person responsible for the non-carrying vessel or object and set-off, recouped or recovered by such Vessel, object or Person(s) against the Carrier, the carrying Vessel or her owners or charterers.

15 GENERAL AVERAGE

(1) The Carrier may declare General Average which shall be adjustable according to the
(2) York/Antwerp Rules of 1974 at any place at the option of the Carrier and the Amended Jason Clause as approved by BIMCO is to be considered as incorporated herein and the Merchant shall provide such security as may be required by the Carrier in this connection.
(3) Notwithstanding (1) above, the Merchant shall Indemnify the Carrier in respect of any claim (and any expense arising therefrom) of a General Average nature which may be made on the Carrier and shall provide such security as may be required by the Carrier in this connection.
(4) The Carrier shall be under no obligation to take any steps whatsoever to collect security for General Average contributions due to the Merchant.

16 CHARGES

(1) Charges shall be deemed fully earned on receipt of the Goods by the Carrier and shall be paid and non-returnable in any event.
(2) The Charges have been calculated on the basis of particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant. The Carrier shall be entitled to production of the commercial invoice for the Goods or true copy thereof and to inspect, reweigh, remeasure and revalue the Goods and if the particulars are found by the Carrier to be incorrect the Merchant shall pay the Carrier the correct Charges (credit being given for the Charges charged) and the costs incurred by the Carrier in establishing the correct particulars.
(3) All Charges shall be paid without any set-off, counter-claim, deduction or stay of execution.
(4) Despite the acceptance by the Carrier of instructions to collect freight, charges or other expenses from any other person in respect of the transport under this bill of lading, the Merchant shall remain responsible for such monies on receipt of evidence of demand and the absence of payment for whatever reason.

17 LIEN

The Carrier shall have a lien on Goods and any documents relating thereto for all sums whatsoever due at any time to the Carrier under this contract and for General Average contributions to whomsoever due. The Carrier shall also have a lien against the Merchant on the Goods and any documents relating thereto for all sums due from the Merchant to the Carrier under any other contract. The Carrier may exercise his lien at any time and at any place in his sole discretion, whether the contractual Carriage is completed or not. In any event any lien shall (a) survive the delivery of the Goods and (b) extend to cover the cost of recovering any sums due and for that purpose the Carrier shall have the right to sell the Goods and documents by public auction or private treaty, without notice to the Merchant and at the Merchant's expense and without any liability towards the Merchant.

18 VARIATION OF THE CONTRACT

No servant or agent of the Carrier shall have power to waive or vary any of the terms hereof unless such waiver or variation is in writing and is specifically authorised or ratified in writing by a director or officer of the Carrier who has the actual authority of the Carrier to waive or vary.

19 PARTIAL INVALIDITY

If any provision in this bill of lading is held to be invalid or unenforceable by any Court or regulatory or self regulatory agency or body, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision. The validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected thereby and this bill of lading contract shall be carried out as if such invalid or unenforceable provision were not contained herein.

20 JURISDICTION AND LAW

The contract evidenced by or contained in this Bill of Lading is governed by the law of Hong Kong and any claim or dispute arising hereunder or in connection herewith shall be determined by the Courts in Hong Kong and no other Court.

NOTICE CONCERNING CARRIERS' LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

If the carriage involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, the Montreal Convention or the Warsaw Convention may be applicable to the liability of the Carrier in respect of loss of, damage or delay to cargo. Carrier's limitation of liability in accordance with those Conventions shall be as set forth in subparagraph 4 unless a higher value is declared.

CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT

1. In this contract and the Notices appearing hereon:

CARRIER includes the air carrier issuing this air waybill and all carriers that carry or undertake to carry the cargo or perform any other services related to such carriage.

SPECIAL DRAWING RIGHT (SDR) is a Special Drawing Right as defined by the International Monetary Fund.

WARSAW CONVENTION means whichever of the following instruments is applicable to the contract of carriage:

the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules Relating to International Carriage by Air, signed at Warsaw, 12 October 1929;

that Convention as amended at The Hague on 28 September 1955;

that Convention as amended at The Hague 1955 and by Montreal Protocol No. 1, 2, or 4 (1975) as the case may be.

MONTREAL CONVENTION means the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules for International Carriage by Air, done at Montreal on 28 May 1999.

2./2.1 Carriage is subject to the rules relating to liability established by the Warsaw Convention or the Montreal Convention unless such carriage is not “international carriage” as defined by the applicable Conventions.

2.2 To the extent not in conflict with the foregoing, carriage and other related services performed by each Carrier are subject to:

2.2.1 applicable laws and government regulations;

2.2.2 provisions contained in the air waybill, Carrier’s conditions of carriage and related rules, regulations, and timetables (but not the times of departure and arrival stated therein) and applicable tariffs of such Carrier, which are made part hereof, and which may be inspected at any airports or other cargo sales offices from which it operates regular services. When carriage is to/from the USA, the shipper and the consignee are entitled, upon request, to receive a free copy of the Carrier’s conditions of carriage. The Carrier’s conditions of carriage include, but are not limited to:

2.2.2.1 limits on the Carrier’s liability for loss, damage or delay of goods, including fragile or perishable goods;

2.2.2.2 claims restrictions, including time periods within which shippers or consignees must file a claim or bring an action against the Carrier for its acts or omissions, or those of its agents;

2.2.2.3 rights, if any, of the Carrier to change the terms of the contract;

2.2.2.4 rules about Carrier’s right to refuse to carry;

2.2.2.5 rights of the Carrier and limitations concerning delay or failure to perform service, including schedule changes, substitution of alternate Carrier or aircraft and rerouting.

3. The agreed stopping places (which may be altered by Carrier in case of necessity) are those places, except the place of departure and place of destination, set forth on the face hereof or shown in Carrier’s timetables as scheduled stopping places for the route. Carriage to be performed hereunder by several successive Carriers is regarded as a single operation.

4. For carriage to which the Montreal Convention does not apply, Carrier’s liability limitation for cargo lost, damaged or delayed shall be 26 SDRs per kilogram unless a greater per kilogram monetary limit is provided in any applicable Convention or in Carrier’s tariffs or general conditions of carriage.

5./5.1 Except when the Carrier has extended credit to the consignee without the written consent of the shipper, the shipper guarantees payment of all charges for the carriage due in accordance with Carrier’s tariff, conditions of carriage and related regulations, applicable laws (including national laws implementing the Warsaw Convention and the Montreal Convention), government regulations, orders and requirements.

5.2 When no part of the consignment is delivered, a claim with respect to such consignment will be considered even though transportation charges thereon are unpaid.

6./6.1 For cargo accepted for carriage, the Warsaw Convention and the Montreal Convention permit shipper to increase the limitation of liability by declaring a higher value for carriage and paying a supplemental charge if required.

6.2 In carriage to which neither the Warsaw Convention nor the Montreal Convention applies Carrier shall, in accordance with the procedures set forth in its general conditions of carriage and applicable tariffs, permit shipper to increase the limitation of liability by declaring a higher value for carriage and paying a supplemental charge if so required.

7./7.1 In cases of loss of, damage or delay to part of the cargo, the weight to be taken into account in determining Carrier’s limit of liability shall be only the weight of the package or packages concerned.

7.2 Notwithstanding any other provisions, for “foreign air transportation” as defined by the U.S. Transportation Code:

7.2.1 in the case of loss of, damage or delay to a shipment, the weight to be used in determining Carrier’s limit of liability shall be the weight which is used to determine the charge for carriage of such shipment; and

7.2.2 in the case of loss of, damage or delay to a part of a shipment, the shipment weight in 7.2.1 shall be prorated to the packages covered by the same air waybill whose value is affected by the loss, damage or delay. The weight applicable in the case of loss or damage to one or more articles in a package shall be the weight of the entire package.

8. Any exclusion or limitation of liability applicable to Carrier shall apply to Carrier’s agents, employees, and representatives and to any person whose aircraft or equipment is used by Carrier for carriage and such person’s agents, employees and representatives.

9. Carrier undertakes to complete the carriage with reasonable dispatch. Where permitted by applicable laws, tariffs and government regulations, Carrier may use alternative carriers, aircraft or modes of transport without notice but with due regard to the interests of the shipper. Carrier is authorised by the shipper to select the routing and all intermediate stopping places that it deems appropriate or to change or deviate from the routing shown on the face hereof.

10. Receipt by the person entitled to delivery of the cargo without complaint shall be prima facie evidence that the cargo has been delivered in good condition and in accordance with the contract of carriage.

10.1 In the case of loss of, damage or delay to cargo a written complaint must be made to Carrier by the person entitled to delivery. Such complaint must be made:

10.1.1 in the case of damage to the cargo, immediately after discovery of the damage and at the latest within 14 days from the date of receipt of the cargo;

10.1.2 in the case of delay, within 21 days from the date on which the cargo was placed at the disposal of the person entitled to delivery.

10.1.3 in the case of non-delivery of the cargo, within 120 days from the date of issue of the air waybill, or if an air waybill has not been issued, within 120 days from the date of receipt of the cargo for transportation by the Carrier.

10.2 Such complaint may be made to the Carrier whose air waybill was used, or to the first Carrier or to the last Carrier or to the Carrier, which performed the carriage during which the loss, damage or delay took place.

10.3 Unless a written complaint is made within the time limits specified in 10.1 no action may be brought against Carrier.

10.4 Any rights to damages against Carrier shall be extinguished unless an action is brought within two years from the date of arrival at the destination, or from the date on which the aircraft ought to have arrived, or from the date on which the carriage stopped.

11. Shipper shall comply with all applicable laws and government regulations of any country to or from which the cargo may be carried, including those relating to the packing, carriage or delivery of the cargo, and shall furnish such information and attach such documents to the air waybill as may be necessary to comply with such laws and regulations. Carrier is not liable to shipper and shipper shall indemnify Carrier for loss or expense due to shipper’s failure to comply with this provision.

12. No agent, employee or representative of Carrier has authority to alter, modify or waive any provisions of this contract.

COMBINED TRANSPORT SEA WAYBILL

Code Name: "COMBICONWAYBILL"

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Applicability.
Notwithstanding the heading "Combined Transport", the provisions set out and referred to in this Sea Waybill shall also apply, if the transport as described in this Sea Waybill is performed by one mode of transport only.

2. Definitions.
"Carrier" means the party on whose behalf this Sea Waybill has been signed.
"Merchant" includes the Shipper, the Receiver, the Consignor, the Consignee and the owner of the goods.

3. Carrier's Tariff.
The terms of the Carrier's applicable Tariff at the date of shipment are incorporated herein. Copies of the relevant provisions of the applicable Tariff are available from the Carrier upon request. In the case of inconsistency between this Sea Waybill and the applicable Tariff, this Sea Waybill shall prevail.

4. Time Bar.
All liability whatsoever of the Carrier shall cease unless suit is brought within 9 months after delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered.

5. Law and Jurisdiction.
Disputes arising under this Sea Waybill shall be determined by the courts and in accordance with the law at the place where the Carrier has his principal place of business.

II. PERFORMANCE OF THE CONTRACT

6. Methods and Routes of Transportation.
(1) The Carrier is entitled to perform the transport and all services related thereto in any reasonable manner and by any reasonable means, methods and routes.
(2) In accordance herewith, for instance, in the event of carriage by sea, vessels may sail with or without pilots, undergo repairs, adjust equipment, drydock and tow vessels in all situations.

7. Optional Stowage.
(1) Goods may be stowed by the Carrier by means of containers, trailers, transportable tanks, flats, pallets, or similar articles of transport used to consolidate goods.
(2) Containers, trailers, transportable tanks and covered flats, whether stowed by the Carrier or received by him in a stowed condition from the Merchant, may be carried on or under deck without notice to the Merchant.

8. Hindrances etc. Affecting Performance.
(1) The Carrier shall use reasonable endeavours to complete the transport and to deliver the goods at the place designated for delivery.
(2) If at any time the performance of the contract as evidenced by this Sea Waybill is or will be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of whatsoever kind, and if by virtue of sub-clause 8 (1) the Carrier has no duty to complete the performance of the contract, the Carrier (whether or not the transport is commenced) may elect to:
(a) treat the performance of this Contract as terminated and place the goods at the Merchant's disposal at any place which the Carrier shall deem safe and convenient; or
(b) deliver the goods at the place designated for delivery.
(3) If the goods are not taken delivery of by the Merchant within a reasonable time after the Carrier has called upon him to take delivery, the Carrier shall be at liberty to put the goods in safe custody on behalf of the Merchant at the latter's risk and expense.
(4) In any event the Carrier shall be entitled to full freight for goods received for transportation and additional compensation for extra costs resulting from the circumstances referred to above.

III. CARRIER'S LIABILITY

9. Basic Liability.
(1) The Carrier shall be liable for loss of or damage to the goods occurring between the time when he receives the goods into his charge and the time of delivery.
(2) The Carrier shall be responsible for the acts and omissions of any person of whose services he makes use for the performance of the contract of carriage evidenced by this Sea Waybill.
(3) The Carrier shall, however, be relieved of liability for any loss or damage if such loss or damage arose or resulted from:
(a) The wrongful act or neglect of the Merchant.
(b) Compliance with the instructions of the person entitled to give them.
(c) The lack of, or defective conditions of packing in the case of goods which, by their nature, are liable to wastage or to be damaged when not packed or when not properly packed.
(d) Handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the goods by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(e) Inherent vice of the goods.
(f) Insufficiency or inadequacy of marks or numbers on the goods, covering, or unit loads.
(g) Strikes or lock-outs or stoppages or restraints of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general.
(h) Any cause or event which the Carrier could not avoid and the consequence whereof he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.
(4) Where under sub-clause 9 (3) the Carrier is not under any liability in respect of some of the factors causing the loss or damage, he shall only be liable to the extent that those factors for which he is liable under this Clause have contributed to the loss or damage.
(5) The burden of proving that the loss or damage was due to one or more of the causes or events, specified in (a), (b) and (h) of sub-clause 9 (3) shall rest upon the Carrier.
(6) When the Carrier establishes that in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the causes or events, specified in (c) to (g) of sub-clause 9 (3), it shall be presumed that it was so caused. The Merchant shall, however, be entitled to prove that the loss or damage was not, in fact, caused either wholly or partly by one or more of the causes or events.

10. Amount of Compensation
(1) When the Carrier is liable for compensation in respect of loss of or damage to the goods, such compensation shall be calculated by reference to the value of such goods at the place and time they are delivered to the Merchant in accordance with the contract or should have been so delivered.
(2) The value of the goods shall be fixed according to the commodity exchange price or, if there be no such price, according to the current market price or, if there be no commodity exchange price or current market price, by reference to the normal value of goods of the same kind and quality.
(3) Compensation shall not, however, exceed two Special Drawing Rights per kilogramme of gross weight of the goods lost or damaged.
(4) Higher compensation may be claimed only when, with the consent of the Carrier, the value for the goods declared by the Shipper which exceeds the limits laid down in this Clause has been stated on the face of this Sea Waybill at the place indicated. In that case the amount of the declared value shall be substituted for that limit.

11. Special Provisions for Liability and Compensation
(1) Notwithstanding anything provided for in Clauses 9 and 10 of this Sea Waybill, if it can be proved where the loss or damage occurred, the Carrier and the Merchant shall, as to the liability of the Carrier, be entitled to require such liability to be determined by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law, which provisions:
(a) cannot be departed from by private contract, to the detriment of the claimant, and
(b) would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of transport where the loss or damage occurred and received as evidence thereof any particular document which must be issued if such international convention or national law shall apply.
(2) Insofar as there is no mandatory law applying to carriage by sea by virtue of the provisions of sub-clause 11 (1), the liability of the Carrier in respect of any carriage by sea shall be determined by the International Brussels Convention 1924 as amended by the Protocol signed at Brussels on February 23rd 1968 – The Hague/Visby Rules. The Hague/Visby Rules shall also determine the liability of the Carrier in respect of carriage by inland waterways as if such carriage were carriage by sea. Furthermore, they shall apply to all goods, whether carried on deck or under deck.

12. Delay, Consequential Loss, etc.
(1) The Carrier shall not be liable in any capacity, whatsoever, for any delay, non-delivery, misdelivery or other loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods occurring at any time contemplated under Clause 9 (1).
(2) If the Carrier is held liable for delay, non-delivery, misdelivery or other loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods as described above in subdivision 1, such liability shall in no case exceed the freight for the transport covered by this document.

13. Notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods
(1) Unless notice of loss of or damage to the goods, specifying the general nature of such loss or damage, is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier when the goods are handed over to the Merchant, such handing over is prima facie evidence of the Delivery by the Carrier of the goods as described in this Sea Waybill.
(2) Where the loss or damage is not apparent, the same prima facie effect shall apply if notice in writing is not given within three (3) consecutive days after the day when the goods were handed over to the Merchant.

14. Defences and Limits for the Carrier, Servants, etc.
(1) The defences and limits of liability provided for in this Sea Waybill shall apply in any action against the Carrier for loss or damage to the goods whether the action can be founded in contract or in tort.
(2) The Carrier shall not be entitled to the benefit of the limitation of liability provided for in sub-clause 10 (3), if it is proved that the loss or damage resulted from a personal act or omission of the Carrier done with intent to cause such loss or damage or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result.
(3) The Merchant undertakes that no claim shall be made against any servant, agent or other persons whose services the Carrier has used in order to perform this Contract and if any claim should nevertheless be made, to indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.
(4) However, the provisions of this Sea Waybill apply whenever claims relating to the performance of this Contract are made against any servant, agent or other person whose services the Carrier has used in order to perform this Contract, whether such claims are founded in contract or in tort. In entering into this Contract, the Carrier, to the extent of such provisions, does so not only on his own behalf but also as agent or trustee for such persons. The aggregate liability of the Carrier and such persons shall not exceed the limits in Clauses 10, 11 and 24, respectively.

IV. DESCRIPTION OF GOODS

15. Carrier's Responsibility.
The information in this Sea Waybill shall be prima facie evidence of the taking in charge by the Carrier of the goods as described by such information unless a contrary indication, such as "shipper's weight, load and count", "Shipper-packed container" or similar expressions, have been made in the printed text or superimposed on the Sea Waybill. As between the Carrier and Consignee the information in the Sea Waybill shall be conclusive evidence of receipt of the goods as so stated and proof to the contrary shall not be permitted provided always that the Consignee has acted in good faith.

16. Shipper's Responsibility.
The Shipper shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy, at the time the goods were taken in charge by the Carrier, of the description of the goods, marks, number, quantity and weight, as furnished by him, and the Shipper shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Carrier against all loss, damage and expenses arising or resulting from inaccuracies in or inadequacy of such particulars. The right of the Carrier to such indemnity shall in no way limit his responsibility and liability under this Sea Waybill to any person other than the Shipper. The Shipper shall remain liable even if the goods have been delivered.

17. Shipper-packed Containers, etc.
(1) If a container has not been filled, packed or stowed by the Carrier, the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to its contents and the Merchant shall cover any loss or expense incurred by the Carrier, if such loss, damage or expense has been caused by:
(a) negligent filling, packing or stowing of the container;
(b) the contents being unsuitable for carriage in container; or
(c) the unsuitability or defective condition of the container unless the container has been supplied by the Carrier and the unsuitability or defective condition would not have been apparent upon reasonable inspection at or prior to the time when the container was filled, packed or stowed.
(2) The provisions of sub-clause (1) of this Clause also apply with respect to trailers, transportable tanks, flats and pallets which have not been filled, packed or stowed by the Carrier.
(3) The Carrier does not accept liability for damage due to the unsuitability or defective condition of reefer equipment or trailers supplied by the Merchant.

18. Dangerous Goods.
(1) The Merchant shall comply with all internationally recognised requirements and all rules which apply according to national law or by reason of international Convention, relating to the carriage of goods of a dangerous nature, and shall in any event inform the Carrier in writing of the exact nature of the danger before goods of a dangerous nature are taken into charge by the Carrier and indicate to him, if need be, the precautions to be taken.
(2) Goods of a dangerous nature which the Carrier did not know were dangerous, may, at any time or place, be unloaded, destroyed, or rendered harmless, without compensation; further, the Merchant shall be liable for all expenses, loss or damage arising out of their handing over for carriage or of their carriage.
(3) If any goods shipped with the knowledge of the Carrier as to their dangerous nature shall become a danger to any person or property, they may in like manner be landed at any place or destroyed or rendered innocuous by the Carrier without liability on the part of the Carrier except to General Average, if any.

19. Return of Containers
(1) For the purpose of this Clause the Consignor shall mean the person who concludes this Contract with the Carrier and the Consignee shall mean the person entitled to receive the goods from the Carrier.
(2) Containers, pallets or similar articles of transport supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier shall be returned to the Carrier in the same order and condition as handed over to the Merchant, normal wear and tear excepted, with interiors clean and within the time prescribed in the Carrier's tariff or elsewhere.
(3) (a) The Consignor shall be liable for any loss of, damage to, or delay, including demurrage, of such articles, incurred during the period between handing over to the Consignor and return to the Carrier for carriage.
(b) The Consignor and the Consignee shall be jointly and severally liable for any loss of, damage to, or delay, including demurrage, of such articles, incurred during the period between handing over to the Consignee and return to the Carrier.

V. FREIGHT AND LIEN

20. Freight.
(1) Freight shall be deemed earned when the goods have been taken in charge by the Carrier and shall be paid in any event.
(2) The Merchant's attention is drawn to the stipulations concerning currency in which the freight and charges are to be paid, rate of exchange, devaluation and other contingencies relative to freight and charges in the relevant tariff conditions. If no such stipulation as to devaluation exists or is applicable the following shall apply:
If the currency in which freight and charges are quoted is devalued between the date of the freight agreement and the date when the freight and charges are paid, then all freight and charges shall be automatically and immediately increased in proportion to the extent of the devaluation of the said currency.
(3) For the purpose of verifying the freight basis, the Carrier reserves the right to have the contents of containers, trailers or similar articles of tranport inspected in order to ascertain the weight, measurement, value, or nature of the goods.

21. Lien
The carrier and his agent (as named on the reverse side of this document) shall have a lien on the goods and any documents relating thereto, for any amount due to them, at any time from the merchant including the costs of recovering same, and may enforce such lien in any reasonable manner including sale or disposal of the goods.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

22. General Average.
(1) General Average shall be adjusted at any port or place at the Carrier's option, and to be settled according to the York-Antwerp Rules 1994, or any modification thereof, this covering all goods, whether carried on or under deck. The New Jason Clause as approved by BIMCO to be considered as incorporated herein.
(2) Such security including a cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be submitted to the Carrier prior to delivery of the goods.

23. Both-to-Blame Collision Clause.
The Both-to-Blame Collision Clause as adopted by BIMCO shall be considered incorporated herein.

24. U.S. Trade
(1) In case the contract evidenced by this Sea Waybill is subject to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States of America, 1936 (U.S. COGSA), then the provisions stated in the said Act shall govern before loading and after discharge and throughout the entire time the goods are in the Carrier's custody.
(2) If the U.S. COGSA applies, and unless the nature and value of the goods have been declared by the shipper before the goods have been handed over to the Carrier and inserted in this Sea Waybill, the Carrier shall in no event be or become liable for any loss of or damage to the goods in an amount exceeding USD 500 per package or customary freight unit.

COMBINED TRANSPORT SEA WAYBILL

Code Name: "COMBICONWAYBILL"

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Applicability.
Notwithstanding the heading "Combined Transport", the provisions set out and referred to in this Sea Waybill shall also apply, if the transport as described in this Sea Waybill is performed by one mode of transport only.

2. Definitions.
"Carrier" means the party on whose behalf this Sea Waybill has been signed.
"Merchant" includes the Shipper, the Receiver, the Consignor, the Consignee and the owner of the goods.

3. Carrier's Tariff.
The terms of the Carrier's applicable Tariff at the date of shipment are incorporated herein. Copies of the relevant provisions of the applicable Tariff are available from the Carrier upon request. In the case of inconsistency between this Sea Waybill and the applicable Tariff, this Sea Waybill shall prevail.

4. Time Bar.
All liability whatsoever of the Carrier shall cease unless suit is brought within 9 months after delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered.

5. Law and Jurisdiction.
Disputes arising under this Sea Waybill shall be determined by the courts and in accordance with the law at the place where the Carrier has his principal place of business.

II. PERFORMANCE OF THE CONTRACT

6. Methods and Routes of Transportation.
(1) The Carrier is entitled to perform the transport and all services related thereto in any reasonable manner and by any reasonable means, methods and routes.
(2) In accordance herewith, for instance, in the event of carriage by sea, vessels may sail with or without pilots, undergo repairs, adjust equipment, drydock and tow vessels in all situations.

7. Optional Stowage.
(1) Goods may be stowed by the Carrier by means of containers, trailers, transportable tanks, flats, pallets, or similar articles of transport used to consolidate goods.
(2) Containers, trailers, transportable tanks and covered flats, whether stowed by the Carrier or received by him in a stowed condition from the Merchant, may be carried on or under deck without notice to the Merchant.

8. Hindrances etc. Affecting Performance.
(1) The Carrier shall use reasonable endeavours to complete the transport and to deliver the goods at the place designated for delivery.
(2) If at any time the performance of the contract as evidenced by this Sea Waybill is or will be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of whatsoever kind, and if by virtue of sub-clause 8 (1) the Carrier has no duty to complete the performance of the contract, the Carrier (whether or not the transport is commenced) may elect to:
(a) treat the performance of this Contract as terminated and place the goods at the Merchant's disposal at any place which the Carrier shall deem safe and convenient; or
(b) deliver the goods at the place designated for delivery.
(3) If the goods are not taken delivery of by the Merchant within a reasonable time after the Carrier has called upon him to take delivery, the Carrier shall be at liberty to put the goods in safe custody on behalf of the Merchant at the latter's risk and expense.
(4) In any event the Carrier shall be entitled to full freight for goods received for transportation and additional compensation for extra costs resulting from the circumstances referred to above.

III. CARRIER'S LIABILITY

9. Basic Liability.
(1) The Carrier shall be liable for loss of or damage to the goods occurring between the time when he receives the goods into his charge and the time of delivery.
(2) The Carrier shall be responsible for the acts and omissions of any person of whose services he makes use for the performance of the contract of carriage evidenced by this Sea Waybill.
(3) The Carrier shall, however, be relieved of liability for any loss or damage if such loss or damage arose or resulted from:
(a) The wrongful act or neglect of the Merchant.
(b) Compliance with the instructions of the person entitled to give them.
(c) The lack of, or defective conditions of packing in the case of goods which, by their nature, are liable to wastage or to be damaged when not packed or when not properly packed.
(d) Handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the goods by or on behalf of the Merchant.
(e) Inherent vice of the goods.
(f) Insufficiency or inadequacy of marks or numbers on the goods, covering, or unit loads.
(g) Strikes or lock-outs or stoppages or restraints of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general.
(h) Any cause or event which the Carrier could not avoid and the consequence whereof he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.
(4) Where under sub-clause 9 (3) the Carrier is not under any liability in respect of some of the factors causing the loss or damage, he shall only be liable to the extent that those factors for which he is liable under this Clause have contributed to the loss or damage.
(5) The burden of proving that the loss or damage was due to one or more of the causes or events, specified in (a), (b) and (h) of sub-clause 9 (3) shall rest upon the Carrier.
(6) When the Carrier establishes that in the circumstances of the case, the loss or damage could be attributed to one or more of the causes or events, specified in (c) to (g) of sub-clause 9 (3), it shall be presumed that it was so caused. The Merchant shall, however, be entitled to prove that the loss or damage was not, in fact, caused either wholly or partly by one or more of the causes or events.

10. Amount of Compensation
(1) When the Carrier is liable for compensation in respect of loss of or damage to the goods, such compensation shall be calculated by reference to the value of such goods at the place and time they are delivered to the Merchant in accordance with the contract or should have been so delivered.
(2) The value of the goods shall be fixed according to the commodity exchange price or, if there be no such price, according to the current market price or, if there be no commodity exchange price or current market price, by reference to the normal value of goods of the same kind and quality.
(3) Compensation shall not, however, exceed two Special Drawing Rights per kilogramme of gross weight of the goods lost or damaged.
(4) Higher compensation may be claimed only when, with the consent of the Carrier, the value for the goods declared by the Shipper which exceeds the limits laid down in this Clause has been stated on the face of this Sea Waybill at the place indicated. In that case the amount of the declared value shall be substituted for that limit.

11. Special Provisions for Liability and Compensation
(1) Notwithstanding anything provided for in Clauses 9 and 10 of this Sea Waybill, if it can be proved where the loss or damage occurred, the Carrier and the Merchant shall, as to the liability of the Carrier, be entitled to require such liability to be determined by the provisions contained in any international convention or national law, which provisions:
(a) cannot be departed from by private contract, to the detriment of the claimant, and
(b) would have applied if the Merchant had made a separate and direct contract with the Carrier in respect of the particular stage of transport where the loss or damage occurred and received as evidence thereof any particular document which must be issued if such international convention or national law shall apply.
(2) Insofar as there is no mandatory law applying to carriage by sea by virtue of the provisions of sub-clause 11 (1), the liability of the Carrier in respect of any carriage by sea shall be determined by the International Brussels Convention 1924 as amended by the Protocol signed at Brussels on February 23rd 1968 – The Hague/Visby Rules. The Hague/Visby Rules shall also determine the liability of the Carrier in respect of carriage by inland waterways as if such carriage were carriage by sea. Furthermore, they shall apply to all goods, whether carried on deck or under deck.

12. Delay, Consequential Loss, etc.
(1) The Carrier shall not be liable in any capacity, whatsoever, for any delay, non-delivery, misdelivery or other loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods occurring at any time contemplated under Clause 9 (1).
(2) If the Carrier is held liable for delay, non-delivery, misdelivery or other loss or damage to or in connection with the Goods as described above in subdivision 1, such liability shall in no case exceed the freight for the transport covered by this document.

13. Notice of Loss of or Damage to the Goods
(1) Unless notice of loss of or damage to the goods, specifying the general nature of such loss or damage, is given in writing by the Merchant to the Carrier when the goods are handed over to the Merchant, such handing over is prima facie evidence of the Delivery by the Carrier of the goods as described in this Sea Waybill.
(2) Where the loss or damage is not apparent, the same prima facie effect shall apply if notice in writing is not given within three (3) consecutive days after the day when the goods were handed over to the Merchant.

14. Defences and Limits for the Carrier, Servants, etc.
(1) The defences and limits of liability provided for in this Sea Waybill shall apply in any action against the Carrier for loss or damage to the goods whether the action can be founded in contract or in tort.
(2) The Carrier shall not be entitled to the benefit of the limitation of liability provided for in sub-clause 10 (3), if it is proved that the loss or damage resulted from a personal act or omission of the Carrier done with intent to cause such loss or damage or recklessly and with knowledge that damage would probably result.
(3) The Merchant undertakes that no claim shall be made against any servant, agent or other persons whose services the Carrier has used in order to perform this Contract and if any claim should nevertheless be made, to indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.
(4) However, the provisions of this Sea Waybill apply whenever claims relating to the performance of this Contract are made against any servant, agent or other person whose services the Carrier has used in order to perform this Contract, whether such claims are founded in contract or in tort. In entering into this Contract, the Carrier, to the extent of such provisions, does so not only on his own behalf but also as agent or trustee for such persons. The aggregate liability of the Carrier and such persons shall not exceed the limits in Clauses 10, 11 and 24, respectively.

IV. DESCRIPTION OF GOODS

15. Carrier's Responsibility.
The information in this Sea Waybill shall be prima facie evidence of the taking in charge by the Carrier of the goods as described by such information unless a contrary indication, such as "shipper's weight, load and count", "Shipper-packed container" or similar expressions, have been made in the printed text or superimposed on the Sea Waybill. As between the Carrier and Consignee the information in the Sea Waybill shall be conclusive evidence of receipt of the goods as so stated and proof to the contrary shall not be permitted provided always that the Consignee has acted in good faith.

16. Shipper's Responsibility.
The Shipper shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the Carrier the accuracy, at the time the goods were taken in charge by the Carrier, of the description of the goods, marks, number, quantity and weight, as furnished by him, and the Shipper shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Carrier against all loss, damage and expenses arising or resulting from inaccuracies in or inadequacy of such particulars. The right of the Carrier to such indemnity shall in no way limit his responsibility and liability under this Sea Waybill to any person other than the Shipper. The Shipper shall remain liable even if the goods have been delivered.

17. Shipper-packed Containers, etc.
(1) If a container has not been filled, packed or stowed by the Carrier, the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to its contents and the Merchant shall cover any loss or expense incurred by the Carrier, if such loss, damage or expense has been caused by:
(a) negligent filling, packing or stowing of the container;
(b) the contents being unsuitable for carriage in container; or
(c) the unsuitability or defective condition of the container unless the container has been supplied by the Carrier and the unsuitability or defective condition would not have been apparent upon reasonable inspection at or prior to the time when the container was filled, packed or stowed.
(2) The provisions of sub-clause (1) of this Clause also apply with respect to trailers, transportable tanks, flats and pallets which have not been filled, packed or stowed by the Carrier.
(3) The Carrier does not accept liability for damage due to the unsuitability or defective condition of reefer equipment or trailers supplied by the Merchant.

18. Dangerous Goods.
(1) The Merchant shall comply with all internationally recognised requirements and all rules which apply according to national law or by reason of international Convention, relating to the carriage of goods of a dangerous nature, and shall in any event inform the Carrier in writing of the exact nature of the danger before goods of a dangerous nature are taken into charge by the Carrier and indicate to him, if need be, the precautions to be taken.
(2) Goods of a dangerous nature which the Carrier did not know were dangerous, may, at any time or place, be unloaded, destroyed, or rendered harmless, without compensation; further, the Merchant shall be liable for all expenses, loss or damage arising out of their handing over for carriage or of their carriage.
(3) If any goods shipped with the knowledge of the Carrier as to their dangerous nature shall become a danger to any person or property, they may in like manner be landed at any place or destroyed or rendered innocuous by the Carrier without liability on the part of the Carrier except to General Average, if any.

19. Return of Containers
(1) For the purpose of this Clause the Consignor shall mean the person who concludes this Contract with the Carrier and the Consignee shall mean the person entitled to receive the goods from the Carrier.
(2) Containers, pallets or similar articles of transport supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier shall be returned to the Carrier in the same order and condition as handed over to the Merchant, normal wear and tear excepted, with interiors clean and within the time prescribed in the Carrier's tariff or elsewhere.
(3) (a) The Consignor shall be liable for any loss of, damage to, or delay, including demurrage, of such articles, incurred during the period between handing over to the Consignor and return to the Carrier for carriage.
(b) The Consignor and the Consignee shall be jointly and severally liable for any loss of, damage to, or delay, including demurrage, of such articles, incurred during the period between handing over to the Consignee and return to the Carrier.

V. FREIGHT AND LIEN

20. Freight.
(1) Freight shall be deemed earned when the goods have been taken in charge by the Carrier and shall be paid in any event.
(2) The Merchant's attention is drawn to the stipulations concerning currency in which the freight and charges are to be paid, rate of exchange, devaluation and other contingencies relative to freight and charges in the relevant tariff conditions. If no such stipulation as to devaluation exists or is applicable the following shall apply:
If the currency in which freight and charges are quoted is devalued between the date of the freight agreement and the date when the freight and charges are paid, then all freight and charges shall be automatically and immediately increased in proportion to the extent of the devaluation of the said currency.
(3) For the purpose of verifying the freight basis, the Carrier reserves the right to have the contents of containers, trailers or similar articles of tranport inspected in order to ascertain the weight, measurement, value, or nature of the goods.

21. Lien
The carrier and his agent (as named on the reverse side of this document) shall have a lien on the goods and any documents relating thereto, for any amount due to them, at any time from the merchant including the costs of recovering same, and may enforce such lien in any reasonable manner including sale or disposal of the goods.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

22. General Average.
(1) General Average shall be adjusted at any port or place at the Carrier's option, and to be settled according to the York-Antwerp Rules 1994, or any modification thereof, this covering all goods, whether carried on or under deck. The New Jason Clause as approved by BIMCO to be considered as incorporated herein.
(2) Such security including a cash deposit as the Carrier may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the goods and any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be submitted to the Carrier prior to delivery of the goods.

23. Both-to-Blame Collision Clause.
The Both-to-Blame Collision Clause as adopted by BIMCO shall be considered incorporated herein.

24. U.S. Trade
(1) In case the contract evidenced by this Sea Waybill is subject to the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States of America, 1936 (U.S. COGSA), then the provisions stated in the said Act shall govern before loading and after discharge and throughout the entire time the goods are in the Carrier's custody.
(2) If the U.S. COGSA applies, and unless the nature and value of the goods have been declared by the shipper before the goods have been handed over to the Carrier and inserted in this Sea Waybill, the Carrier shall in no event be or become liable for any loss of or damage to the goods in an amount exceeding USD 500 per package or customary freight unit.
